Recycling

- DTMB has been recycling paper for over 15 years.
- Beginning in October 2013, BOD began recycling unusable modular furniture.
- A commingling recycling program was implemented in Jackson, Flint, Saginaw, Traverse City, Grand Rapids and Cadillac Place.
- The program allows various items, such as plastics, metals and glass to be recycled together. The vendor sorts these items later and then recycles them for the State. Annually over $10,000 is saved in landfill avoidance.
- DTMB is expanding this program statewide.
- In an average year, over 1.5 million pounds of paper is recycled, as well as 270,000 lbs. of materials through the commingling recycling pilot.

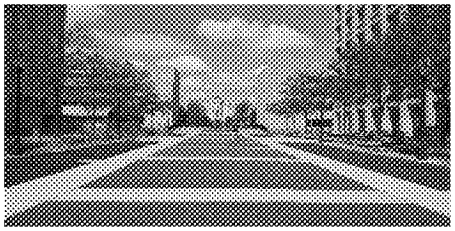
About

The Building Operations Division (BOD) is administered by the Department of Technology, Management & Budget's (DTMB) Facilities & Business Services Administration to maintain and operate facilities owned and managed by DTMB. This responsibility includes support of state government operations by providing and maintaining an environment that enhances productivity and prolongs infrastructure life at a competitive cost.



Additionally, Building Operations preventive and predictive maintenance programs ensure that DTMB's facilities meet Michigan's needs far into the future. BOD is installing modern equipment designed to reduce energy use and working with the public and private sectors to identify green energy sources and methods to use in DTMB facilities.

Building Operations, in conjunction with Office of Infrastructure Protection, works to protect the critical infrastructure of DTMB-operated facilities and ensure the safety and security of employees and visitors. BOD establishes and carries out plans that guarantee continuity of government services during emergencies, and works in conjunction around the clock to monitor and address issues affecting building environments and systems that control HVAC, electrical, life safety, energy management, building security and control systems.

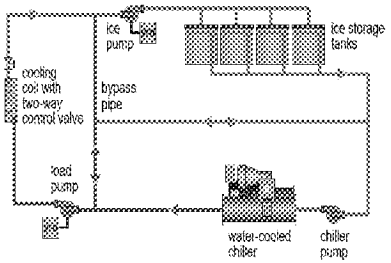
Innovation

Thermal Energy Storage:

A Greener Way to Air-Conditioning

Our ice bank thermal energy storage tanks store energy made from less expensive night-time electricity in the form of ice for use during peak demand periods. Reducing the peak electric demand using thermal energy storage cuts cooling costs 20-40%. Source energy and emissions are reduced, and construction of new power plants and transmission lines have been delayed or eliminated.

Large Water-Cooled System



BIS - Building Controls

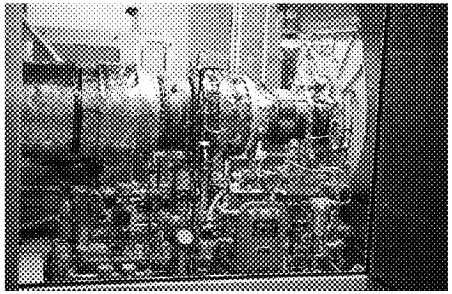
BOD created the first full building automation system of its kind within state government. The Michigan Building Intelligence System (MI-BIS) enables BOD to monitor, navigate and optimize facility controls from remote locations. MI-BIS allows building systems to communicate with each other, maximizing efficiency and sustainability.

Energy

Converting to Cogeneration

DTMB's Energy Center produces the electricity, heating, and air conditioning for 13 buildings at the State's Secondary Complex.

By converting the Energy Center, which previously used outdated technology from 1975, the state reduced the amount of power it must purchase from the local utility provider and $1.6 million in spending each year.



Environmental Advantages

The 1.2 megawatt generators reduce emissions and provide energy at a lower cost.

The state-of-the-art technology used by the turbines is superior to that used by traditional boilers and results in a reduction of nitrous oxide, carbon monoxide and other pollutants.

Self-generating electricity cuts the demand for power produced by coal-fired plants, reducing the state's carbon footprint.

Dear Tenant,

Welcome to the Department of Technology, Management and Budget (DTMB), Facilities and Business Services Administration (FBSA). The DTMB FBSA is responsible for the operation, maintenance and repair of 40 major state-owned buildings and manages over 500 leases throughout the State.

We are pleased that you have chosen our building for your office location and are looking forward to serving you over the years to come. Our combined team is eager to service your needs and direct you to one of the numerous amenities in and around the building.

This Building Manual provides an overview of our building operations and should answer any questions you may have concerning our regulations and policies. We have included building personnel names, phone numbers, emergency contact numbers and much more.

Facilities and Business Services Administration is pleased to have you as a tenant, and we welcome any questions, concerns or suggestions that you may have. We encourage you to work with us in upholding our service goals – by sharing your concerns and offering suggestions on ways that we can improve your office and surrounding environment.

Best Regards,

Tina Richardson,
Senior Deputy Director,
DTMB, Facilities and Business Services Administration

❖ SECTION II. CONTACT INFORMATION

a. Central Control – (517)-373-0190 – EMERGENCIES ONLY

- DTMB Central Control Unit operation is responsible for responding to emergency related incidents that occur within state owned facilities.
    - Office hours: : 24/7/365
    - Central Control should be contacted when the following emergencies occur:
        - Fire
        - Ambulance
        - Crime
        - Bomb threats
        - Alarm activation
    - Who to call:
        - State-owned DTMB-managed facilities – emergency calls should be made to Central Control at (517) 373-0190 or online at http://inside.michigan.gov/Pages/EmergencyNumbers.aspx
        - Leased facilities – emergency calls should be placed to 911.
            - As part of each lease, each Landlord is required to provide an Emergency Services Call Record (ESCR) so tenant can call for emergency services such as plumbing issues, roof leaks, etc.
            - In the event that an on-site agency representative does not receive sufficient resolution to an issue, the Agency's Key Contact will then make the request to the Landlord
            - If the issue continues to go unresolved, the Key Contact will then elevate the issue to RED through a DTMB-618 form submitted to the DTMB RED mailbox at: DTMB-RealEstate@michigan.gov
            - RED is empowered to enforce compliance with lease terms, including authorizing repair and deduction from rent.

b. Customer Service Center – (517) 373-6227 – NON EMERGENCY & PARKING SERVICES

- DTMB Customer Service Center (CSC) serves as DTMB's central communication link to Tenants by providing timely and consistent handling of customer needs.
    - Office hours: Monday – Friday (7:00 am – 5:00 pm).
    - CSC should be notified of any non-emergent facility-related issue or question such as:
        - Heating/cooling
        - Restrooms
        - Building maintenance
    - Communication: DTMB-managed facility tenants are notified of facility systems and operation interruptions by facility maintenance notifications, an email communication distributed by DTMB Customer Service Center.
- For information regarding Parking Services please visit online at http://inside.michigan.gov/wr/parking/Pages/default.aspx

- Please direct all questions and concerns to your building's Key Contact (defined in Section II-d) to ensure a timely response. Your Key Contact is responsible for contacting Customer Service.

❖ SECTION IV. BUILDING OCCUPANCY AGREEMENT, BUILDING SERVICES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

a. Building Occupancy Agreement (BOA)

- Building Occupancy Agreement (BOA)
    - A contract between the Tenant and the Agent, entered into each fiscal year, determined based on rates and space assignments.
    - Definitions
        - Premises: DTMB owned or managed property
        - Tenant: the agency renting premises
        - Agent: DTMB; as the owner/manager of the premises
    - Contract Agreement and Cost
        - The Agent agrees to rent the Tenant the premises identified in the Archibus report and drawings provided at the time of agreement
            - Archibus is a leased management software
            - Square footage is automatically calculated in Archibus using the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) Standard
        - The Agent shall charge the Tenant for occupancy of space in buildings operated by the Agent
            - The occupancy charge is determined based on rates and space assignments used during the budget development process for each fiscal year
            - Adjustments to the occupancy charge shall be made only upon mutual written agreement of both the Agent and the Tenant
        - The Agent shall bill the Tenant for the occupancy charge in monthly, equal installments based on coding provided by the Tenant
    - Changes to Occupancy Space and Moving Procedure (DTMB-618)
        - If the Tenant wishes to increase or decrease the amount of square footage covered by the Agreement or leased space, the Tenant shall fill out a DTMB-618 form
            - This form can be found at: http://inside.michigan.gov/dtmb/wr/Forms/Space%20Request%20for%20Leased%20or%20State-Owned%20Space.doc
            - The Agent has the option to accept or reject the Tenant's request for a space increase or decrease
            - If space is increased or decreased, the occupancy charges will remain the same until the adjustment is made during the next budget development cycle
            - All DTMB-618 forms are submitted to the Real Estate mailbox. DTMB-RealEstate@michigan.gov

- BOA Standards and Policies

  - The Tenant agrees to utilize the occupied space in accordance with standards specified in the DTMB Administrative Guide

    - Rules of Conduct on State Property (0210.06)
      - http://www.michigan.gov/documents/dmb/0210.06_181760_7.pdf

About the DTMB Service Catalog

The Department of Technology, Management and Budget (DTMB) serves common technology and administrative service needs of Executive Branch agencies and other public entities.

To support this delivery of services, it's important for our customers to have timely, accurate, and pertinent information about our services. The DTMB Service Catalog is intended to provide this type of information and to serve as common communication tool between our service areas and our customers.

For each service, the Service Catalog includes:

- Customer Benefits provided by the service
- Exclusions and Notes of items not included with the service or customer responsibilities
- Support Hours for getting help or assistance
- Timeframes and Expectations or service levels for first receiving or getting access to the service
- Costs for using the service, including different service options or levels available
- Ordering Information outlining the process for requesting the service and identifying a person to contact for more information
- Current Customers of the service
- Documents and Links of related or additional information, including service related forms

While the catalog strives to define each service in a consistent manner, the maturity level of each service varies. Over time, service areas and managers will update the service catalog to improve and increase the information available about our services.

DTMB Service Catalog Vision

The DTMB Service Catalog is a living collection of documents and information. Each service catalog entry will be reviewed and updated at least semi-annually.

DTMB will continue to enhance the service catalog to provide more self-service and automated service request options for our customers.

Your Thoughts and Feedback

DTMB is committed to continuous improvement and to meeting the needs of our customers. As always, your feedback is appreciated. You'll notice on each page of the service catalog, a Feedback option. If you see something missing, find yourself confused, or have any other thoughts you'd like to share with us, please select the Feedback option and tell us about it.

Administrative Guide to State Government

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) works with all State of Michigan departments to create, review, update and publish administrative policies and procedures that impact all aspects of state of Michigan business. The Administrative (Ad) Guide to State Government is a set of policies and procedures used by state employees in the course of conducting business.

Customer Benefits

- Obtain official procedures, contact information and "how to" information for state business topics
- Easy access to the official updated version, maintained in a central location on the Michigan.gov/DTMB Internet
- Current information – the entire Ad Guide was updated in 2012. Each policy and procedure is reviewed and updated on a predefined cycle but can be modified at any point by request of the procedure owner (contact agency noted on the procedure)

Exclusions and Notes

- All state departments and their employees are governed by the Ad Guide per P.A. 431 of 1984, as amended
- Ad Guide procedures are owned by the contact agency noted on the procedure, not by the DTMB Ad Guide Administrator
- All Ad Guide policies and procedures receive final approval by the DTMB Director

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Employee ID Badges and Key Cards

Service Description

Through this service DTMB administers and issues both ID Badges and Access Cards for State of Michigan employees and contractors. The badges and cards provide at-a-glance photo identification as well as access to state properties.

ID Badges: utilized primarily by contractors in buildings with no access control equipment

Access Cards: utilized to grant access for DTMB managed buildings and DTMB managed parking facilities

Customer Benefits

- One access card provides access to both parking and buildings
- Help identify employees and contractors at a glance for security purposes
- Aid in security of DTMB managed facilities by only allowing those people with access into the facilities
- Access cards can be activated/deactivated as employment status changes
- Access cards can be configured to allow access to one or more buildings, to floors within buildings, and for certain time periods (e.g. Card 123: Access to Romney Building, 12th Floor, Monday to Friday, 24 hours a day)

Exclusions and Notes

- Employees/contractors must have a completed DTMB-0624 form signed by their supervisor and agency authorized signer in order to receive an ID Badge or Access Card
- DTMB-IT Contractors require a DTMB-0928 and DTMB-0021 in addition to the DTMB-0624 in order to receive an ID Badge or Access Card
- Sharing of ID Badges or Access Cards is strictly prohibited
- Customers must be present to receive an ID Badge and Access Card due to the need to take a digital photo of the customer to be printed on the badge or card. Outstate/leased building customers can send in a photo through their Facilities Supervisor or authorized rep.
- State ID's are available to state agencies housed in non-DTMB-managed facilities at the rates listed below

Building Occupancy Agreement - Baseline of Services

DTMB-0123 Special Service Request for DTMB-Owned Facilities Form

DTMB-0123 Form Instructions

Version Date: 9/8/2014

Building Occupancy Agreement

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management & Budget (DTMB) provides tenant agencies with a Building Occupancy Agreement (BOA) outlining their square footage totals, including occupied and common space in DTMB owned buildings. These totals are used in the Executive Budget Process for agency rent calculations. Additionally, Facilities and Business Services Administration (FBSA) produces floor plan drawings and tracks vacant/available space to assist tenant agencies when they are looking to relocate or add additional space.

Customer Benefits

- Customers have consistent space occupancy measurements which adhere to current industry standards of space calculation
- Tenant Agencies have floor plans to assist with future planning for moves, additions and changes
- To assist the customers in establishing budgets and for billing purposes, DTMB can provide the actual occupied space and common space totals assigned to each agency
- A list of Baseline Services (e.g. regular maintenance, custodial, repair services or preventative maintenance for which there is no charge) is available for Tenant Agencies

Exclusions and Notes

- The BOA process occurs annually. FBSA personnel work with each Tenant Agency Coordinator to obtain updates and information pertaining to space changes
- Tenant Agencies must submit a DTMB-0618 to the building's Facility Supervisor to increase or decrease space

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
BOA Process is determined by the State Budget Office Executive Budget timeline each year	Information typically gathered July - Sept annually
Requests for Vacant Space options	Within 2 business days
Requests for Floor Prints	Within 2 business days

Cost

- There is no charge to agencies for assistance in developing their BOA's
- Building occupancy charges vary dependent upon the building the tenant occupies (see Rate Sheet below)
- Agency rent calculations vary based on size, location, type, usage, etc
- See "Documents" section for link to "Baseline Services" provided in DTMB managed buildings

Design and Construction Service

Service Description

DTMB provides Design and Construction Services for all State of Michigan building or structure projects. This service provides customers with professional facility design and construction project direction, procurement and direction of design and construction contracts, contract management, and project management. This service further provides and ensures the following:

- Compliance with P.A. 299 of 1980 (Occupational Code), requiring professional architectural or engineering design services for public works
- Compliance with P.A. 112 of 1988 (Single State Construction Code Act), requiring plans to be reviewed for compliance with building codes for State of Michigan building or structure projects
- Professional project direction so that the project fulfills client agency requirements and complies with building codes, the Americans with Disabilities Act, state standards, rules, and policies
- Professional design contract procurement and management
- Construction contract procurement and management
- Construction inspection, field verification and reporting of construction status

Customer Benefits

- Clients obtain the best value and high quality of both design and construction
- Client employees can continue their regular duties and apply their subject matter expertise while the Design and Construction employees contend with private sector architects, engineers, and construction contractors
- Projects will comply with law, codes, policy, and industry expectations for procurement, design and construction for all public works projects
- Make use of decades of experience in administering construction contracts to the State of Michigan's benefit
- Make use of specialized and thorough expertise in the design and construction of:
    - Buildings – new buildings, building remodeling, additions
    - Infrastructure – roads, bridges, utilities, water/sewer treatment facilities
    - Specialized projects – recreational facilities, campgrounds, harbors, prisons, education, health services, laboratories
    - Environmental – assessment, remediation, cleanup
    - Specialties – historic preservation, green design, soil erosion and sedimentation permitting, energy reduction, landscape, interior design

Exclusions and Notes

- Planning is critical for success. Please take advantage of the Design and Construction Division (DCD) Pre-Design Service if there are questions or uncertainty regarding the budget or timeline required for a project, or if there are concerns about the condition of an existing facility.

- Customers retain responsibility for decision-making as well as internal communication and reporting
- Customers timelines for internal reviews, approvals, funding processes, etc. are not included in the timeframes listed below
- Funding must be in place and available for a contract to be placed before the State Administrative Board for approval
- The DTMB DCD holds and is responsible for the contracts; therefore the DTMB DCD must retain direction of the private sector designer and contractors

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays, at 517-284-7900

Timeframes and Expectations

The timeline below represents a typical project proceeding through the design, then bid, then build project delivery model. The timeline does not reflect time necessary for the customer's internal reviews and approvals, or time necessary if the project funding needs to be changed. Legislative approval is needed for certain projects and the timeframe for such approval is also not included in the timeline below. Different project types may require a specialized approach using a different project delivery model. Discuss your need with the DTMB DCD contact.

Leasing Space

Service Description

Real Estate Division (RED) leases privately owned space for all Executive Branch state agency operations. Under the DMB Act and Executive Order 2002-20, DTMB is solely responsible for providing land and facilities for the use of state agencies through leases. RED supports operations of state government by providing real estate lease services, strategic space planning, surplus property disposal, as well as other real estate transactions. As such, RED seeks to identify and negotiate the best quality space at the best value on behalf of its client agencies.

This service includes:

- Requests for new space
- Expansion or reduction of space
- Rental Agreement/Month-to-month Agreement/License
- Lease addendum
- Lease renewal
- Lease renovations (Contract Change Orders)
    - Modifications to leased space (agency pays lessor for modifications)
- Relocation
- State as lessor
- Exercise lease option
- Lease compliance

Customer Benefits

- State agencies maximize space utilization
- State agencies have the best quality space at the best value identified and negotiated by RED on their behalf
- State agencies and Lessors capture lease savings through lease renegotiation, co-location, consolidations, and lease elimination
- State agencies benefit from RED audits of lease expenses that ensure billing accuracy, compliance with lease terms, avoidance of excess payments
- Assistance with co-location into existing leased facilities
- Open, fair, and competitive lease procurement through use of bidder's list and public advertisements
- Improved intergovernmental cooperation through RED's assistance with local units of government through notification requesting recommendations of potential site locations and consultation with local units of government
- State agency obtains opinions of the suitability of existing building space and site for lease
- State agency obtains opinion of the suitability of vacant sites proposed for new leased construction
- Land control, where required, is legally obtained and recorded
- Other Customer benefits provided by RED include:

- Market area surveys for available space opportunities;
- Well-coordinated property tours;
- Professionally negotiated and prepared lease contracts;
- Attorney General reviews facilitated in a timely and thorough manner;
- State Administrative Board approval is prepared and facilitated in a timely and thorough manner; and
- Construction quality is monitored by Design and Construction professionals

Exclusions and Notes

- Pursuant to the DMB Act (Public Act 431 of 1984, as amended) and E.O. 2002-20 the Department of Management and Budget is the only department authorized to enter into lease agreements on behalf of the State, subject to obtaining all necessary approvals
- All lease contracts are subject to the approval of the attorney general as to legal form and the state administrative board prior to execution by the director
- State of Michigan Leases have a standard 90 day cancellation clause included in its language

Pre-Design Services

Service Description

The Design and Construction Division assists agencies with early planning and consideration of facility construction or renovation projects, in order to provide accurate and professional:

- Existing Construction Assessment – structural soundness, code compliance, safe conditions, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), etc
- Project Scope Determination – can the need be met with renovation or new construction, does a design professional need to be involved, can it be built with state resources, etc
- Building or Facility Size and Needs – planning for today and the future, code compliance, ADA, functionality
- Multiple Project Prioritization – planning multiple projects to avoid conflict and waste
- Time Frames, Schedules – appropriate project timeframes for reasonable costs
- Budget – assistance developing total project costs
- Project Delivery Options – discuss available ways to deliver a completed design and construction project

Customer Benefits

- Learn whether an existing facility or site is large enough for reorganization, growth or changed business functions
- Obtain a professional engineer's or architect's assessment of an existing facility's condition and whether maintenance, repairs, or other work is necessary to comply with building codes, accessibility requirements, or health and safety
- Leverage professional facility condition assessments in negotiating with landlords for maintenance or repair
- Avoid delays and reduce overall project costs by obtaining realistic timeframes estimates for design and construction projects, including the time required for State Administrative Board approvals of contracts
- Advanced planning of a design and construction project provides the benefit of better data for organizational or operational planning changes
- Use advanced planning of a design and construction project to support budgetary requests and avoid incomplete budgets

Exclusions and Notes

- Before a project is funded for design and construction, the total project cost estimates must be updated for inflation

Real Estate Sales and Acquisitions

Service Description

Real Estate Division (RED) provides land acquisition and disposal services for all agencies not otherwise authorized through statute to perform these transactions. These services are performed for all agencies, with the exception of the Departments of: Transportation (MDOT); Natural Resources (DNR); Military and Veterans Affairs (DMVA); and the Michigan Land Bank Fast Track Authority.

Services include:

- Acquisition of needed real property (land or buildings)
- Surplus facility redeployment and reuse
- Assistance to State Agencies for disposal of surplus state property in order to obtain income for the State or avoid ongoing cost to the Agency
- Drafting legislation for statutory authorization to obtain or dispose of State-owned land and facilities
- Drafting legislation for statutory authorization to jurisdictionally transfer property between State agencies
- Jurisdictional Transfers
- Commission appraisals and title searches
- Acquisition of land control or easements for State use
- Provision of easements across State-owned lands
- Licenses and leases for the use of State-owned land and facilities
- Assistance drafting Memoranda of Understanding between other State agencies
- Records of land and facility transactions

Customer Benefits

- Provides Real Estate services for all types of transactions without additional charge and without the need to duplicate expertise in each agency
- Maintains standard templates for conveyance legislation and provides a central point of requests for legislation
- Maintains a centralized list of bidders and public advertisements
- Provides a central point of contact for the Attorney General's office and standardizes legal documents for all land projects processed under the DMB Act
- Maintains relationships with local units of government for the reuse of surplus public properties

Exclusions and Notes

- Pursuant to the DMB Act (Public Act 431 of 1984, as amended) all agencies with the exception of the Departments of: Transportation (MDOT); Natural Resources (DNR); Military and Veterans Affairs (DMVA); and the Michigan Land Bank Fast Track Authority use DTMB for real estate services. Those agencies may use RED services, but are also authorized by statute to perform their own Real Estate transactions. All land sales and acquisitions typically require statutory or budgetary authorization.

- All land sales acquisitions are approved by the State Administrative Board
- All deeds and Jurisdictional Transfer Affidavits are prepared by the Office of the Attorney General and signed by the Governor

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Space Optimization and Workspace Changes

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) provides Tenant Agencies with guidelines and design assistance to better utilize their office space. Through programming of individual agency groups needs and expanding those needs to their adjacent work groups within the agency's suite, a plan is developed to optimize the workspace. After these plans are approved by the client agency, DTMB works to implement the changes by assisting with the design, construction, move management, and modifications of the agencies' space and their employees' individual workstations.

Customer Benefits

- Provides customers with an efficient suite layout that will improve productivity
- When Tenant Agencies adhere to DTMB guidelines and workstation standardization, it reduces reconfiguration costs when changes are necessary within agency
- Agencies can achieve savings in rental costs by eliminating unnecessary work space
- Agencies receive detailed move management services resulting in seemless transitions

Exclusions and Notes

- Agency requests must be submitted using the following forms:
  - DTMB 618 for increasing or decreasing space
  - DTMB 123 for space modifications
- The published Administrative Guide to State Government gives the agencies direction as to workstation size and procedures for making changes to their workspace
  - Administrative Guide Numbers:
    - 0210.02 – Office Space Standards
    - 0210.03 – Modular Office and Furniture Modification Request
    - 0210.04 – Minor Modular Furniture Modification

Audio and Web Conferencing Services

Service Description

Audio and web conferencing services provide productive, effective, and cheaper alternatives to in-person meetings. Through these services, customers can interact with meeting participants wherever they are located. DTMB has contracted with CenturyLink and AT&T to offer options that meet customers' conferencing needs:

Audio Conferencing - Allows connection to three or more people by telephone. Customers receive a telephone number and access code that can be shared with meeting participants at any time.

Web Conferencing - Offers audio conference (phone call) with the ability for presenters to share presentations and other documents with participants over the Internet.

Customer Benefits

- Reduces costs by eliminating the need for travel for face to face meetings
- Reduces weather related (i.e. think snow and ice) meeting disruptions
- Supports remote worker and telecommuting arrangements
- Allows for collaborative involvement to share documents and presentations
- Allows for remote involvement for distant participants

Exclusions and Notes

- Audio and Web Conferencing services are provided by CenturyLink and AT&T under contract (CenturyLink Contract 071B3200120 and AT&T Contract 071B4300144)
- Request for initial setup of service must be submitted through an Agency Audio and Web Conferencing Authorized Contact directly to CenturyLink or AT&T
- Smart devices can be used for each of the services and are supported through both contractors

Support Hours

- Support is available 24 x 7 through CenturyLink and AT&T

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Metric	Target
Initial Setup of Account - CenturyLink and AT&T Connect	5 days from time request sent to contractor
After initial setup, schedule and access service	Immediate or On-Demand

Cost

If your primary need is conferencing a group of individuals together for a discussion through phone call only, the most economical option available is the CenturyLink audio conference offering:

Service Offerings - CenturyLink	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Audio Conference - Reservationless or VoIP only	$0.018 per minute per participant	Per contract rates For example: 10 participants for 60 minutes = $10.80 Each conference call can support up to 300 participants.
Web Conference - CenturyLink GlobalMeet	$0.035 per minute per participant	Reservationless Audio is integrated with the web, but an additional per minute rate of $0.018/part/min applies for both phone and VoIP audio. Each web meeting can support up to 125 participants.
Web Monthly Rate Option*	$20 per month per host	Unlimited usage up to 125 participants. Additional $0.018/part/min applies for VoIP.
Additional Services	Varies	See Additional Service Options - CenturyLink for more details.

If you frequently need web conferencing to share documents, spreadsheets, and/or presentation materials with a group, the most efficient and economical option is the AT&T Connect web monthly rate offering:

Service Offerings - AT&T Connect	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Audio Conference	$0.025 per minute per participant	Per contract rates For example: 10 participants for 60 minutes = $15.00
Web Conference	$0.07 per minute per participant	Per contract rates, additional audio rate of $0.025/part/min will apply if participants use a telephone and not audio over their computer.
Web Monthly Rate Option*	$8.75 per month	Unlimited time; up to 250 participants per session. No Audio Conference charge if call is via Web (VoIP). Normal Audio Conference charge if via phone.

*To access all conference management features as a host subscriber, it will be necessary to have the application loaded on your desktop. Please call the Client Service Center (517-241-9700) and request that the AT&T Web Conference software be installed on your desktop when you receive your new conferencing account email. Make sure to save the new account email so you have the necessary customer identification numbers to access AT&T technical and customer support as required.

Ordering and Getting Help

Request for Service on New Audio and Web Conferencing Account:
First complete a CenturyLink Audio and Web Conferencing Request form or an AT&T Audio and Web Conferencing Request form and send it to your Agency Audio and Web Conferencing Authorized Contact. The authorized requestor will forward the request to the contractor for processing. For other account and service types, see Documents section below.

Important: When you order a new account, account information will be sent via email. It is imperative that this email is saved because it contains information necessary to set up conferences and to obtain assistance when support is needed.

Support on an Existing Account or to Report Problems:
All Audio and Web Contractors

- For assistance during a conference with audio connection by phone, press "*0"; if connecting via computer, use online help function or call toll free support number
- For additional support questions contact contract sales representative:

Contractor	Representative Type	Name	Phone
AT&T	Unified Communications Representative	Scott Prier	816-554-1043
AT&T	Senior Account Manager	Chuck Bonner	616-724-7755

Web Content Filtering

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) is responsible for ensuring security of the State of Michigan technology and data (including citizen information). Through the establishment and enforcement of security standards and protocols, DTMB has been able to minimizing the number of successful cyber security attacks on State of Michigan. One of these protocols is maintained through the web content filtering service.

Statewide Standard -

- DTMB restricts many categories of websites that are not considered as default business-use categories. These include such sites as gambling and illicit content sites.

Department Standard Web Content Filtering -

- Departments have the ability to further restrict web browsing of their employees by requesting additional filters, such as all sport or shopping sites, etc

Exception Process -

- In the event that a department employee has legitimate business use to an otherwise restricted category, departments can request exceptions to the Statewide Standard

Customer Benefits

- Securing the State of Michigan's resources and assets
- Allows flexibility to support the agencies approved business

Exclusions and Notes

- Completion of the DTMB-0099 form does not automatically guarantee the granting of an exception. Exceptions are processed on a case by case basis. Approval is based on the risks to the enterprise and agency.
- Web content filtering is a non-elective enterprise service provided by Michigan Cyber Security (MCS)

Support Hours

Public Safety Tower Service

Service Description

State of Michigan, Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) maintains the largest public safety communications system in North America through the Michigan Public Safety Communication System (MPSCS). MPSCS has constructed over 244 towers and locations supporting the 800 MHz statewide Public Safety Radio system with a coverage area of more than 59,000 square miles. This service is based on availability within the MPSCS and must be used for public safety.

This service includes:

Co-Location Services

- Installation of equipment on towers and shelter properties on existing MPSCS managed locations

Site Monitoring, Maintenance, New Construction Inspections

- Inspect, repair tower equipment and adherence to required standards
- Obstruction lighting
- 800 MHz and microwave antennas
- Tower structures
- Microwave path alignments
- Equipment shelters: HVAC, Generators, Fuel, Building structure, Grounding, Fencing & grounds

In addition to these infrastructure services, the employees will support State Agencies in installation of radio antennas for control stations or similar applications on buildings and support structures.

Customer Benefits

- Leverage knowledge and experience of dedicated engineering employees
- Shared infrastructure reduces costs of construction and maintenance of towers
- Faster and cheaper than standing up dedicated infrastructure and maintaining support staff
- Standardized approaches for co-location processes, equipment installation and maintenance inspections and repairs
- Increased reliability of communications networks

Exclusions and Notes

Procurement of Commodities, Services, and IT

Service Description

DTMB Procurement provides State agencies a competitive and effective purchasing process for the acquisition of commodities, services, and information technology. As defined in Public Act 431, DTMB is charged with making purchases on behalf of each State agency for purchase amounts greater than $25,000 unless a higher amount (i.e. delegated authority) has been approved by the Chief Procurement Officer.

As part of this service, DTMB Procurement manages the bid process, provides advice and consultation on agency bids, provides training by certified instructors, and provides the forms and tools you need to effectively procure the goods and services your agency requires at the lowest net cost.

Customer Benefits

- Ensure your purchases are obtained through a fair and open competitive process
- Ensure compliance with state statutes, executive orders, and executive directives
- Obtain lower costs through leveraged spending across State agencies for frequently purchased items
- Dedicated buyer assigned to each request allows agency staff to maintain their own productivity
- Access to over 11,000 vendors through a multi-million dollar eProcurement system
- Direct support during normal business hours from helpful DTMB Procurement staff

Exclusions and Notes

- All delegated authority procurements, regardless of the classification, must follow P.A. 431 of 1984 and the DTMB Administrative Guide procedures. For your convenience, all procedures can be easily located on the intranet.
- Exceptions:
  - Agencies granted purchasing authority as defined in other statutes, such as P.A. 239 of 1972 or P.A. 17 of 1925
  - Special or extended delegated authority
  - Emergency purchasing processes

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Document Imaging

Service Description

Records Management Services (RMS) provides document imaging services via a contract with Graphic Services, Inc.

These services include:

- Conversion of paper to microfilm
- Conversion of paper to digital images
- Conversion of microfilm to digital images

Customer Benefits

- Improved access and efficiency through electronic recordkeeping
- Compliance with State of Michigan imaging standards
- Competitive rates
- Contract compliance conducted by RMS rather than agency employees
- Problem resolution handled by RMS rather than agency employees
- Benefit from nationally recognized RMS best practices and expertise

Exclusions and Notes

- A Statement of Work (SOW) is required prior to work being started
- Michigan government agencies are authorized to reproduce public records using document imaging technology. If the agency wants to destroy the original records after they are reproduced, Michigan law requires that all document imaging be conducted in compliance with State of Michigan Standards.
- Compliance with these standards ensures that the agency has an authentic reproduction of the original that can be used in a court of law as evidence
- A needs analysis and price quote can be provided upon request

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday - Friday, 7:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target

Document imaging product deliverables	Per terms identified in the Statement of Work

Cost

Rates are built into the imaging contract. However, various cost factors (such as volume, workflow, paper type, preparation work, indexing, etc.) have to be analyzed for each application to determine how these rates apply to the agency's records. Contact Records Management Services to get a price quote for imaging services.

Electronic Document Management

Service Description

The Electronic Document Management (EDM) Team provides:

- Records retention and disposal schedule review
- Business process review
- Provides recommendations related to the records
- Provides recommendations on enterprise-available document management tools (IRMA, HP TRIM, and FileNet) to support the storage, retrieval and use of electronic records, including digital images, e-mail, desktop documents, etc
- Provides resources to install and maintain the electronic document management tools

IRMA (Image Repository for Michigan Agencies) is a web-based, low cost, out-of-the-box software used to store and retrieve static digital images.

HP-TRIM (Total Records and Information Management) and FileNet are robust document management solutions capable of managing all electronic records regardless of format. Costs and implementation strategy for these products vary depending on agency requirements.

Customer Benefits

- Improved access and efficiency through electronic recordkeeping
- Enhanced security to ensure electronic records are only accessed by authorized individuals.
- Reduced storage of duplicate documents
- Reduced need for physical document storage space, real estate costs, and furniture costs
- Improved file sharing among co-workers and teams
- Enterprise-available solutions that have already been procured for use require no further purchasing and bidding process
- Customer is not responsible for the management of server, software and hardware upgrades, offsite backups, and software licenses
- Based on agency requirements, custom solutions can be developed with workflow and system integration by pre-qualified vendors

Exclusions and Notes

- Scanning capture solutions are available based on what best meets an agency's needs and what is supported by the IRMA, HP TRIM, and FileNet teams. Additional costs for capture solutions will vary depending on agency business needs.
- IRMA - A Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) is prepared for each application that defines the terms and conditions of the work, and the roles and responsibilities of the agency and RMS. The service uses a single rate structure based on the amount of space used. IRMA is a read only service for TIF images only. Image capture must be performed by the State's Imaging/Microfilm Service vendor only.

- HP TRIM - A Charter is prepared for each application that defines the terms and conditions of the work, and the roles and responsibilities of the agency and RMS. RMS and the agency will sign the Charter before work is performed. A project plan accompanies each Charter. The service uses a rate structure based on number of named users and amount of space used.
- FileNet - The Service Level Agreement (SLA) defines the terms and conditions of the work, and the roles and responsibilities of the agency and ECM team. The ongoing costs are based on the number of agency users and storage used. If custom integrations or work flows are required a Statement of Work is created and quotes obtained from prequalified FileNet contractors. Current custom cost structure is based on time and materials.

Support Hours

- IRMA and TRIM: Monday - Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., excluding State holidays
- FileNet: Monday - Friday from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., excluding State holidays

Physical Records Destruction

Service Description

Records Management Services (RMS) administers the State of Michigan's (SOM) contract with Rapid Shred, Inc. to destroy confidential and sensitive records in any format (paper, microfilm, disks, cd's, etc.) following the state's requirements for destruction, which are in compliance with strict IRS regulations. Along with the destruction of the records, the contractor provides locked bins, pick up services, and on-site destruction of records.

Customer Benefits

- Records destroyed under the contract cannot be restored to a readable format
- Records are placed in locked bins via a slot in the bins, keeping them secure until they are picked up
- Locked bins are available in many of the State of Michigan office buildings (your facility supervisor can assist you in locating one) or you can request bins from the vendor to be placed within your work area
- Records are destroyed within 24 hours of pick-up
- Avoids liabilities and penalties associated with the inappropriate release of information
- Compliance with state and federal laws that require the protection of sensitive and confidential information
- RMS conducts audits of the security and processes used by the vendor to insure proper destruction and protection of the records
- Contract compliance conducted by RMS
- Problem resolution handled by RMS

Exclusions and Notes

- Destructions of records must be authorized by an approved Retention and Disposal Schedule, otherwise they must be retained permanently
- If an agency wants to destroy records, but their schedule does not currently authorize destruction, they can contact Records Management Services to request a schedule revision that will allow for the destruction of the records

Support Hours

- Records Management Services phone support is available Monday - Friday, from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., excluding State holidays
- Vendor phone support is available Monday - Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Vendor picks-up the records	As scheduled and requested by the agency
Vendor destroys the records	Within 24-hours of pick-up

Cost

Rates are built into the confidential destruction contract. Various cost factors (such as volume, location, media, frequency, etc.) have to be determined for each agency. Contact Rapid Shred, Scott Dennis, President, 616-735-2900 to get a price quote for destruction services.

Records Storage

Service Description

Records Management Services (RMS) provides inactive records storage services for state agencies, in accordance with Retention and Disposal Schedules. Agencies and RMS manage files and record box storage and retrieval services using a Web-accessible software tool (Versatile).

Customer Benefits

State Records Center (SRC) customers:

- Reduce office space costs by storing inactive and closed files in a low-cost, off-site facility
- Records stored at the SRC can be retrieved by the owning agency quickly and easily
- The SRC has security controls to ensure that only authorized individuals can access records
- Records that are stored at the SRC are destroyed routinely in compliance with approved Retention and Disposal Schedules using the State of Michigan's confidential destruction vendor
- Disposition holds can be placed on record boxes to comply with open FOIA requests, audits, investigations, lawsuits, etc

Exclusions and Notes

- Storage of records must be authorized by an approved Retention and Disposal Schedule before they can be transferred to the SRC
- If an agency wants to store records at the SRC but their schedule does not currently authorize the transfer, they can contact RMS to request a schedule revision that will allow for the transfer of the records

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Versatile user account creation and support	2 business days
Ship barcode labels for new record boxes	2 business days
Retrieve items that are requested from the SRC shelves and prepare them for pick-up by DTMB, Mail and Delivery Services	2 business days
Respond to customer requests for assistance	1 business day
Distribute Disposal Notices to RMOs	Every 6 months
Destroy records that are authorized by the agency	3 months

Cost

Each department is billed annually for their share of the costs associated with operating the SRC using the Statewide Cost Allocation Plan (SWCAP) method, according to the number of boxes stored and the number of retrievals during a fiscal year. This cost also covers the expense of writing Retention and Disposal Schedules, shipping the records, storing the records, handling the records and destroying the records.

Cybersecurity Awareness Training

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) is pleased to announce that Michigan's next-generation cyber security training program is available to all State employees. The state-wide, online security awareness training will be provided by a vendor, Security Mentor.

- It's Easy: Every other month, each employee will receive an email with a link to a new lesson. There will be a total of 18 lessons. Employees will receive emails from Security Mentor (securitymentor.com) to activate their account, take new lessons, and remind them when they are late in completing a lesson.
- There is no formal test or assessment, but employees must complete all the pages in each lesson
- Employees will have two weeks to complete a lesson before it is late. At any time, they can log into their Security Mentor account to see the status of their current or past lessons. Employees can also retake a lesson at any time.
- Lessons are web-based, so employees decide when to take them but they must complete them by the due date
- It's Fast: Each lesson only takes about 10 minutes, fitting into everyone's busy schedule
- It's Interesting and Relevant: Employees will learn about cyber security through a variety of interactions, serious games and real world events, and get tangible, specific things they can do to be cyber secure.
- Enterprise-wide relevant content – 18 Modules on such topics as Email Security, Passwords, Office Security, Social Networking, Mobile Security, etc
- Interactive, engaging and "sticky" information easily retained by customer

Customer Benefits

Cybersecurity can be daunting: email scams and phishing attacks, malicious websites, social engineering, malware, and more. Cybersecurity Awareness training provides awareness to our employees so they can assist with helping the State of Michigan protect our networks and prevent data loss.

- Reduce potential for cyber breaches
- Reduce number of audit findings issued regarding lack of cyber security awareness training
- Armed with the right knowledge and the chance to practice new skills, our employees will be our best cyber security defense

Exclusions and Notes

- This training is not designed to replace industry/government regulated training requirements for HIPAA, IRS, etc

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Second level support is available during normal business hours from Michigan Cyber Security Office, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Employee ID Badges and Key Cards

Service Description

Through this service DTMB administers and issues both ID Badges and Access Cards for State of Michigan employees and contractors. The badges and cards provide at-a-glance photo identification as well as access to state properties.

ID Badges: utilized primarily by contractors in buildings with no access control equipment

Access Cards: utilized to grant access for DTMB managed buildings and DTMB managed parking facilities

Customer Benefits

- One access card provides access to both parking and buildings
- Help identify employees and contractors at a glance for security purposes
- Aid in security of DTMB managed facilities by only allowing those people with access into the facilities
- Access cards can be activated/deactivated as employment status changes
- Access cards can be configured to allow access to one or more buildings, to floors within buildings, and for certain time periods (e.g. Card 123: Access to Romney Building, 12th Floor, Monday to Friday, 24 hours a day)

Exclusions and Notes

- Employees/contractors must have a completed DTMB-0624 form signed by their supervisor and agency authorized signer in order to receive an ID Badge or Access Card
- DTMB-IT Contractors require a DTMB-0928 and DTMB-0021 in addition to the DTMB-0624 in order to receive an ID Badge or Access Card
- Sharing of ID Badges or Access Cards is strictly prohibited
- Customers must be present to receive an ID Badge and Access Card due to the need to take a digital photo of the customer to be printed on the badge or card. Outstate/leased building customers can send in a photo through their Facilities Supervisor or authorized rep.
- State ID's are available to state agencies housed in non-DTMB-managed facilities at the rates listed below

Michigan Continuity Management Solution Service

Service Description

Michigan Continuity Management Solution (MiCMS) is a business continuity and disaster recovery planning support system that provides reliable, secure, and online processing for State of Michigan agencies. The Living Disaster Recovery Planning System (LDRPS) is a component within the MiCMS Service that supports integration of individual departmental continuity plans into an enterprise-wide program. This integration optimizes recovery resources for agencies facing the task of analyzing complex variables and organizing diverse resources into a comprehensive business continuity plan. The living plans are stored in the LDRPS database on the SOM network and are available electronically from anywhere inside the SOM network, or through a secured VPN connection.

By using MiCMS to build your Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery plans, agencies will be assured that critical business functions supported by all State of Michigan departments and primary agencies are sustained or recovered under any conditions, despite their disruption by an emergency, disaster or other unplanned event whether natural or man-made. Those functions defined as critical by the business owner are placed on the "State of Michigan Red Card" which is a listing of IT services that are associated with agency critical business functions, and are recovered using a criticality prioritization via the SOM Red Card.

Service Offerings:

- Basic Training
- Advanced Plan Building Workshop
- Surveys and Assessment
    - Impact Analysis Summary/Gap Analysis
    - Risk Assessment
- Plan building consultation
    - Plan design
    - Plan completion
    - Plan testing

Customer Benefits

- Mitigate the risk of disruption of operations or loss of information due to unplanned outages by utilizing the service to build plans and have them available in the event of a disruption
- Assess business functions/applications using industry standard methods such as RTO (Recovery Time Objective) / RPO (Recovery Point Objective), Impact Analysis Summary, and Risk Assessment reporting
- Ensure that the computing infrastructure which supports critical business activities will be restored in accordance with the requirements of our documented criticality priorities
- MiCMS can alert the owners of business functions to the need for contingency planning for their business operation and the computing infrastructure supporting it

Exclusions and Notes

- The DTMB-0208 Automated Business Function-Service-System-Application Criticality Request Form is required to identify an application as critical, which will then be placed on the DTMB maintained State of Michigan Red Card
- Business functions/applications are assigned an RTO and an RPO by the business owner, based upon business need and requirements

Support Hours

- Support by the Disaster Recovery Team is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays
- The systems supporting MiCMS have been deemed critical (e.g. Red Card critical business functions/applications) and are supported as such during unplanned outages or down-time

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Metric	Target

Michigan Continuity of Government

Service Description

In 2003, the Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) was asked to coordinate the development of a comprehensive plan to ensure the continuation of essential functions of all state agencies in the event of an interruption to normal business operations. Business Continuity Plans ensure that critical functions of state government, that are essential to the life, safety, subsistence and welfare of the citizens of the State of Michigan, continue with little or no interruption in the event of an incident affecting state government facilities.

The DTMB oversees the continuity of operations (COOP) program and meets with agency continuity representatives to assist in the development of continuity plans.

Customer Benefits

- Leverage knowledge and experience of OIP employees to assist with the development of continuity plans
- Continuity management software (LDRPS) maintained by DTMB, Disaster Recovery Projects Section
- Training on continuity management software provided by the Disaster Recovery Projects Section

Exclusions and Notes

- While there is no official State Continuity Program, DTMB works to help agencies develop continuity plans
- Agencies are encouraged, though not required, to utilize the SunGard LDRPS system to develop and maintain continuity plans

Support Hours

- On-site support is available, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Respond to request for assistance in developing plan	1 days
Provide access to LDRPS system – after form is received and training provided	10 – 14 days

Cost

There is currently no charge to agencies for assistance in developing their continuity plans nor is there a charge for DTMB maintaining the LDRPS software.

Ordering and Getting Help

Request for Service or to Report Problems: Access to the LDRPS system is limited to employees charged with developing their agency's continuity plans. Employee's believing they should have access to the system should submit a DTMB-0949 (user) or DTMB-0950 (plan) form.

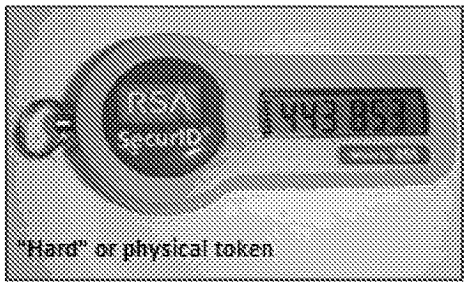
SecurID - Remote Network Access and Two-Factor Authentication

Service Description

The SecurID service provides a safe and secure mechanism for State employees and contractors to remotely access the State of Michigan network. Through this service, customers receive a "token" referred to as a SecurID which generates a constantly changing authentication code. When the customer accesses the State system, he or she uses their user ID and the authentication code (displayed at that point in time). This provides a strong layer of security for the network.

SecurIDs come in two types: one is a "hard" or physical token while the other is a "soft" token, or software that is loaded on the customer's device. Using SecurID is considered two-factor authenticated (the process involving two stages to verify the identity of an entity trying to access services in a computer or a network).



"Hard" or physical token

In addition to providing this level of authentication, the service also allows remote access through the installation of Virtual Private Network (VPN) software that is installed on State approved devices. With this software installed and the SecurID, a customer can connect to the network from home or anywhere with an internet connection, just as if the customer was at a State office building.

In today's mobile work environment, this service is particularly useful for field workers, employees at alternative work locations, and frequent travelers.

Details of the offerings are below:

Remote Access - SecurID and VPN

- Includes a token and Virtual Private Network (VPN) software that allows customers to connect to the network
- Includes ongoing support
- This option is used by the majority of customers

Two-Factor Authentication Only

- Includes the token only
- Includes ongoing support
- Customers cannot connect remotely
- Targeted at customers requiring enhanced security for accessing something that is "locked". In this case, the token is the key to get into that something.
- Limited customers require this, though the range of use is expected to grow (Michigan State Police being the primary customer)

Customer Benefits

- Cost effective and secure method for providing remote access to network

- Support mobile worker and telecommuting arrangements
- Secure access for authorized contractors or service providers located remotely
- Disable accounts for terminated employees or authorized contractors or other reasons (safety/security)
- Enhanced security for agencies requiring two-factor authentication
- Meets Multi-Factor Authentication compliance requirements for both State and Federal laws

Hard Tokens - Remote Access:

- Customers can access network from multiple computers as long as the device has been properly configured with VPN client software
- Provides the highest level of security offered by DTMB
- Satisfies Multi-Factor Authentication requirements for National Strategy for Trusted Identities in Cyberspace Level of Assurance 3 and 4

Soft Tokens - Remote Access:

- Customers can access the network from one configured computer only, plus configured State owned mobile devices
- Customers do not have to carry around and use a hard token
- Satisfies Multi-Factor Authentication requirements for National Strategy for Trusted Identities in Cyberspace Level of Assurance 3, but for Level 4

Exclusions and Notes

- All requests must be submitted through a SecurID Agency Authorized Requestor
- This service requires an internet or intranet connection which is not provided as part of this service
- Lost or damaged tokens should be reported immediately
- Non-State of Michigan equipment is not supported (e.g. contractor laptops, personal computers, and personal mobile devices)
- It is critical for customers to retain initial email instructions for soft token setup. All documentation should be saved for when it is required in the future.
- Sharing or unofficial reassignment of SecurID tokens is not allowed

For Authorized Contractors:

- Authorized contractor SecurIDs are valid for one year from date of issuance
- Soft tokens are not allowed for authorized contractors
- Authorized contractors are added to a specific VPN Group for their business purpose. For more information, contact your agency's client specialist.

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Advanced support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
New Issue – State employees	5 business days
Escalated Request for New Issue – State employee	24 hours
New Issue – authorized contractors	5 business days Note: If a new VPN group is required this process will take 45 business days.
All other offerings – below	5 business days

Cost

Service Offerings	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Remote Access – SecurID and VPN	$6.20 per month	• Includes both a token ($3.10 per month) and VPN software ($3.10 per month) • Service is active until the hard or soft token expires. At that point, a new request for service must be submitted.
Two-Factor Authentication Only	$3.10 per month per token	• Includes a hard token only
Reissue a replacement hard token if lost or damaged	$70 per token (one-time expense)
Transfer token to another user; Vendor Renewals; Cancel tokens; Name / User ID Changes	$10 per request	Note: One request can include multiple transfers, renewals, cancellations, and/or name changes

Ordering and Getting Help

Request for Service: Requests for service can be initiated by submitting a DTMB-0051 Form through a SecurID Agency Authorized Requestor.

To Report Problems: Contact the CSC at 517-241-9700 or 1-800-968-2644.

For Billing Inquiries and Changes: Billing occurs through Telecom. Billing errors can be reported to the CSC at 517-241-9700 or 1-800-968-2644. Billing changes or adjustments should be processed through the automated DTMB-0919 Invoice Coding Change Request Form.

Security Awareness Training

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) Office of Infrastructure Protection (OIP) is responsible for security measures in all DTMB-managed facilities. Because a strong sense of security awareness by employees is paramount to a successful security program, OIP offers Security Awareness Training sessions to all agencies. Security awareness training covers:

- Risk management
- Physical Security Controls
- DTMB Security Operations
- What employees can do to help stay safe
- Basic security while coming to and from the office

Customer Benefits

- Promote a safe work environment
- Consistent training for employees regardless of location

Exclusions and Notes

- Security awareness training sessions are available to all agencies and are scheduled at a mutually agreeable time for the agency and the Office of Infrastructure Protection

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Respond to Initial Request for Employee Security Awareness Training	1 day
Present Security Awareness Training	30 – 60 days from request

Cost

Costs are covered via Core Funding; as such there is no additional charge for Security Awareness Training. Additional related services will be billed as follows:

Service Offerings	Rate	Details / Deliverables
Security Awareness Presentation	$75.65 per hour	Schedule session at agency request; the presentation and Q&A takes about 2 hours

Ordering and Getting Help

Request for Service or to Report Problems: Contact your agency's Human Resources Office, Emergency Management Coordinator or Division Director, who will work with the Office of Infrastructure Protection to schedule an Employee Security Awareness Training session.

Security Camera Service

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) is responsible for security measures, including the installation, monitoring and maintenance of video surveillance cameras, in all state-owned, DTMB-managed facilities. DTMB's Office of Infrastructure Protection (OIP) also supports agency requests for video surveillance in agency-owned and leased facilities. Through this service DTMB helps agencies coordinate their security needs and protect their interests.

This service includes:

Camera Installation and Maintenance

- Site assessment for appropriate camera application, type and placement
- Installation of camera equipment
- Monitoring, inspection and repair of equipment

Video Surveillance, Storage and Retrieval

- 24-hour monitoring of surveillance cameras
- 30-day (90 day or more available) storage of video
- Retrieval of video upon approved authorized request

Customer Benefits

- Single point of contact for installation, maintenance, repair, and surveillance footage retrieval
- Standardized approaches and best practices for installation
- Leverage knowledge and experience of dedicated security specialists

Exclusions and Notes

- Once the equipment is installed, there are on-going charges for connecting the camera to the state network (see "Internal Access to the State Network" for more information)
- Available only in state-owned and leased facilities, excluding prison facilities and state-run hospitals
- A Video Request form must be submitted in order for video to be retrieved and turned-over to the requestor
- Video will be released only to an agency's Human Resources Director or their designee and police agencies
- The timeframe in which contracted vendors provide estimates, install and repair cameras is outside the control of DTMB

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.,

excluding State holidays
- Emergency repairs are available 24x7x365

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Request for Assessment	15 – 30 days
Provide Estimate	15 – 30 days
Installation and Repair	Dependent on vendor
Provide Access to Camera Network – per user	30 – 45 days
Retrieval of Video	< 24 hours

User Account Service

Service Description

In order to protect the State data and technology infrastructure, DTMB manages access to the State of Michigan network and computers. As such, each user is required to have a unique username and a password that meets certain criteria in order to login to a computer. The management of these usernames and passwords is done centrally. This service provides the following:

- Administration of User Accounts
  - Create new user accounts (including email accounts)
  - Delete or unsubscribe user accounts
  - Manage accounts of existing user such as name changes or agency re-assignments
- Creation of Security Groups
  - Clusters users into groups for easier management of permissions to individual applications such as SharePoint and email groups

Customer Benefits

- Provides central administration and security oversight ensuring state resources are protected
- Allows agencies to control access to their data to meet regulatory compliance

Exclusions and Notes

- All Network User Accounts are initiated or approved by an agency User ID Authorized Requestor

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target

Web Content Filtering

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) is responsible for ensuring security of the State of Michigan technology and data (including citizen information). Through the establishment and enforcement of security standards and protocols, DTMB has been able to minimizing the number of successful cyber security attacks on State of Michigan. One of these protocols is maintained through the web content filtering service.

Statewide Standard -

- DTMB restricts many categories of websites that are not considered as default business-use categories. These include such sites as gambling and illicit content sites.

Department Standard Web Content Filtering -

- Departments have the ability to further restrict web browsing of their employees by requesting additional filters, such as all sport or shopping sites, etc

Exception Process -

- In the event that a department employee has legitimate business use to an otherwise restricted category, departments can request exceptions to the Statewide Standard

Customer Benefits

- Securing the State of Michigan's resources and assets
- Allows flexibility to support the agencies approved business

Exclusions and Notes

- Completion of the DTMB-0099 form does not automatically guarantee the granting of an exception. Exceptions are processed on a case by case basis. Approval is based on the risks to the enterprise and agency.
- Web content filtering is a non-elective enterprise service provided by Michigan Cyber Security (MCS)

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Application Development and Maintenance

Service Description

Software applications are vital to successful delivery of many customer business processes, whether they are commercial-off-the shelf (COTS), custom developed, web-based, mobile, or some combination thereof. Through this service, DTMB provides resources for the procurement, development and maintenance of applications, including both contracted and in-house resources.

This service strives for consistent and high quality outcomes or deliverables to meet customer business needs while leveraging best practices for application development by following the State's system engineering methodology (SEM) and project management (PMM) methodologies.

Following are some of the deliverables available to customers of this service:

- Gather and document business and technical requirements
- Design and architect applications, ensuring security and technology requirements are met
- Develop applications, using development languages that best fit the project
- Develop interfaces and integration with other systems
- Testing activities
- Upgrade or enhance existing applications
- Maintain, support and ensure applications meet operational requirements

Any agency in need of a new application or changes to an existing application must use this service.

Customer Benefits

- Strive for consistent delivery of on-time and on-budget application development projects
- Adaptable to custom or commercial off-the-shelf solutions
- Flexible to various development methods to best meet customer needs and expectations including agile development, iterative, prototyping, or waterfall
- Handle projects of any size, complexity, and criticality
- Handle application interface requirements and specifications for application data sharing
- Can develop and maintain reports and reporting requirements
- Adaptable to all application maintenance activities
- Handle technical system implementation activities such as firewall rules, network routing, domain name server coordination, and virtual private networks

Exclusions and Notes

- Planning is critical to the success of application development and maintenance. Advance contact with the agency Business Relationship Manager (BRM) is necessary so that the right resources can be made available when needed.
- Availability and active participation by agency staff is critical to success of any project

- Customer responsibilities vary based on complexity of the development project or maintenance activity
- Deliver varying levels of service, such as "high availability" for critical systems, based on customer needs
- See the Geospatial Service for information on mapping type of applications
- See the Usability and User Experience Service to complement application development and maintenance

Support Hours

Standard support includes:

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays
- Expanded hours of application support must be pre-arranged with the agency Business Relationship Manager through the Partnership Agreement

GovDelivery - Email Lists and Subscriptions

Service Description

This service provides customers the ability to distribute mass communications to constituents and employees. Customers can mass e-mail (one-way only) and text message communications to specific groups. Additionally, this service integrates with social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, etc.), making it easier to build and deliver consistent messages. The current service is built on GovDelivery software delivery.

Customer Benefits

- Unlimited one-way messaging via e-mail and text messaging (also known as short messaging service, abbreviated as SMS)
- Distribution lists can be set up to be self-subscribe/unsubscribe or the subscribe/unsubscribe settings can be handled by the list owner
- Messaging can be integrated with social media allowing employees to send information via multiple channels (e.g. email, Twitter, Facebook) using one interface
- In-depth metrics and messaging data allowing customers to track delivery, open/delete, and click events
- Ability to automate and schedule communications in advance

Exclusions and Notes

- GovDelivery accounts are established and administered at the agency level (i.e. one for each agency) and typically handled through an agency's Communication Office.

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through GovDelivery Client Care (see Getting Help below)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Software Installation

Service Description

The Department of Technology, and Management, and Budget (DTMB) is responsible for the installation of software onto state-owned equipment for state employees to conduct business. State employees often use the same applications but require different configurations. Additionally, new software is requested on a daily basis. This service provides the management for the installation of computer software programs. It includes:

- Create software package - a "package" is the term used to describe taking a piece of software (usually from a cd/dvd or downloaded) and configuring it to be installed on a state computer; this is required for all software to be deployed to a state computer and usually includes specific software configuration
- Install software package - for the building of new computer equipment or upgrades to existing equipment
- Remove software package - for deleting outdated or unused software programs

Customer Benefits

- Consistent, repeatable installation on each PC
- Enhanced reporting capability to report such things as software version, what computers it is loaded, how many installations etc. to help aid audit reporting
- Software installation performed remotely reducing the interruption to daily work
- Allows for scheduling and batching of software installations

Exclusions and Notes

- Purchasing software licenses is outside of this service and is the responsibility of the requesting agency. Cost of the software is paid by the requesting agency.
- Software upgrades and updates must be reported as new software requests

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target

Create software package	21 business days
Install software package	10 business days
Remove software package	2 business days

Cost

DTMB supports the delivery of many services, including this one, through the "Office Automation Rate" applied to the number of desktops and laptops per agency. Services supported in this manner are provided as standard, non-optional services to agencies. (Additional Office Automation Rate Information)

Software Testing

Service Description

The Software Testing Service aims to improve and achieve quality across all software projects. The independent, quality testing team provides the following services:

Quality Assurance (QA) Testing – the team specializes in black box testing methodology (examining the functionality of an application without peering into its internal structures or workings) to ensure the software is stable and working per the design specifications (e.g. Sprint and System Testing).

Education and Planning of User Acceptance Testing (UAT) Activities– this offering is used to help educate the business area about conducting quality UAT activities. It provides the knowledge for business resources to be able to plan, prepare and execute UAT.

Test Lead Role – this offering operates in a staff augmentation manner, providing a skilled resource to serve in a Test Lead Role. The primary goal will be for the Test Lead to facilitate, plan and execute the planned testing activities for a project.

Further Details

Customer Benefits

- Testing results in a higher quality software product
- Ensure requirements are met
- Detect software failures and defects prior to going to production
- Improved customer satisfaction with the software
- Implement standard testing processes across all agency projects

Exclusions and Notes

- Planning is critical to success. Advance contact is advised (recommended: 2 months). Testing resources should be included in the communication plan and receive project status reports.
- The quality of documentation (including requirements, use cases, user stories or test scripts) directly affects the ability to successfully test the system or product
- Testing services do not include test case/script writing; testing is executed against whatever functional documentation is provided by the project team
- When an appropriate amount of time is not allocated for testing, the ability to locate and identify the maximum number of defects may be affected
- Education and Planning of User Acceptance Activities does not cover actual UAT execution. It's intended to help prepare and support customers who will be involved in the UAT effort.
- Estimated timeframes are heavily dependent on the application size, testing scope and complexity of the application

- Load testing, penetration testing, etc should be handled by other technical or project staff

Support Hours

- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays.

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Metric	Target
Respond to Testing Service Request (provide estimate)	7 business days
Resources Available to Provide Selected Services	6 weeks from initial service request

Cost

Service Offering	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Quality Assurance Testing	$90 per hour	Test and document results
Education and Planning for User Acceptance Testing	$90 per hour	Ensure customer is prepared to conduct UAT activities.
Test Lead Role	$90 per hour	Depends on the complexity of the project - the goal is for the Test Lead to facilitate, plan and execute testing activities.

Note: Scope of all service offerings are documented and agreed to via the SEM-603 Test Type Approach and Report.

Surplus and Mail

State Surplus, Warehouse Storage, Delivery Services, Mail Services

Version Date: 8/19/2014

Delivery Services

Service Description

Delivery Services provides freight, U.S. and Inter-Departmental (ID) Mail delivery state-wide.

Service include the following:

- Dedicated Freight Delivery - freight delivery runs dedicated to customer needs
- On Demand Freight Delivery - freight delivery to state agencies located around the state
- U.S. Mail Pick-Up and Delivery - pick up of U.S. Mail at the Collins Road post office and delivery to agencies around the state. This service is for incoming U.S. Mail to the State of Michigan. Not all buildings have a street address, therefore Delivery Services picks up, sorts, identifies and delivers the mail.
- ID Mail Pick-Up and Delivery - pick up and delivery of ID Mail in the Lansing area as well as on our regional routes (Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Flint, Saginaw, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, etc). This service is available to agencies around the state and is used to send mail between state offices that are serviced by ID Mail runs instead of sending it through the U.S. Mail system and paying postage.
- State Agency Moving Services - moving furniture, files, and office contents

Customer Benefits

- Safe and secure delivery of goods using secure trucks
- Dedicated freight runs to meet customer needs
- On Demand freight (as needed one time shipments of surplus items, large outstate mailings, paper forms, palletized items and other cargo) and moving services for state agencies
- Next day delivery of ID Mail to the agencies around the state saving U.S. Mail postage costs and time
- Tracking of mail using a DTMB-529 (inter-departmental mailing receipt), provides chain of custody using signatures to track mail from sender to recipient

Exclusions and Notes

- The DTMB-529 form is a multiple page form and can be obtained by contacting Delivery Services (an example can be found below in the Documents section)
- USPS mail pick up services are for incoming U.S. mail sent to the Downtown Lansing and Collins Road post offices only

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., excluding state holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Address Cleansing and Geocoding

Service Description

The Address Cleansing and Geocoding (ACG) service provides address cleansing, standardization, geocoding, and spatial attributes to meet agency requirements. Addresses are run through a process that cleans the information, adds geocoding and spatial data to the record, and creates standard formatted addresses in return. The service provides both batch processing and real - time querying capabilities, can be embedded in third party, commercial off-the-shelf (COTS) products, and customized for specific applications.

Included data:

- USPS Addresses
- Delivery Point Validation (DPV)
- National Change of Address (NCOA)
- Canadian Postal Addresses
- Geocoding – different levels of geocoding are available depending on needs:
    - Zip code - centroid – center point of zip code area or post office
    - Street level – point derived from interpolated address range
    - Parcel centroid – center point of parcel (Note: Not available within the ArcGIS process due to lack of parcel availability)
    - Spatial Attributes - census geography codes, legislative district codes, and other attributes of available polygonal geography

Customer Benefits

- Supports high availability for mission critical applications
- CASS certification can result in lower meter mailing rates
- Increases delivery rates with lower amounts of parcels being returned to sender
- Allows address information and datasets to be located on a map and used for spatial analysis: improving decision making abilities
- Allows integration with others spatial attributes and datasets such as census demographic data, DEQ regulatory areas, etc

Exclusions and Notes

- Average match rate for geocoding is 80%
- Unlimited batch geocoding does not include manual geocoding reconciliations

Support Hours

- Basic telephone support is available through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Advanced support is available during normal business hours, Monday - Friday 8:00 am - 5:00 p.m., excluding State holidays

Data Warehouse

Service Description

The Data Warehouse Service offered by DTMB allows customers to conduct high performance analytics, data mining activities, and enhanced decision support capabilities. Currently, the Data Warehouse Service employs Teradata technology. Teradata has been recognized by Gartner as the leader in Data Warehousing since 2003.

Primary business drivers for customers to use this service include the following needs:

- Analyze large amounts of data in a rapid and timely manner
- Offload analysis and reporting from transaction processing systems
- Platform with controls and procedures in place to support data sharing
- Integrate data from multiple data sources, including other departments
- Convenient single repository of data and metadata
- Maintain a history of the data
- Enhanced business intelligence through the use of predictive analytics and data mining

The service includes the following:

- Initial setup and access to Production, Development and Test environments
- Desktop client software for querying the data warehouse
- Comprehensive security that meets IRS Publication 1075 requirements
    - Role-based security
    - to encrypt data in transit
    - Comprehensive activity logging
- Servers and software to load data from many data sources, including Oracle and SQL Server
- Training and mentoring

Customer Benefits

- High performance analytical processing, data mining and tactical decision support on industry-leading Data Warehousing platform
- Ability to integrate data from multiple business areas and departments
- Platform capable of supporting data sharing among multiple departments per Executive Directive 2013-1
- Provides access management via role-based security
- Ability to encrypt data-in-transit and data-at-rest to meet Federal Tax Identifiers (FTI) and Personal Identifying Information (PII) requirements
- Active hot-standby capability by implementing Active-Active solution
- Query audit logs provide individual accountability for all actions on the data warehouse
- Leveraged knowledge and experience of dedicated data warehousing experts
- Allows agencies to maintain control and security over their data warehouse resources

- Platform to execute data load processes is provided
- Weekly user group meetings are held to discuss outstanding issues
- All data are archived weekly. Data can be archived more frequently to meet requirements.

Exclusions and Notes

- Staffing for the development of data load processes and reports, and database administration are not a part of the service. Staff augmentation can be procured through Blanket Purchase Order 084B1300138.
- Access to the ETL DataStage servers are not provided as part of this service
- Agencies must perform an annual access rights review
- Single row inserts/updates/deletes cannot be used for large volume data sets
- This service cannot be used for On-line Transaction Processing (OLTP)
- Access to other department's data must be facilitated by a data sharing agreement

Economic, Demographic, and Labor Market Information and Insights

Service Description

The Bureau of Labor Market Information and Strategic Initiatives (LMISI) is the official source for economic, demographic, and labor market information for the state of Michigan and its regions. LMISI administers the state's federal and state cooperative programs with the Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Census Bureau. This enables the provision of accurate, reliable, timely, and transparent information and insights to help customers and citizens make informed decisions.

LMISI produces data through grants from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Census Bureau and disseminates information and insights through grants from the Employment and Training Administration (ETA) and through a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Workforce Development Agency (WDA).

To learn more, please visit the LMISI website.

Customer Benefits

- Receive valuable insight and knowledge in labor market and demographic information free of cost

Exclusions and Notes

- While LMISI main offices are in Detroit and Lansing, economic analysts and specialists are available to travel and provide products and services to customers and citizens

File Transfer Service

Service Description

The File Transfer Service (FTS) is a managed file transfer system that stores and forwards files between State of Michigan agencies and internal and external trading partners. External partners can include private business partners, local government agencies, federal government agencies and other states' agencies.

- The FTS has front-end servers (SSLFTP(FTPS)/SFTP/FTP/WEB) in the DMZ and Vendornet security zones
- The DMZ and Vendornet security zones use secure connections back to the FTS application servers
- The FTS maintains confidentiality of internal host IP addresses
- Centralizes diverse communications, State of Michigan servers are able to use a single transfer protocol
- The FTS handles all of the different protocols used by our trading partners
- The FTS provides data transformation services via our vendor IPSwitch. Example of formats supported: XML, EDI, SWIFT, ACH, BAI, BAI2 ERP

Customer Benefits

- Managed, centralized and secure store/forward file transfer system
- Secure access management via role based agency views
- Monitored file transfer services 24x7x365
- Encrypted data at rest
- Configured Disaster Recovery Service

Exclusions and Notes

- All internal and external file transfers must use the secure file transfer protocol

Geospatial Service

Service Description

This service provides agencies the ability to leverage the state's multi-million dollar investment in geographic information systems (GIS) and geospatial data. Through employing a consolidated infrastructure, this service provides access to the state's rich Michigan Geographic Framework (MGF) data while allowing agencies to create, store, and manage data in an enterprise environment.

The following offerings are available within this service:

Geospatial Data Management (Core Service - available at no additional cost to agencies)

- Initial setup and access to the Spatial Data Warehouse
- 10 gb of storage space for agency data (more space is available at additional cost)
- Publish agency created map services
- Publish datasets to the Michigan Geographic Data Library
- Access to the Michigan Geographic Framework

Geospatial Application Development

- Build custom mapping applications
- Document requirements, test, and implement

Geospatial Custom Services

- Create custom geospatial datasets, including geocoding and spatial analysis
- Custom printed maps and electronic maps
- Michigan Statewide Authoritative Imagery and LiDAR Program (MiSAIL)

Customer Benefits

- Leverage knowledge and experience of dedicated geospatial experts
- Centralized repository reduces redundant data collection, management, and storage
- Allows agencies to maintain control and security over their geospatial data
- Faster and cheaper than standing up dedicated infrastructure and maintaining support employees
- The MGF provides a standard, GIS data model that facilitates cross-functional communications and interoperability between agencies

Exclusions and Notes

- Geospatial data sharing agreements and governance policies are determined by the business use
- ESRI desktop licenses (e.g. ArcGIS) are not included in this service area
- Certain data requirements must be met in order for data to be posted to the Michigan Geographic Data Library

Support Hours

- Basic telephone support is available through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Advanced support is available during normal business hours, Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Network File Service

Service Description

DTMB provides state users with a standard mechanism for storing files within the State network. This service allows users to access their files and directories which are stored on state servers as if they are stored locally. It also provides a central location to store shared files and control user access to these directories through network user accounts (see User Account Service). This service includes:

File Storage

- Total amount calculated at the Department level based on 300 mb for each workstation
- Additional storage available at additional cost
- Includes backup of data; backups maintained for 30 days

Common File Structure

- H Drive – Personal Home Directory
- S Drive – Share Drive for the business unit or bureau
- Additional network drive networks can be requested to meet business needs

Customer Benefits

- Ability to share documents and files with coworkers
- Backup critical files to the network

Exclusions and Notes

- Backups occur on data stored within the managed drives and does not cover files stored on computer hard drives or external devices
- Files can be accessed only if you are connected to the State network
- Access to network file shares must be requested by an Agency Authorized Requestor

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

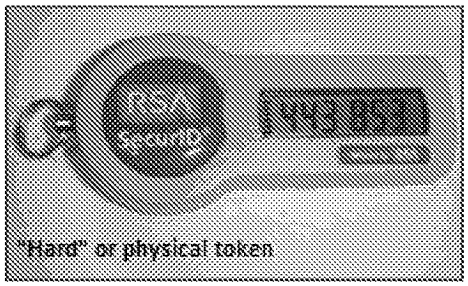
SecurID - Remote Network Access and Two-Factor Authentication

Service Description

The SecurID service provides a safe and secure mechanism for State employees and contractors to remotely access the State of Michigan network. Through this service, customers receive a "token" referred to as a SecurID which generates a constantly changing authentication code. When the customer accesses the State system, he or she uses their user ID and the authentication code (displayed at that point in time). This provides a strong layer of security for the network.

SecurIDs come in two types: one is a "hard" or physical token while the other is a "soft" token, or software that is loaded on the customer's device. Using SecurID is considered two-factor authenticated (the process involving two stages to verify the identity of an entity trying to access services in a computer or a network).



"Hard" or physical token

In addition to providing this level of authentication, the service also allows remote access through the installation of Virtual Private Network (VPN) software that is installed on State approved devices. With this software installed and the SecurID, a customer can connect to the network from home or anywhere with an internet connection, just as if the customer was at a State office building.

In today's mobile work environment, this service is particularly useful for field workers, employees at alternative work locations, and frequent travelers.

Details of the offerings are below:

Remote Access - SecurID and VPN

- Includes a token and Virtual Private Network (VPN) software that allows customers to connect to the network
- Includes ongoing support
- This option is used by the majority of customers

Two-Factor Authentication Only

- Includes the token only
- Includes ongoing support
- Customers cannot connect remotely
- Targeted at customers requiring enhanced security for accessing something that is "locked". In this case, the token is the key to get into that something.
- Limited customers require this, though the range of use is expected to grow (Michigan State Police being the primary customer)

Customer Benefits

- Cost effective and secure method for providing remote access to network

- Support mobile worker and telecommuting arrangements
- Secure access for authorized contractors or service providers located remotely
- Disable accounts for terminated employees or authorized contractors or other reasons (safety/security)
- Enhanced security for agencies requiring two-factor authentication
- Meets Multi-Factor Authentication compliance requirements for both State and Federal laws

Hard Tokens - Remote Access:

- Customers can access network from multiple computers as long as the device has been properly configured with VPN client software
- Provides the highest level of security offered by DTMB
- Satisfies Multi-Factor Authentication requirements for National Strategy for Trusted Identities in Cyberspace Level of Assurance 3 and 4

Soft Tokens - Remote Access:

- Customers can access the network from one configured computer only, plus configured State owned mobile devices
- Customers do not have to carry around and use a hard token
- Satisfies Multi-Factor Authentication requirements for National Strategy for Trusted Identities in Cyberspace Level of Assurance 3, but for Level 4

Exclusions and Notes

- All requests must be submitted through a SecurID Agency Authorized Requestor
- This service requires an internet or intranet connection which is not provided as part of this service
- Lost or damaged tokens should be reported immediately
- Non-State of Michigan equipment is not supported (e.g. contractor laptops, personal computers, and personal mobile devices)
- It is critical for customers to retain initial email instructions for soft token setup. All documentation should be saved for when it is required in the future.
- Sharing or unofficial reassignment of SecurID tokens is not allowed

For Authorized Contractors:

- Authorized contractor SecurIDs are valid for one year from date of issuance
- Soft tokens are not allowed for authorized contractors
- Authorized contractors are added to a specific VPN Group for their business purpose. For more information, contact your agency's client specialist.

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Advanced support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
New Issue – State employees	5 business days
Escalated Request for New Issue – State employee	24 hours
New Issue – authorized contractors	5 business days Note: If a new VPN group is required this process will take 45 business days.
All other offerings – below	5 business days

Cost

Service Offerings	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Remote Access – SecurID and VPN	$6.20 per month	• Includes both a token ($3.10 per month) and VPN software ($3.10 per month) • Service is active until the hard or soft token expires. At that point, a new request for service must be submitted.
Two-Factor Authentication Only	$3.10 per month per token	• Includes a hard token only
Reissue a replacement hard token if lost or damaged	$70 per token (one-time expense)
Transfer token to another user; Vendor Renewals; Cancel tokens; Name / User ID Changes	$10 per request	Note: One request can include multiple transfers, renewals, cancellations, and/or name changes

Ordering and Getting Help

User Account Service

Service Description

In order to protect the State data and technology infrastructure, DTMB manages access to the State of Michigan network and computers. As such, each user is required to have a unique username and a password that meets certain criteria in order to login to a computer. The management of these usernames and passwords is done centrally. This service provides the following:

- Administration of User Accounts
  - Create new user accounts (including email accounts)
  - Delete or unsubscribe user accounts
  - Manage accounts of existing user such as name changes or agency re-assignments
- Creation of Security Groups
  - Clusters users into groups for easier management of permissions to individual applications such as SharePoint and email groups

Customer Benefits

- Provides central administration and security oversight ensuring state resources are protected
- Allows agencies to control access to their data to meet regulatory compliance

Exclusions and Notes

- All Network User Accounts are initiated or approved by an agency User ID Authorized Requestor

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Desktop and Laptop Service

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) provides a wide array of desktop and laptop services designed to ensure customer equipment is available and working. Focused on "managing the desktop", the service includes a standard desktop configuration and the actual installation, support and retirement of each item.

Separated into 4 distinct areas, DTMB customer service representatives provide these professional services allowing customers to remain productive.

Desktop and Laptop Lifecycle Management

- Installation and setup of new desktops/laptops in the customer's office (Note: Purchases of new equipment must be initiated through an agency's procurement coordinator.)
- Redeployment and/or reimage of existing desktops/laptops
- Relocation of desktops/laptops from one office or location to another (i.e. disconnect and reconnect)
- Retirement or salvage of desktops/laptops
- Maintain surplus or stock desktops/laptops for your agency for quick placement when needed
- Access detailed information and data about desktops/laptops through the Information Technology Asset Management (ITAM) solution

Desktop and Laptop Productivity Software and Configuration

- Provide Windows operating system and upgrades (patches)
- Provide virus protection software
- Manage the State's standard desktop configuration and software (e.g. Office Pro, Internet Explorer)
- Provide encryption software for laptops

Desktop and Laptop Support

- Remote Device Support via remote control software – allows support staff to access your desktop or laptop remotely to troubleshoot problems
- On-site Support – field service technicians will visit your office to troubleshoot and repair

Custom Services

- After hours service requiring on-site support
- Support of non-standard desktops and laptops

Customer Benefits

- Consistent and simplified operating environment
- Apply patches and install software without having to visit or 'touch' each desktop and laptop
- Expert technical support
- Single point of contact should desktop and laptop problems arise

Exclusions and Notes

- Clients are responsible for backing up their own data. There are documents available to assist with this process
- Peripheral (local printers, cameras, scanners, etc) installs and break / fix activities are defined under the Peripheral Device Service
- New software installation, such as non-standard software, is covered under the Software Installation Service
- Operating system migrations that require on-site support have additional costs
- Purchase of desktops, laptops, and non-standard software are not covered under this service

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- On-site support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Metric	Target
Installation and setup of desktops and laptops (i.e. new or redeploys from stock)	2 weeks
Relocation of desktops/laptops (disconnects and reconnects)	2 weeks
Respond to break / fix support requests – Quick fix	Immediate
Respond to break / fix support requests – Advanced resolution required	1 day
Respond to break / fix support requests – On-site visit required (Note: all efforts are made to remotely resolve issues. For cases when that's not possible, a field technician will need to visit the customer's office.)	2 days

Cost

DTMB supports the delivery of many services, including this one, through the "Office Automation Rate" applied to the number of desktops and laptops per agency. Services supported in this manner are provided as standard, non-optional services to agencies.

Electronic Fax Service

Service Description

The Electronic Fax Service provides the ability for customers to send and receive faxes electronically, in contrast to sending and receiving paper through a traditional fax machine or the multi-function print/copy/scan devices. With this service, customers are able to do the following:

- Receive inbound faxes on specific, dedicated phone numbers
- Route inbound faxes to an email address, to a network printer, or directly to a network folder (e.g. shared directory)
- Send inbound faxes directly into an Electronic Document Management system for indexing and storage (see Electronic Document Management Service for other details)
- Send outbound faxes from a customer desktop or from an integrated application

Customer Benefits

For inbound faxes:

- Faxes can be captured and routed to their destination automatically without printing, saving time and money
- Automatic desktop delivery avoids lost or missed faxes
- Automated fax delivery and transmission increases document security
- Cost savings by reducing the number of fax machines and time spent by staff sorting and delivering faxes
- Customers can receive faxes electronically reducing the processing steps of scanning paper faxes

For outbound faxes:

- Faxes can be sent directly from desktop computers
- Supports broadcasting of faxes
- Supports fax confirmation receipts

Exclusions and Notes

- The Electronic Fax Service desktop software (i.e. RightFax software) is provided as part of the solution at no additional cost when the solution involves desktop Faxing

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Product support is available during normal business hours, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Respond to Initial Service Request	2 days
Provide Service	4 weeks
Service Changes	2 days

Cost

Service Offerings	Rate	Details/Deliverables
Electronic Fax Service	$0.085 per page * or $2.00 minimum charge per phone number per month	Cost is the same for inbound and outbound faxes. Inbound faxes require a dedicated phone number. For phone numbers with low volume (less than 24 pages per month), a $2.00 minimum will be applied.

Ordering and Getting Help

Smart TVs in Conference Rooms

Overview

As Smart TVs become increasingly popular, some DTMB and agency-managed conference rooms are being equipped with them. Smart TVs are the next generation of projectors - providing crisper, cleaner, and brighter displays in a more cost-effective manner. With this new technology comes some new requirements and information for purchase, support, and use.

When interacting with Smart TVs, it's important to note distinctions between agency-leased and DTMB-managed conference rooms. The purchase, maintenance, and replacement of Smart TVs in agency-leased conference rooms is the responsibility of the agency.

Smart TVs are generally supported in the same manner as any computer peripheral. Specifically, customers can depend on DTMB to support the connectivity between a computer and a Smart TV, including support for cabling. DTMB is unable to provide support on the Smart TV itself (e.g. bad power supply or system board malfunction).

Features

- Cleaner and brighter display
- Dark conference room lighting no longer required
- Audible, crisp sound
- Cost-effective
- Multiple connectivity options

Customer Reminders

- For security purposes, Smart TVs should not be plugged directly into the network or have wifi enabled
- Smart TVs should be cabled to provide VGA, HDMI, and Mini Display Port connections for the best product experience
- To increase cost-effectiveness, please ensure Smart TVs have at least 1 VGA and 2 HDMI input jacks when purchasing them
    - For consistency of support: HDMI 1 should be connected to the HDMI cable and HDMI 2 to the HDMI to Display Port cable
- Connection Guides should be provided in each conference room with a Smart TV to facilitate product use
- Smart TVs in agency-leased conference rooms are under the ownership of that agency

More Information

- For agencies wanting to place a new Smart TV in a conference room, the following assistance is available:
    - Purchasing: Smart TVs fall within the category of IT Delegated Authority purchases and as such can be purchased directly by agencies - see the Procurement of IT (Delegated Authority) service for more information
    - Installation: contact Building Operations - Facility Supervisor - to coordinate installation
    - Support: contact the DTMB Client Service Center (CSC) at 517-241-9700
- Some one-time purchases were made on behalf of agencies. These Smart TVs found in agency-leased conference rooms are considered agency-owned at this point.

Cybersecurity Awareness Training

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) is pleased to announce that Michigan's next-generation cyber security training program is available to all State employees. The state-wide, online security awareness training will be provided by a vendor, Security Mentor.

- It's Easy: Every other month, each employee will receive an email with a link to a new lesson. There will be a total of 18 lessons. Employees will receive emails from Security Mentor (securitymentor.com) to activate their account, take new lessons, and remind them when they are late in completing a lesson.
- There is no formal test or assessment, but employees must complete all the pages in each lesson
- Employees will have two weeks to complete a lesson before it is late. At any time, they can log into their Security Mentor account to see the status of their current or past lessons. Employees can also retake a lesson at any time.
- Lessons are web-based, so employees decide when to take them but they must complete them by the due date
- It's Fast: Each lesson only takes about 10 minutes, fitting into everyone's busy schedule
- It's Interesting and Relevant: Employees will learn about cyber security through a variety of interactions, serious games and real world events, and get tangible, specific things they can do to be cyber secure.
- Enterprise-wide relevant content – 18 Modules on such topics as Email Security, Passwords, Office Security, Social Networking, Mobile Security, etc
- Interactive, engaging and "sticky" information easily retained by customer

Customer Benefits

Cybersecurity can be daunting: email scams and phishing attacks, malicious websites, social engineering, malware, and more. Cybersecurity Awareness training provides awareness to our employees so they can assist with helping the State of Michigan protect our networks and prevent data loss.

- Reduce potential for cyber breaches
- Reduce number of audit findings issued regarding lack of cyber security awareness training
- Armed with the right knowledge and the chance to practice new skills, our employees will be our best cyber security defense

Exclusions and Notes

- This training is not designed to replace industry/government regulated training requirements for HIPAA, IRS, etc

Support Hours

- Support is available 24x7 through the Client Service Center (CSC)
- Second level support is available during normal business hours from Michigan Cyber Security Office, Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Motor Pool Vehicles

Service Description

The Department of Technology, Management and Budget (DTMB) maintains a regularly serviced fleet of nearly 300 vehicles available for short term rentals to state workers for their official State of Michigan business. This service provides a simple, self-service application allowing State of Michigan employees to reserve vehicles through an automated 24x7 system.

Customer Benefits

- Access to vehicles is 24x7
- Vehicles are available on demand so that state employees can perform their jobs in the most cost effective manner
- DTMB manages the vehicle registrations and insurances, reducing the liabilities and responsibilities of vehicle ownership for the individual State of Michigan departments
- Departments do not need to manage scheduling of vehicles, handing out and receiving keys or managing maintenance
- Cost savings are realized by paying for the use of the vehicle though hourly and daily rates
- Billing is by trip and to specific accounts determined by the departments and is seamless and well documented

Exclusions and Notes

- Driver registration is required to use the motor pool. Registration requires a valid agency account code. State employees may register using the Motor Pool Reservation System.
- Drivers request service through on-line vehicle reservations. Just prior to the reservation time, the driver arrives at the motor pool and utilizes a kiosk and key box to pick up and return the keys.
- Motor Pools are available at the following locations:
    - Lansing: Hall of Justice, 925 W. Ottawa, Lansing, MI
    - Lansing Secondary Complex: Vehicle and Travel Services (VTS) Building, 6951 Crowner Dr., Lansing, MI

Vehicle Management

Service Description

The State of Michigan has a large fleet of vehicles that provides employees with safe and reliable transportation while conducting official state business. Through this service, the Department of Technology, Management, and Budget (DTMB) manages the lifecycle of its fleet inventory by:

- Identifying vehicles to be replaced
- Consulting with fleet customers to determine the best vehicle for the job
- Ordering and purchasing of new vehicles
- Preparing new vehicles for use
- Disposing of old vehicles

Customer Benefits

- Agencies avoid a lengthy comparison and procurement process by using standard new vehicle models compared and procured by Vehicle and Travel Services (VTS)
- To assist in agency's budgeting, vehicle rates are created on a two year cycle
- Agencies receive fleet usage and expense reports from VTS for use in expenditure tracking and needs projection
- Agencies receive analyses from VTS outlining best practices of fleet management to reduce costs
- Agency transportation costs are lowered by eliminating higher cost personal mileage reimbursements
- VTS consults with departments to ensure vehicles with specialized equipment are evaluated before a decision is made to remove the vehicle from the fleet due to expensive repairs
- VTS offers truck engineering expertise for new truck specifications
- Agencies eliminate the need to manage vehicle costs; VTS manages all costs

Exclusions and Notes

- Agency-owned vehicles are not part of the VTS fleet
- Only Department Vehicle Coordinators can request a vehicle (see Documents section for list)

Support Hours

- Support is available during normal business hours, Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding State holidays

Timeframes and Expectations

Service Level Description	Target
Reporting – reports on expenditures, vehicle order status, vehicle assignments, maintenance, fuel purchases, motor pool usage, mileage, and other topics are created on a monthly basis and communicated to the Department Vehicle Coordinator.	Within 30 days of when bill closes.

MISCELLANEOUS

Shining Light: John Dingell, Carl Levin heralded as beacons of change (Detroit Free Press)
In an era when the do-nothing Congress has become a cliché, it's easy to forget just how much U.S. Rep. John Dingell and U.S. Sen. Carl Levin have done for southeastern Michigan. Any congressional scholar could rattle off the national impact the two have had — the legislative achievements, the tough votes, the oversight hearings and investigations they've run. But from the Rouge to the riverfront, Dingell and Levin also have changed the face of metro Detroit.

5 things to watch for as Congress returns to work today (Detroit Free Press)
Congress returns from its long summer break today as the U.S. faces heightened terrorist threats abroad and unresolved policy issues at home. But most lawmakers appear ready to handle only the most basic business of government before returning to the midterm election campaign trail. At the top of the agenda is a measure to fund federal agencies to avoid another government shutdown.

Money talks in the shadows: How lawmakers, lobbyists quietly bypass state's murky political spending rules (Crain's Detroit Business)
Money talks when it comes to politics. Oftentimes, quietly. And that's OK by the U.S. Supreme Court, which deems money a form of free speech. As the cacophony of election-season advertising gets into full swing in Michigan, there is plenty of free speech to go around.

OPINION/EDITORIAL

Gov. Rick Snyder is a conservative who touts his business-friendly policies in promoting economic growth. But he has a few political quirks that drive his fellow Republicans a little nuts.

Take Hartwick Pines State Park off of the auction block (LSJ)
There are some places in Michigan that should be off-limits to oil and gas companies and one of those places is Hartwick Pines State Park. The almost 10,000 acres of protected, public land is home to the oldest white pine trees in the Lower Peninsula, some more than 300 years old and standing more than 150 feet tall. Its old-growth pine forest is one of the few patches left untouched by clear-cutting during Michigan's logging boom and, to this day, towers over and humbles thousands of visitors each year. Hartwick Pines State Park is here because we purposefully preserved it in its natural state. It should stay that way.

Water Authority

Tom Walsh: Reluctant regional water warriors nudged into historic deal (Detroit Free Press)

It was a remarkable moment Tuesday, after 40 years of fierce fighting among Detroit and its suburbs over water rates and control, to see Mayor Mike Duggan, flanked by the county executives of Oakland, Macomb and Wayne, jointly announcing a deal for regional governance of the water system. But make no mistake, those guys would still be haggling if not for the hammers wielded by Detroit emergency manager Kevyn Orr, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Steven Rhodes and Gov. Rick Snyder to force a settlement.

Detroit, suburbs OK regional water deal; $50M yearly to upgrade system (Detroit Free Press)

The City of Detroit struck a tentative 40-year deal with Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties to create a regional water authority that will provide $50 million annually to finance badly needed upgrades and help low-income residents avoid water shutoffs.

Officials announce regional water authority (Dearborn Press & Guide)

With the trial for America's largest municipal bankruptcy under way upstairs, Detroit and its suburbs agreed on a deal for a regional water authority Tuesday after more than a year of negotiation that makes a $50 million lease payment to the city each year and holds annual rate increases to 4 percent. The Great Lakes Water Authority will lease regional pipes and plants from Detroit, which will retain ownership and use the funds from the lease payments to rebuild its failing infrastructure. Detroit will maintain control of 3,000 miles of local pipes.

Detroit to Transfer Water Department to Regional Authority (WSJ)

The Motor City moved one step closer to settling the details of its historic bankruptcy, sealing a deal Tuesday to put its water and sewer system that falls outside city limits under regional control. The deal calls for Detroit to maintain its own water and sewer system within the city. A new regional authority with appointees from the suburbs would lease its portion of the system from the city at a cost of $50 million a year for the next four decades. The authority also would set up a $4.5 million annual fund to aid residents who have trouble paying their water bills.

Detroit, suburbs agree to 40-year deal for regional water authority (Crain's Detroit Business)
Detroit and its suburbs agreed to create a regional water authority to serve 40 percent of Michigan residents as part of a deal that will make it easier to end the biggest municipal bankruptcy in U.S. history. Regional leaders signing off today to recommend the formation of a regional Great Lakes Water Authority said there is much to like and dislike about the deal to lease and manage suburban assets of the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department for the next four decades.

GOVERNOR'S ACTIVITIES

Water Authority

Tom Walsh: Reluctant regional water warriors nudged into historic deal (Detroit Free Press)
It was a remarkable moment Tuesday, after 40 years of fierce fighting among Detroit and its suburbs over water rates and control, to see Mayor Mike Duggan, flanked by the county executives of Oakland, Macomb and Wayne, jointly announcing a deal for regional governance of the water system. But make no mistake, those guys would still be haggling if not for the hammers wielded by Detroit emergency manager Kevyn Orr, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Steven Rhodes and Gov. Rick Snyder to force a settlement.

Detroit, suburbs OK regional water deal; $50M yearly to upgrade system (Detroit Free Press)
The City of Detroit struck a tentative 40-year deal with Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties to create a regional water authority that will provide $50 million annually to finance badly needed upgrades and help low-income residents avoid water shutoffs.

Officials announce regional water authority (Dearborn Press & Guide)
With the trial for America's largest municipal bankruptcy under way upstairs, Detroit and its suburbs agreed on a deal for a regional water authority Tuesday after more than a year of negotiation that makes a $50 million lease payment to the city each year and holds annual rate increases to 4 percent. The Great Lakes Water Authority will lease regional pipes and plants from Detroit, which will retain ownership and use the funds from the lease payments to rebuild its failing infrastructure. Detroit will maintain control of 3,000 miles of local pipes.

Detroit to Transfer Water Department to Regional Authority (WSJ)
The Motor City moved one step closer to settling the details of its historic bankruptcy, sealing a deal Tuesday to put its water and sewer system that falls outside city limits under regional control. The deal calls for Detroit to maintain its own water and sewer system within the city. A new regional authority with appointees from the suburbs would lease its portion of the system from the city at a cost of $50 million a year for the next four decades. The authority also would set up a $4.5 million annual fund to aid residents who have trouble paying their water bills.

OPINION/EDITORIAL

Yes, Michigan, who is governor does make a difference (MLive)
Michigan is known by many names – Great Lakes State, Wolverine State, the Mitten. But when it comes to economic descriptions, we can add a new moniker to our lexicon – the Comeback State. It starts with jobs.

Editorial: At last, a water deal – at last, regionalism in metro Detroit (Detroit Free Press)
Regionalism matters. And that's what commissions in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne County, as well as the Detroit City Council, need to be thinking when they vote on the creation of a regional water authority whose structure and design were announced Tuesday.

Detroit's creditors are morally bankrupt (Detroit News)
Detroit city worker retirees have given more than their fair share when it comes to making pension concessions. So have current municipal employees. Together, they helped Motor City officials earlier this year cobble together a "grand bargain" as part of the city's bankruptcy plan. But evidently, that's still not enough for some.

GOP is wrong on academia (Detroit News)
At the Michigan Republican Party's state convention last weekend, I was struck that Common Core garnered far more attention than any other social issue like abortion, gay marriage or gun rights. One candidate for regent of the University of Michigan was rewarded with rapturous applause after he slammed the initiative and branded academia an "incubator" for "the disease of liberalism."

An invitation to Terri Lynn Land (Detroit News)
Pollution from big corporate oil companies is killing me. Due to toxic emissions from the corporate polluters in my community, I suffer from skin burns, hair loss and a toxic white mass on my brain.

Tim Skubick: Retiring Jim Haveman epitomized what a public servant should be (MLive)
Jim Haveman, the state's community health director, was overweight. He knew it. His wife knew it. And the governor knew it. Mr. Haveman lost 38 pounds and then last Memorial Day, he had a stroke. Go figure. Having survived that, a short time later Mr. Haveman and his doc had a "Come to Jesus" meeting.

Phil Power: Passing of the presidential torch at U-M links hopes, fears of past and present (MLive)
I admit it. I'm a sucker for ritual. Ritual moves me. Makes the hair on my neck stand up. Brings a tear to my eye.

Susan J. Demas: Could Michigan U.S. Senate and governor races cost $100 million? (MLive)
You may as well just turn off your TV now, because you're not going to get a break from annoying political ads until Nov. 5.

Tim Skubick: Governor's race continues to seesaw between Snyder, Schauer (MLive)
There was a school of thought years ago that if voters allowed one party to run state government, nothing but bad things would happen. The corollary was, divided government works best when both parties have to share power to get stuff done.

Letters: Gov. Snyder does not deserve reelection (Mlive)
Governor Snyder has betrayed Michigan citizens and does not deserve reelection. He has hurt our children by cutting funding to our local schools to give big tax cuts to his business buddies.

Bridge Magazine: How much credit should Snyder get for Michigan ecnomy? (Freep)
As the race heats up between Republican Gov. Rick Snyder and his Democratic challenger, Mark Schauer, it's worthwhile to ask how much difference the election will make to the Michigan economy.

Detroit's M-1 Rail gets another $12.2 million from the feds (Mlive)

A veritable who's-who of city and state officials and business people seem to agree on this: The $140 million M-1 Rail project will be a boon for Detroit. Dan Gilbert, Roger Penske, Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan, Gov. Rick Snyder, Sen. Debbie Stabenow, Sen. Carl Levin and others all welcomed U.S. Department of Transportation Secretary Anthony Foxx to help make that boon a reality on Monday, as the federal government announced an additional $12.2 million in funding for the project.

Ford, DTE will contribute to M-1 project (Freep)

Ford Motor Co. and DTE Energy will announce commitments of $3 million each today toward the $140 M-1 Rail streetcar project at a ceremony today at Grand Circus Park, the Free Press has learned. The new private-sector pledges come on the heels of last week's approval of a $12.2-million federal TIGER grant for the 3.3-mile project along Woodward Avenue. U.S. Secretary of Transportation Anthony Foxx will join local officials in a ceremony at Grand Circus park today, celebrating the public-private partnership behind Detroit's M-1 Rail project.

Today was an exciting day for the city of Detroit, as M-1 rail officials celebrated a "track signing ceremony" to celebrate the historic public-private partnership behind the 3.3-mile streetcar project that broke ground this summer. This celebratory took place in the notable Grand Circus Park located in heart of downtown Michigan. Special presenters included; U.S. Transportation Secretary, Anthony Foxx; Michigan Governor, Rick Snyder; Detroit Mayor, Mike Dugan; Senator, Carl Levin; Senator, Debbie Stabenow; Congressman, John Dingell; Congressman, John Conyers; M-1 RAIL Board Chair, Roger Penske and Members of the M-1 RAIL Board of Directors.

EDITORIAL: Gov. Snyder's Road To Recovery (Ann Arbor Independent)
In the T.V. advertisement released by the Snyder campaign last week, Gov. Snyder assures voters that Michigan is on the "road to recovery." Those who have not felt the recovery will feel it soon, he says. The Annie E. Casey Foundation's annual report on child poverty in the U.S., released in July 2014, might be used to reasonably to argue that Gov. Snyder's road to recovery is pitted with giant potholes.

Buffett, Bloomberg: What country is learning from Detroit (Freep)
Detroit has shifted from being the prime example of a dying city into a test case for how to revitalize an American city in the 21st century. We know it can be done. The New York City of the 1970s – hollowed out from crime and population loss – is a dim memory.

Editorial: Teacher pensions still need reforming (Detroit News)

Two years ago, the Michigan Legislature had the opportunity to turn around the state's fragile retirement system for public school employees. But lawmakers stopped short of making meaningful reform that would fix the system for good. A new push to revisit teacher pensions deserves attention.

Hey, Gov. Snyder: Prison food contract is rotten (Detroit Free Press)
Disgusting. That's the only word to describe the way Michigan has handled privatization of its prison food service. A $145-million, three-year contract awarded to Aramark Correctional Services is saving the State of Michigan about $12 million a year (at the cost of 370 state jobs).

Let's slim down, Michigan (Detroit News)
Michigan is fighting the battle of the bulge, and victory prospects aren't looking good. A third of Michiganians are obese. That's leading to all kinds of costs — and not only in terms of personal health. Obesity's tab is also paid by employers and taxpayers.

Susan J. Demas: Why is Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder campaigning like Mike Dukakis? (Mlive)
In 2010, Rick Snyder made a national splash with his "One Tough Nerd" campaign slogan. It was different. It was catchy. It humanized the multimillionaire former computer executive who nobody had heard of. It's one reason why Snyder was elected Michigan governor in a landslide.

Michigan is not a dumping ground for waste (Detroit News)
Recent news reports revealed that Michigan was planning to accept nearly 36 tons of radioactive waste other states rejected. Even worse, it was headed for a landfill right in our backyards in Wayne County. Like many of you, we were deeply disturbed by this news. With our state being surrounded by 20 percent of the world's fresh water, welcoming this type of toxic waste is far from acting as the good stewards of the environment we should be; it's reckless behavior that defies logic and endangers us all.

West Michigan Policy Forum

Officials ask: can Michigan make tough decisions on economy? (Detroit Free Press)
Michigan is at another economic inflection point, Doug Rothwell says, just five years after hitting bottom at the depth of the Great Recession. But today, absent the desperation of a full-blown crisis, will the state's leaders make the difficult decisions needed to lift Michigan beyond mediocrity?

Right-to-work is good for Michigan's economy, while term limits are bad, forum speakers say (Crain's Detroit Business)
Term limits are bad, the state's economy is good — and right-to-work legislation is helping. Those were a few of the points of view the roughly 600 business leaders in attendance at today's West Michigan Policy Forum have heard from speakers on the stage so far.

Policy Forum: Debate on term limits that wasn't (Mlive)
Pitting former Lt. Gov. Dick Posthumus, a Republican, and former Gov. James Blanchard, Democratic, on stage to discuss term limits during the West Michigan Policy Forum on Monday, Sept. 29, didn't result in much of a debate.

Snyder: With 16 session days left, let's fix crumbling state roads (Crain's Detroit Business)
Gov. Rick Snyder has spent the better part of three years trying to convince the Legislature to vote for a massive increase in funding to fix the state's crumbling roads and bridges, to no avail. At the West Michigan Policy Forum on Monday, Snyder said the time is now and wants lawmakers to finalize a plan during the lame duck session that he can sign.

Snyder: Road funding top priority for lawmakers (Detroit News)
Gov. Rick Snyder said Monday he wants legislation boosting road funding to be the Legislature's top priority during its lame duck session after the Nov. 4 election. The Republican governor, who faces a tough re-election against Democrat Mark Schauer, has struggled to get the GOP-controlled Legislature to adopt a plan to raise at least $1.2 billion in additional annual revenue for road funding through increases in the fuel tax and vehicle registration fees.

Get rid of income tax? Gov. Snyder explains why policy forum economist's idea isn't good now (Mlive)
If Michigan wants to regain its spot as one of the top 10 states in the country, then the state needs to eliminate income tax, minimum wage and corporate tax, says economist Robert Genetski. Genetski is the resident economist for the West Michigan Policy Forum. His presentation to the pro-business group offered up recommendations supported by economic data. Gov. Rick Snyder, who spoke at the conference but missed Genteski's presentation, found some flaws with his suggestions.

Roads top priority to come out of 2014 West Michigan Policy Forum (Mlive)
The mandate out of the 2014 West Michigan Policy Forum was clear: Fix the state's pot-holed roads, and make other needed investment in the state's infrastructure. Not only was it the top priority with 37 percent of the votes, but nearly all the attendees - 97 percent of those who voted - agreed Michigan business leaders should begin to hold state legislators accountable for their lack of investment in the state's infrastructure and transportation.

West Michigan Policy Forum

Officials ask: can Michigan make tough decisions on economy? (Detroit Free Press)
Michigan is at another economic inflection point, Doug Rothwell says, just five years after hitting bottom at the depth of the Great Recession. But today, absent the desperation of a full-blown crisis, will the state's leaders make the difficult decisions needed to lift Michigan beyond mediocrity?

Right-to-work is good for Michigan's economy, while term limits are bad, forum speakers say (Crain's Detroit Business)
Term limits are bad, the state's economy is good — and right-to-work legislation is helping. Those were a few of the points of view the roughly 600 business leaders in attendance at today's West Michigan Policy Forum have heard from speakers on the stage so far.

Snyder: Road funding top priority for lawmakers (Detroit News)
Gov. Rick Snyder said Monday he wants legislation boosting road funding to be the Legislature's top priority during its lame duck session after the Nov. 4 election. The Republican governor, who faces a tough re-election against Democrat Mark Schauer, has struggled to get the GOP-controlled Legislature to adopt a plan to raise at least $1.2 billion in additional annual revenue for road funding through increases in the fuel tax and vehicle registration fees.

Get rid of income tax? Gov. Snyder explains why policy forum economist's idea isn't good now (Mlive)
If Michigan wants to regain its spot as one of the top 10 states in the country, then the state needs to eliminate income tax, minimum wage and corporate tax, says economist Robert Genetski. Genetski is the resident economist for the West Michigan Policy Forum. His presentation to the pro-business group offered up recommendations supported by economic data. Gov. Rick Snyder, who spoke at the conference but missed Genteski's presentation, found some flaws with his suggestions.

Roads top priority to come out of 2014 West Michigan Policy Forum (Mlive)
The mandate out of the 2014 West Michigan Policy Forum was clear: Fix the state's pot-holed roads, and make other needed investment in the state's infrastructure. Not only was it the top priority with 37 percent of the votes, but nearly all the attendees - 97 percent of those who voted - agreed Michigan business leaders should begin to hold state legislators accountable for their lack of investment in the state's infrastructure and transportation.

OPINION/EDITORIAL

Dark Money a part of Rick Snyder's legacy as governor (Detroit Free Press)
It was a refreshing moment of candor when Gov. Rick Snyder recently told a Grand Rapids audience that his NERD Fund (New Energy to Reinvent and Diversify) was "a mistake we made early on." The governor said that he had learned something from the experience and he is proud of his administration's record when it comes to transparency.

State takes measured step to help farmers fight deer (Traverse City Record Eagle)
Deer don't know the rules, but they sure know how to get around them. So it makes sense that the state should allow farmers some latitude in protecting their farms and orchards from foraging deer with rules that will test new solutions and allow them to be tweaked before being etched in stone.

School spending is up, and on right priorities (Detroit News)
Of all the criticisms that gubernatorial candidate Mark Schauer slung against Gov. Rick Snyder at Sunday night's town hall, the claim Snyder slashed education funding irked the governor the most. That's probably because it's not true. Overall K-12 funding has increased each year during Snyder's first term.

Gov. Rick Snyder on jobs: $50 million for community colleges could shrink talent gap for workers (Mlive)
Gov. Rick Snyder hopes the $50 million funding approved Tuesday for community colleges to upgrade equipment for skilled trades education will help fill tens of thousands of jobs in Michigan. The Michigan Strategic Fund Tuesday approved $50 million in funding for the Community College Skilled Trades Equipment Program. The program will award the funds to community colleges on a competitive basis and the colleges will be required to match 25 percent of the award. The maximum individual amount that can be awarded is $4.8 million.

Michigan OKs $50M for community college equipment (AP)
A state board set aside $50 million on Tuesday to help community colleges buy equipment to train future welders, technicians and others, a move aimed at closing what Gov. Rick Snyder called a widening problem: companies with jobs but not enough qualified applicants. The Michigan Strategic Fund Board will send the money — to be financed with bonds — to some of the state's 28 community colleges. To receive up to $4.8 million, a college must commit to spending 25 percent toward the cost of new equipment, which can include installation and instructor training.

Gov. Rick Snyder on jobs: $50 million for community colleges could shrink talent gap for workers (Mlive)

Gov. Rick Snyder hopes the $50 million funding approved Tuesday for community colleges to upgrade equipment for skilled trades education will help fill tens of thousands of jobs in Michigan. The Michigan Strategic Fund Tuesday approved $50 million in funding for the Community College Skilled Trades Equipment Program. The program will award the funds to community colleges on a competitive basis and the colleges will be required to match 25 percent of the award. The maximum individual amount that can be awarded is $4.8 million.

Michigan OKs $50M for community college equipment (AP)

A state board set aside $50 million on Tuesday to help community colleges buy equipment to train future welders, technicians and others, a move aimed at closing what Gov. Rick Snyder called a widening problem: companies with jobs but not enough qualified applicants. The Michigan Strategic Fund Board will send the money — to be financed with bonds — to some of the state's 28 community colleges. To receive up to $4.8 million, a college must commit to spending 25 percent toward the cost of new equipment, which can include installation and instructor training.

Snyder touts $50M fund to boost skilled trades training (Detroit News)

A state fund set up to promote economic development and job creation has approved $50 million to bolster skilled trades training at Michigan community colleges, the largest state investment ever. This new program, funded by the Michigan Strategic Fund, aims to narrow the talent gap and produce qualified candidates for in-demand and hard-to-fill middle class jobs in fields such as health care, maintenance and repair, public safety and manufacturing.

OPINION/EDITORIAL

Is Michigan now officially a red state (Bridge Magazine)
In the end, the horse race was not a photo finish, but more like Gov. Rick Snyder (and his fellow Republicans) by three lengths. The collapse of Mark Schauer's campaign, said to be in a virtual dead heat with the incumbent in its final days, left not only a chastened Democratic Party, but continued the drift rightward for Michigan that might not have been imaginable a generation ago.

Is Michigan now officially a red state (Bridge Magazine)
In the end, the horse race was not a photo finish, but more like Gov. Rick Snyder (and his fellow Republicans) by three lengths. The collapse of Mark Schauer's campaign, said to be in a virtual dead heat with the incumbent in its final days, left not only a chastened Democratic Party, but continued the drift rightward for Michigan that might not have been imaginable a generation ago.

Finley: For Dems, turnout hype ended in embarrassment (Detroit News)
One of the more intriguing story lines of Tuesday's election was the failure to materialize by the Democratic Party's much-hyped voter turnout drive.

Short term agenda focused on right priorities (Detroit News)
With the election behind him, Gov. Rick Snyder can now concentrate on his second-term agenda. Most of his priorities carry over from his first four years, and it's a list worth pursuing.

Susan J. Demas: While democrats despair over election 2014, Obama is ready to fight (MLive)
The 2014 election has put the Democrats back on suicide watch, which is actually a pretty comfortable place for many of them to be.

Grand Rapids cannot afford to let term limits derail progress (MLive)

9 ways Detroit is changing after bankruptcy (Freep)
When Detroit filed for bankruptcy last July, observers around the world were shocked by how far some city services had deteriorated -- though it was no secret to residents. Average police response times clocked in at almost an hour. Tens of thousands of broken streetlights meant entire streets go dark at nightfall. And though Detroit has more than 200 municipal parks, the city could only afford to keep about a quarter of them open.

HOW DETROIT WAS REBORN (Freep)
U.S. District Chief Judge Gerald Rosen wondered what the hell he'd gotten himself into. Rosen was in Florida in August 2013 for a quick golf vacation but was rising before dawn each day to read Detroit's massive plan to restructure its debt. The numbers were horrific: $18 billion in liabilities, 78,000 blighted buildings, four of every 10 dollars already devoted to debt, pensions and retiree health care.

Governing Magazine Public Officials of the Year

2014 Honoree: Rick Snyder- Governor of Michigan (Governing Magazine)

When Rick Snyder came to the Michigan governor's office from the private sector in 2011, he brought with him an entrepreneur's tolerance for risk. "Most elected officials abhor risk. They run from it," Snyder says. "But if everything we did worked, that means we're not taking risks." Good leaders, he says, must assume some risk and accept that not everything they try will be successful.

GOVERNOR'S ACTIVITIES

Governing Magazine Public Officials of the Year

2014 Honoree: Rick Snyder- Governor of Michigan (Governing Magazine)

When Rick Snyder came to the Michigan governor's office from the private sector in 2011, he brought with him an entrepreneur's tolerance for risk. "Most elected officials abhor risk. They run from it," Snyder says. "But if everything we did worked, that means we're not taking risks." Good leaders, he says, must assume some risk and accept that not everything they try will be successful.

Cyber summit

Michigan hosting 3rd cybersecurity summit (AP)

The Detroit Free Press reports Gov. Rick Snyder says the state would deploy groups of volunteer information technology experts to fight attacks as part of the Cyber Civilian Corps. According to the state, the Michigan government suffers more than 500,000 computer attacks each day.

Michigan Governor Rick Snyder is hosting Michigan's third summit to address cyber security issues in government, business and other sectors. The North American International Cyber Summit will be at the Cobo Center in Detroit on Monday. Experts from across the country will discuss trends and safe practices in cyber security.

Volunteer groups to fight Michigan cyber attacks (Freep)

Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder said the state would deploy groups of volunteer information technology experts to fight future cyber attacks, following the centuries-old model of leaning on volunteers to fight fires in communities. Snyder told a crowd at the 2014 North American International Cyber Summit in Detroit that the Michigan Cyber Civilian Corps would help the state respond rapidly to a massive cybersecurity attack, calling it "the citizen cyber soldier concept."

CYBERSUMMIT DRAWS A CROWD FOR IT SECURITY (Technology Century Magazine)

Gov. Rick Snyder says the state of Michigan gets attacked by hackers half a million times a day, so he's got a reason to be worried about cybersecurity. Monday, more than 500 people shared those concerns — and best practices in keeping data safe — at the North American International Cybersummit at Cobo Center.

Winter Preparedness
Gov. Snyder Encourages Residents to Make Winter Emergency Preparedness a Priority (Michigan Chronicle)
With the arrival of winter weather, Gov. Rick Snyder today encouraged Michigan residents to make emergency preparedness a priority. "Last winter, Michiganders endured hardships due to frigid temperatures, heavy amounts of snow and a statewide propane shortage," Snyder said. "Now is the time for families to take a few extra steps to ensure they are prepared in the event of another severe winter season."

Snyder calls on Michigan residents for winter emergency preparedness (WKZO)
As winter weather has arrived earlier than normal in the past week, Governor Snyder is urging Michiganders to be prepared for a weather emergency. His office is calling on families to weatherproof homes with weather stripping, caulking and proper insulation around doors, windows and in walls; insulate water lines on exterior walls to prevent freezing; lock in propane rates now for anyone who uses fuel to heat their home, and clear storm drains and gutters.

Howes: Mich. change charts new future, not old comeback (Detroit News)
Whatever the dubious marine metaphor in his "river of opportunity" riff, Gov. Rick Snyder is right to use Tuesday's State of the State to say Michigan still has a long way to go. Because it does, proof of just how far the state slid in its "lost decade." The easy stuff now is done: Budgets are balanced because they must be, and business taxes are reformed because state policy otherwise was dreadful. Harder is getting Detroit out of bankruptcy, far sooner than the experts predicted.

Civil Rights Commission meeting

Snyder makes rare visit to civil rights panel (Detroit News)
Gov. Rick Snyder made a rare appearance Monday before the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, but said little about the unsettled debate over banning discrimination against gays and lesbians.

Snyder lays out civil rights plans at commission meeting (Michigan Radio)
Governor Rick Snyder says improving services for the mentally ill is a major civil rights issue. And he says it's a high priority in his second term. "Mental health is its own issue in its own right, a major issue. We've seen some huge progress because of Healthy Michigan. But I think we still have a lot of work to be done in general mental health and where it intersects with criminal justice," he told the Michigan Civil Rights Commission.

Takeaways from election: A very good night for the GOP (Freep)
The 2014 election season has come to a close with some surprises, razor-thin margins in races across the state and a political landscape that has developed a decidedly red tint. "In the context of this election, Republicans did a better job of getting their voters out," said Tom Shields, a political consultant with the Lansing-based Marketing Resource Group. "Democrats didn't complete the job. They got a lot of absentee ballots out there, but they had some real trouble getting people to turn them back in."

Snyder in 2016? GOP's election wins fuel speculation (AP)
And so it begins. Even before the polls closed on Election Day, Republicans shifted their focus to 2016 and the party's top target: Hillary Rodham Clinton. And by the end of the night, the GOP had claimed victories in Senate contests and governor races that will serve as a White House launch pad for the party's most ambitious.

Takeaways from election: A very good night for the GOP (Freep)
The 2014 election season has come to a close with some surprises, razor-thin margins in races across the state and a political landscape that has developed a decidedly red tint. "In the context of this election, Republicans did a better job of getting their voters out," said Tom Shields, a political consultant with the Lansing-based Marketing Resource Group. "Democrats didn't complete the job. They got a lot of absentee ballots out there, but they had some real trouble getting people to turn them back in."

This is my first try at how it would look. Anna asked for it to be on all agency sites and other major sites. So, these are two examples of how it would look depending if the agency has left navigation (eMichigan) or top navigation (Treasury)

It is big. Is that what you want? Or are you all thinking of something smaller off to the side or on the bottom of a page? Try to think of how a smaller icon would incorporate into the Treasury production site.

John,
As we discussed on the phone, the Joint Information Center has been activated by the Governor to handle manage communications involving the Flint Water Emergency. They have asked for a dedicated resource from eMichigan to physically sit in the room today to help with web changes. Please let me know the team member that will you have identified for this role.

They will need to go to 4000 Collins Rd, Lansing, MI. It is a State Police building and has gate access to enter the parking lot. Let the guard know that you are there for the Joint Information Center, if prompted. Enter the building and, once again, let the guard know what you are there for and they will sign you in and direct you to the right location.

When you get close to the building have them call Jen Holton at 517-242-2575. She is expecting the call and will be able to help you get set up. I would recommend having the individual bring their own laptop, I'm not sure what the computer situation is like.

Feel free to call me on my cell, 517-303-4038, if anyone has questions or trouble getting in.

Caleb,

I just wanted to give you an update on the donation of bottled water to the City of Flint. I am currently working on setting up shipping for the 93 pallets of water from South Carolina to Flint. I am hoping that the pallets can start being delivery early next week. Please let me know if you have any questions. I have also been running everything through DHHS (Sheryl Thompson).

Sheryl,

I have received quotes from Ryder Logistics ($1600 per truck load) and FedEx Freight ($1674 per truck load), but am still waiting for a quote from UPS. We have a state wide contract with UPS for freight and we should receive a 82% discount on shipping. We will need to ship the water in five truck loads. I will let you know what their quote looks like when I receive it. I have already spoken to the food bank to set up delivery dates. Would you like the shipping invoice to be sent to your attention?

Caleb,

Do you need an updated mockup or just go ahead with the redesign?

I can do this tonight, but would prefer to start it at home. Sound good? I will not launch it until you (or whoever) approves the desktop version, and I may need to continue tweaking the mobile version tomorrow if display issues arise.

I just received word on their changes.

1) Take the word "Resources" out of "Filter Resource Sites" so that it is not confusing with graphic above it. The new graphic will read "Filter Sites."
2) On the 211 section add some language so it reads "Call 2-1-1 if you have questions, need transportation assistance, to submit donations, or to volunteer your services.
3) Remove the bottom band of photos for now until the group comes to a final determination on how to populate that section.

After making these, we are ready to implement them on the production site.

Can you give me an estimate of when this can be done? Today, tomorrow, etc…

Thanks for all your help, you have been fantastic.

Caleb,

I updated the below PDFs on the site, however I haven't moved them yet. I had to edit the PDFs again as the redaction didn't take. You could still select and copy the numbers even though they weren't visible. This has been corrected.

I'll create a new section under Social and News for the 5 docs you need moved.

Caleb, I have moved the docs below the 'News', and added the branding image to push them over as well as draw attention to them.

If you have Adobe Acrobat Pro, you would find 'redaction' under 'Protection' in the Tools, and then highlight the text to be redacted with 'Mark for Redaction'. When all text/numbers are marked, then you 'Apply Redactions', then save the file.

I noticed the first time I did this, it didn't work due to the boxes that were already over the text. I had to go back and remove the boxes you had added, then apply the redaction again.

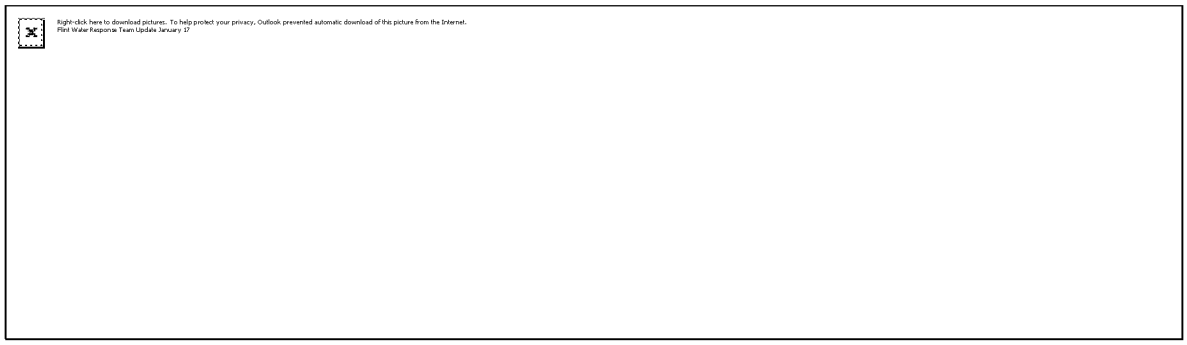
Subject: Sunday Jan. 17 update from the Flint Water Response Team



This daily update is being issued in order to provide the latest information regarding actions and available resources.

WATER RESOURCES DISTRIBUTION
To date, more than 11,300 homes have been visited by the water response teams, comprised of local and state personnel, the American Red Cross and volunteers. Over the course of the holiday weekend, Flint residents and approximately 300 state employees and their family members are volunteering to help increase door to door efforts.

The following resources were distributed from Jan. 9 - Jan. 16 through door to door efforts and at water resource centers:

- 20,876 Cases of bottled water
- 47,935 Water filters
- 167,401 Water filter replacement cartridges
- 3,322 Water testing kits

To help enhance the water testing process, Flint residents can drop-off water samples to the five water resource sites. Samples will only be accepted by using the official water testing kits provided at the water resource sites and by the water response teams.

REMINDERS

- For Flint water assistance, donation, or volunteer information: Dial 211 or visit www.mi.gov/FlintWater
- Residents should install filters to their taps to ensure they have immediate and ongoing access to safe water. Only run cold water through the water filter and use filtered water for drinking and cooking.

WATER RESOURCE LOCATIONS
These sites are open seven days a week from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. with the following resources:

- Bottled water
- Water filters
- Replacement cartridges for water filters
- Water testing kits pick-up
- Drop-off location for water testing kits

Hi Caleb, are you aware of this request and do you know who is going to be facilitating the changes?

It is going to make it difficult for us to track what changes are being made if there is multiple admins making changes but we are willing to take a step back if that is what is being requested. Just let me know so the eMichigan team knows what there responsibilities are going to be.

Can I request CMA permissions as site admins for the site. We wouldn't post anything to the live site, I would just want to have those credentials so that they are in place for anything we might do going forward.

Scott,

If you'd rather do it during the weekend (obviously with your supervisor's permission), we'll be working out of the Lansing state emergency operations center Saturday and Sunday.

If tomorrow in Flint works better, we're located at 125 E. Union in Flint – GPS works well (take 69, go past Hammerberg exit and the next exit is Saginaw Street to downtown Flint. Stay left on the service road and turn left on Saginaw Street. Turn right on Third Street. Turn left on Harrison. The State of Michigan building is on the corner of Harrison and Union. Free parking structure across the street.)

Show the guard your state ID, go to the fifth floor and your state ID should get you through the door right next to the elevators. If not, knock.

Thanks Scott!

our office to help with. As I mentioned before I would propose an interactive local map that has location markers for the sections, Get Clean Drinking Water (currently Water Resource Sites) and Get a Water Filter (currently Filter Sites) I would focus on making the site more smart phone friendly with plain language as that is most likely the target device platform.

Our time resources are tight here but we would like to lend a hand - I would like to suggest optimizing the site structure on the fly, however. Is that something that you would be open to? If I need to come out I'm willing to do so to some extent, but I'm wondering if we can assist from Lansing as well. We have two in our office who could help with the site.

We could build a Google interactive local map based on the text based address info we have posted now. That enables smartphone users to quickly click on the Fire Station of their choice to find exact directions to that site. Just one thought.

Caleb,

After a team discussion, we have decided the best course of action is to make available the on-call phone number as the primary contact number 24 hours per day instead of after-hours, along with the emichigan@michigan.gov mailbox.

After the high level of publicity for Flint Water has decreased (as determined by you and/or the JIC), we will resume the standard procedure for monitoring the on-call phone number during after-hours only.

Please provide a primary contact person or persons, including email addresses, from whom we are to receive direction. If anyone other than you will be included, we will 'CC' you on any reply we send regarding Flint Water website requests.

Thoughts?

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
OFFICE OF ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE ASSURANCE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

IN THE MATTER OF:	:	Proceedings Pursuant To
	:	Section 1431 of the Safe Drinking
City of Flint, Michigan; Michigan	:	Water Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300i
Department of Environmental	:
Quality; and the State of Michigan,	:	EMERGENCY
	:	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
Respondents.	:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Safe Drinking Water Act ("SDWA" or "Act") provides the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA" or "Agency") with the authority to order actions when an imminent and substantial endangerment exists and the actions taken by the state and/or local authorities are inadequate to protect public health. EPA has determined that the City of Flint's and the State of Michigan's responses to the drinking water crisis in Flint have been inadequate to protect public health and that these failures continue. As a result, EPA is issuing this SDWA Emergency Order ("Order") to make sure that the necessary actions to protect public health happen immediately. The Order requires that necessary information be provided promptly to the public in a clear and transparent way to assure that accurate, reliable, and trustworthy information is available to inform the public and decisions about next steps. In addition to the issuance of this Order, EPA will promptly begin sampling and analysis of lead levels in tap water in the City of Flint's public water system ("PWS"). EPA will publish these sampling results on its website to provide the public with transparency into the process to abate the public health emergency in the City of Flint. In the coming weeks, EPA may take additional actions under the SDWA to address the situation in the City of Flint.

II. STATUTORY AUTHORITY

2. This Order is issued under the authority vested in the Administrator of the EPA by Section 1431 of the SDWA, 42. U.S.C. § 300i. This Order is issued for the purpose of protecting the health of persons who are supplied drinking water by a PWS with conditions that may present an imminent and substantial endangerment to human health.

III. FINDINGS OF FACT

3. The City of Flint, Michigan ("City") owns and operates a PWS that provides piped drinking water for human consumption to its nearly 100,000 citizens.
4. From December 2011 through April 2015, an emergency manager was appointed by the State of Michigan ("State") under Public Act 436 to oversee the management of the City during its financial crisis. During that time, the City became a partner with the Karegnondi Water Authority ("KWA") and decided to no longer purchase treated drinking water from the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department ("Detroit").
5. The Michigan Department of Environmental Quality ("MDEQ") has primary responsibility for the implementation and enforcement of the public water system program in Michigan.
6. Before April 2014, the City purchased finished drinking water from Detroit.
7. On or around April 25, 2014, the City ceased purchasing treated drinking water from Detroit and began drawing water from the Flint River as its source water.

8. Between July and December 2014, the City conducted the first of two rounds of six month lead sampling under the Lead and Copper Rule ("LCR"), 40 C.F.R. § 141.80 et seq.

9. The City conducted the second of two rounds of six month lead sampling under the LCR between January and June 2015. These rounds of sampling showed that the levels of lead in the City water supply were rapidly rising.

10. On or about April 24, 2015, MDEQ notified EPA that the City did not have corrosion control treatment in place at the Flint Water Treatment Plant.

11. During May and June, 2015, EPA Region 5 staff at all levels expressed concern to MDEQ and the City about increasing concentrations of lead in Flint drinking water and conveyed its concern about lack of corrosion control and recommended that the expertise of EPA's Office of Research and Development should be used to avoid further water quality problems moving forward.

12. On July 21, 2015, EPA Region 5 discussed with MDEQ the City's lead in drinking water issues and implementation of the LCR and MDEQ agreed to require corrosion control as soon as possible.

13. On August 17, 2015, MDEQ sent a letter to the City recommending the City implement corrosion control treatment as soon as possible, but no later than January 1, 2016, and to fully optimize its treatment within six months.

14. On August 31, 2015, EPA Region 5 had a call with MDEQ to discuss outreach to citizens to reduce exposures to high lead levels in Flint drinking water and reiterate EPA's offer of technical assistance in implementing corrosion control treatment.

15. On September 3, 2015, Flint Mayor Dayne Walling announced that the City will implement corrosion control treatment and invited EPA corrosion control experts to join the Flint Technical Advisory Committee ("Flint TAC").

16. On September 27, 2015, EPA Region 5 Administrator Susan Hedman called MDEQ Director Dan Wyant to discuss the need for expedited implementation of corrosion control treatment, the importance of following appropriate testing protocols, urged MDEQ to enlist Michigan Department of Health and Human Services' involvement and discussed options to provide bottled water/premixed formula/filters until corrosion control is optimized.

17. On October 7, 2015, the Flint TAC met about the City's corrosion control and treatment. The Flint TAC recommended returning to Detroit water as the best course of action for the City.

18. On October 16, 2015, EPA established the Flint Safe Drinking Water Task Force ("EPA Flint Task Force") to provide the Agency's technical expertise through regular dialogue with designated officials from MDEQ and the City.

19. On or around October 16, 2015, the City switched back to purchasing finished water from Detroit, now called the Great Lakes Water Authority.

20. On November 25, 2015, the EPA Flint Task Force requested information that would allow EPA to determine the progress being made on corrosion control in the City; this information has not been received by EPA. This information includes water quality parameter measurements (pH, total alkalinity, orthophosphate, chloride, turbidity, iron, calcium, temperature, conductivity) in the distribution system. The EPA Flint Task Force has also made subsequent requests and recommendations.

http://www.epa.gov/mi/flint-drinking-water-documents The City is required by its MDEQ permit to monitor for these parameters at 25 sites quarterly and at 10 of these sites weekly. Because the City has not provided the information requested by the EPA Flint Task Force EPA does not have the information that would provide any assurance that contamination in the City's water system has been controlled.

21. On or around December 9, 2015, the City began feeding additional orthophosphate at the Flint Water Treatment Plant to begin optimizing corrosion control treatment. Notwithstanding the orthophosphate addition, high levels of lead and other contaminants are presumed to persist in the City's water system until LCR optimization process, utilizing sampling and monitoring requirements, have confirmed lead levels have been reduced.

22. On December 14, 2015 the City declared an emergency.

23. On January 14, 2016, the Governor of the State requested a declaration of major disaster and emergency and requested federal aid.

24. On January 16, 2016, the President of the United States declared a federal emergency in the City.

25. The presence of lead in the City water supply is principally due to the lack of corrosion control treatment after the City's switch to the Flint River as a source in April 2014. The river's water was corrosive and removed protective coatings in the system. This allowed lead to leach into the drinking water, which can continue until the system's treatment is optimized.

26. Lead occurs in drinking water from two sources: lead in raw water supplies and corrosion of plumbing materials in the water distribution system (i.e., corrosion byproducts). Most lead contamination is from corrosion byproducts. The amount of lead in drinking water attributable to corrosion byproducts depends on a number of factors, including the amount and age of lead bearing materials susceptible to corrosion, how long the water is in contact with the lead containing surfaces, and how corrosive the water in the system is toward these materials. Final Rule: Maximum Contaminant Level Goals and National Primary Drinking Water Regulations for Lead and Copper, 56 Fed. Reg. 26460, 26463 (June 7, 1991).

27. EPA has set the Maximum Contaminant Level Goal ("MCLG") at zero for lead because (1) there is no clear threshold for some non-carcinogenic lead health effects, (2) a substantial portion of the sensitive population already exceeds acceptable blood lead levels, and (3) lead is a probable carcinogen. 56 Fed. Reg. at 26467. Pregnant women, unborn children, and children under the age of six are particularly sensitive to lead exposure.

28. The concentration of lead in whole blood has been the most widely used index of total lead exposure. Lead exposure across a broad range of blood lead levels has been associated with a spectrum of patho-physiological effects, including interference with heme synthesis necessary in the formation of red blood cells, anemia, kidney damage, impaired reproductive function, interference with vitamin D metabolism, impaired cognitive performance (as measured by IQ tests, performance in school, and other means), delayed neurological physical development, and elevation in blood pressure. 56 Fed. Reg. 26467-68.

29. EPA finds that consumption of lead in water contributes to increase in blood lead levels. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention uses a reference level of 5 micrograms per deciliter to identify children with elevated blood lead levels. This new level is based on the U.S. population of children ages 1 – 5 years who are in the highest 2.5% of children when tested for lead in their blood. http://www.cdc.gov/nceh/lead/acclpp/blood_lead_levels.htm

30. Under the LCR, the "action level" for lead is the concentration of lead at which corrective action is required. 40 C.F.R. § 141.2.

31. EPA's LCR includes requirements for corrosion control treatment, source water treatment, lead service line replacement, and public education. These requirements are triggered, in some cases, by lead and copper action levels measured in samples collected at consumers' taps. The action level for lead is exceeded if the concentration of lead in more than 10 percent of tap water samples collected during the monitoring period conducted in accordance with 40 C.F.R. § 141.86 is greater than 0.015mg/L (i.e., if the "90th percentile" is greater than 0.015mg/L). 40 C.F.R. § 141.80(c). When a large system exceeds this action level, the LCR requires the system to: 1) implement public education requirements; 2) implement all applicable source water treatment requirements specified by the primacy agency under 40 C.F.R. § 141.83; and (3) if the system is exceeding the action level after implementation of all applicable corrosion control and source water treatment requirements, then the system must replace lead service lines in accordance with 40 C.F.R. § 141.84.

32. All large systems (over 50,000 persons) are required to either complete corrosion control treatment steps in 40 C.F.R. § 141.91(d) or be deemed to have optimized corrosion control treatment under 40 C.F.R. § 141.81(b)(2) or (b)(3).

33. Based on the foregoing, EPA finds that water provided by the City to residents poses an imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of those persons. Those persons' health is substantially endangered by their ingestion of lead in waters that persons legitimately assume are safe for human consumption. This imminent and substantial endangerment will continue unless preventive actions are taken.

34. The City, MDEQ and the State have failed to take adequate measures to protect public health. Although some progress has been made in addressing the drinking water crisis in the City, there continue to be delays in responding to critical EPA recommendations and in implementing the actions necessary to reduce and minimize the presence of lead and other contaminants in the water supply both now and in the near future. The Respondents have failed and continue to fail to provide the information necessary for EPA, the EPA Flint Task Force and the City's PWS customers to fully understand and respond promptly and adequately to the current deficiencies. EPA remains concerned that the City lacks the professional expertise and resources needed to carry out the recommended actions and to safely manage the City's PWS.

35. In accordance with SDWA Section 1431(a), 42 U.S.C. § 300i(a), to the extent practicable EPA has consulted with state and local authorities regarding the information on which this EPA action is based.

36. This Order and the requirements set forth herein are necessary to ensure adequate protection of public health in the City.

37. As a result of the emergency, EPA will promptly begin sampling and analysis of lead levels and other contaminants in the City to assure that all regulatory authorities and the public have accurate and reliable information.

38. EPA will make its LCR sampling results available to the public on the Agency's website.

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

39. Section 1431 (a), 42 U.S.C. § 300i(a), specifies that the EPA Administrator, upon receipt of information that a contaminant which is present in or likely to enter a public water system that may present an imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of persons, and that State and local authorities have not acted to protect the health of such persons, may take such actions as she may deem necessary in order to protect the health of such persons.

40. The City owns and operates a "public water system" within the meaning of SDWA Section 1401.

41. MDEQ is an instrumentality of the State.

42. The City, State and MDEQ are "persons" as defined in SDWA Section 1401(e)(12).

43. Respondents' cessation of purchased water from Detroit and switch to the Flint River as its source water triggered a cascade of events that directly resulted in the contribution of lead and other "contaminants" that are within the meaning of SDWA Sections 1401(e)(6) and 1431 of the Act.

44. The contaminants introduced by Respondents are present in or likely to enter a PWS.

45. Based upon the information and evidence, EPA determines that Respondents' actions that resulted in the introduction of contaminants, which entered a public water system and have been consumed and may continue to be consumed by those served by the public water system, present an imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of persons.

46. The lead and other contaminants will remain present in the PWS and will continue to present an imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of persons until the underlying problems with the corrosion control treatment and fundamental deficiencies in the operation of the PWS are corrected and sampling results confirm the lead and other contaminants are adequately treated.

47. Respondents have failed to take adequate measures to protect public health.

48. The EPA has consulted with the State and local authorities, to the extent practicable, to confirm the correctness of the information upon which this ORDER is based and to ascertain the actions which such authorities are or will be taking. All requisite conditions have been satisfied for the EPA action under SDWA Section 1431(a)(1), 42 U.S.C. § 300i(a)(1).

49. The EPA finds that there is an imminent and substantial endangerment to the people drinking water from the public water system of the City of Flint and that the actions taken by the State and/or the City are inadequate to protect public health. The actions required by this ORDER are necessary to protect the health of persons who are currently consuming or who may consume or use water from the City's PWS.

V. ORDER

Based on the foregoing Findings and Conclusions, and pursuant to Section 1431 of the Act, 42 U.S.C. 300i,

IT IS ORDERED:

Intent to Comply

50. Within one day of the effective date of this Order, Respondents shall notify EPA in writing of their intention to comply with the terms of this Order. For the purposes of this Order, "day" shall mean calendar day.

Reporting Requirements

51. Within five days of the effective date of this Order, the State shall create, and thereafter maintain, a publicly available website. Respondents must post on this website all reports, sampling results, plans, weekly status reports on the progress of all requirements and all other documentation required under this Order. The Respondents shall not publish to this website any personally identifiable information.

Response to EPA Flint Task Force Recommendations, Requests for Information and Sampling Activities

52. The Respondents shall within 10 days of the effective date of this Order respond in writing, in accordance with Paragraph 51, to all of the EPA Flint Task Force's requests and recommendations made on November 25, 2015 and subsequent dates. The response shall include all actions Respondents have taken and intend to take in response to those requests and recommendations. The EPA Flint Task Force's requests and recommendations are publicly available at http://www.epa.gov/ni/flint-drinking-water-documents.

53. Within 10 days of the effective date of the Order the Respondents shall provide the following information in accordance with Paragraph 51:

    a. Water quality parameter measurements (pH, total alkalinity, orthophosphate, chloride, turbidity, iron, calcium, temperature, conductivity) in the distribution system. The City is required by the MDEQ permit to monitor for these parameters at 25 sites quarterly and at 10 of these sites weekly;

b. All lead in water testing results for the City since January 2013, including those not used for LCR compliance; and

c. Identification of areas (e.g., zip codes, neighborhoods) in the City with elevated blood lead levels.

54. Within 10 days of the effective date of the Order, the Respondents shall provide, without publicly disclosing any personally identifiable information, the following directly to the EPA in accordance with Paragraph 66:

a. Existing inventory of homes with lead service lines in Excel or a similar format;

b. Addresses of homes that have had water service interruptions or street disturbances (e.g., water main breaks, road/sidewalk construction, etc.) within the last year; and

c. Addresses of currently unoccupied homes.

55. Respondents shall cooperate with EPA as the Agency conducts LCR sampling and other diagnostic activities in the City.

Treatment and Source Water

56. To ensure that treated water meets finished water quality goals and is consistently maintained throughout the distribution system, that existing and potential plant operational and mechanical start-up issues are identified and addressed, and that water plant operations staff are proficient in treating the existing and new source water, Respondents shall comply with Paragraphs 57, 58 and 59.

57. Respondents shall maintain chlorine residual in the distribution system in accordance with SDWA and the National Primary Drinking Water Regulations ("NPDWRs").

58. The City shall continue to add corrosion inhibitors (e.g., orthophosphate booster) at levels sufficient to re-optimize corrosion control in the distribution system.

59. To address optimization of corrosion control for the system as operated with its current water source, within 14 days of the effective date of this Order the Respondents shall submit to MDEQ and post in accordance with Paragraph 51:

    a. Submit a plan and schedule to the MDEQ to review and revise as needed designated optimal corrosion control and water quality parameters as well as monitoring plans for LCR compliance and all other monitoring plans developed to ensure that the treatment plant is consistently and reliably meeting plant performance criteria and all other NPDWRs;

    b. Submit a sampling plan for daily monitoring of water quality parameters in the distribution system with results compiled in a weekly report in an approved format; and

    c. Submit an operations plan for the corrosion control equipment (storage day tanks, feed/injection systems), with results compiled in a weekly format, that includes monitoring, calibration, verification (pump catch, etc.) as well as daily monitoring of finished water corrosion control parameters. Results shall be submitted and posted weekly.

60. Respondents shall not effectuate a transition to a new water source for the City's PWS (e.g., from KWA) until such time as they have submitted a written plan, developed through consultation with appropriate experts and after providing adequate advanced notice and an opportunity for public comment, to MDEQ and in accordance with Paragraph 51, demonstrating that the City has the technical, managerial and financial capacity to operate its PWS in compliance with SDWA and the NPDWRs and that necessary infrastructure upgrades, analysis, and testing have been completed to ensure a safe transition. Such plans shall include, but not be limited to, provisions addressing:

a. The impacts on corrosion control for any new source water and an operations plan for periodic use of existing sources of water;
b. Completion of corrosion control study for any new sources;
c. Implementation of a "performance period" that allows for the demonstration of the adequacy of treatment of the new water source to meet all NPDWRs before it can be distributed to residents; and
d. The City's technical, managerial and financial capacity to meet SDWA's applicable requirements, including the NPDWRs, during and after the transition to any new water source.

Treatment and Distribution System Management

61. Within 15 days of the effective date of this Order, the City must demonstrate, and the MDEQ and State must ensure, the City has the necessary, capable and qualified personnel required to perform the duties and obligations required to ensure the PWS complies with the SDWA and the NPDWRs.

62. To ensure the City's PWS is adequately operated to meet SDWA and all NPDWRs, within 30 days of the effective date of this Order, the Respondents shall submit the steps they will take to develop and implement a distribution system water quality optimization plan to MDEQ and in accordance with Paragraph 51, to evaluate and improve its programs that affect distribution system water quality, including: evaluating conditions within the distribution system; creating better documentation; and enhancing communication between the various utility functions that impact distribution system water quality. The MDEQ must ensure that this plan is adequate to ensure SDWA compliance and the State must ensure it is executed.

Independent Advisory Panel ("IAP")

63. Within seven days of the effective date of this Order, the MDEQ and State, with the City's input and concurrence, shall engage a panel of independent, nationally-recognized experts on drinking water treatment, sampling, distribution system operation, and members of the affected community to advise and make public recommendations to the City on steps needed to mitigate the imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of persons and general operation of the City's PWS to ensure compliance with SDWA and the NPDWRs.

64. The charge to the IAP will include the following:

    a. Make recommendations to the Respondents, and for consideration by the EPA, to ensure the safe operation of the City's PWS.

    b. Make other recommendations to the Respondents, and for consideration by the EPA, to better serve the community served by the City's PWS.

VI. PARTIES BOUND

65. The provisions of this Order shall apply to and bind Respondents and their officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns.

VII. GENERAL PROVISIONS

66. All submittals and inquiries pursuant to this Order shall be addressed to:

Mark Pollins, Director
Water Enforcement Division
Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance
United States Environmental Protection Agency
William Jefferson Clinton South Building
1200 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Room 3104
Washington, DC 20460
pollins.mark@epa.gov

67. All plans, reports, notices or other documents submitted by Respondents under this Order shall be accompanied by the following statement signed by a responsible official.

"I certify under penalty of law that this document and all attachments were prepared under my direction or supervision in accordance with a system designed to assure that qualified personnel properly gather and evaluate the information submitted. Based on my inquiry of the person or persons who manage the system, or those persons directly responsible for gathering such information, the information submitted is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true, accurate, and complete. I am aware that there are significant penalties for submitting false information, including the possibility of fine and imprisonment for knowing violations."

68. Record preservation. Respondents shall retain, during the pendency of this Order, and for a minimum of six years after its termination, all data, records and documents in its possession or control, or which comes into its possession or the possession of its divisions, officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, successors, and assigns, which relate in any way to this Order. After the above mentioned six year period, Respondents shall provide written notification to EPA 60 calendar days before the destruction of any data, records, or documents that relate in any way to this Order or its implementation. At the EPA's request, Respondents shall then make records available to the EPA for inspection and/or retention, or shall provide copies of any such records to EPA before discarding.

69. Within 10 days of the effective date of this Order, or at the time of retaining any agent, consultant, or contractor for the purpose of carrying out terms of this Order, Respondents shall enter into an agreement with any such agents, consultants, or contractors whereby such agents, consultants, or contractors will be required to provide Respondents a copy of all documents produced under this Order.

70. EPA retains all of its information gathering and inspections authorities and rights, including the right to bring enforcement actions related thereto, under SDWA and any other applicable statutes or regulations.

71. Pursuant to SDWA Section 1431(b), 42 U.S.C. § 300i, in the event Respondents violate, fail or refuse to comply with any of the terms or provisions of this Order, EPA may commence a civil action in U.S. District Court to require compliance with this Order and to assess a civil penalty of up to $21,500 per day of violation under SDWA, as adjusted by the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, and the subsequent Civil Monetary Penalty Inflation Adjustment Rule, 40 C.F.R. Part 19.

72. Compliance with the terms and conditions of this Order shall not in any way be construed to relieve Respondents of their obligations to comply with all applicable provisions of federal, state, or local law, nor shall it be construed to be a determination of any issue related to any federal, state, or local permit. Compliance with this Order shall not be a defense to any actions subsequently commenced for any violation of federal laws and regulations administered by EPA, and it is the responsibility of Respondents to comply with such laws and regulations.

73. EPA may modify this Order to ensure protection of human health and the environment. Such modification shall be in writing and shall be incorporated into this Order.

74. This Order shall constitute final agency action by EPA.

VIII. EFFECTIVE DATE

75. Under SDWA Section 1431, 42 U.S.C. § 300i, this Order shall be effective immediately upon Respondents' receipt of this Order. If modifications are made by the EPA to this Order, such modifications will be effective on the date received by Respondents. This Order shall remain in effect until the provisions identified in the Order have been met in accordance with written EPA approval.

IX. TERMINATION

76. The provisions of this Order shall be deemed satisfied upon Respondents' receipt of written notice from the EPA that Respondents have demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the EPA, that the terms of this Order, including any additional tasks determined by EPA to be required under this Order or any continuing obligation or promises, have been satisfactorily completed.

Caleb –
We are pulling the rest of the info, but here is what we have so far:

Departments in the Flint State Office Building: Treasury; LARA, DTMB; Civil Rights (they moved out two months ago); DHHS

Our initial count for the number of staff is approximately 350, but I'm working to confirm this number.

There are approximately 500 visitors that sign in on average per day – not including kids.

Pulling the water cost/usage. Should have shortly.

When do you need this by? Will of course have to you as soon as we can.

Frequently Asked Questions about

Michigan's State School Reform/Redesign Office

Priority Schools

1. What is a Priority school?
   Priority schools are those schools in the bottom 5% of a complete top-to-bottom (TTB) list of schools. This placement is often indicative of minimal student outcomes in a number of subject areas over time, poor achievement coupled with declines in student performance or substantial achievement gaps, or all of these factors. Schools carry the Priority School status designation for four years regardless of progress.

2. What does it mean to be a Priority school?
   Priority schools are required to develop and implement a reform/redesign plan based on one of four intervention models, as a means for rapid turnaround in student achievement. These schools are given a number of supports from ISDs, MDE and the SRO to result in rapid turnaround.

3. Why do we have a Priority school list? Is it required by legislation?
   Yes, the Priority school list (bottom 5% of schools on the TTB ranking) is mandated in MCL 380.1280c.

4. How were Priority schools identified?
   Schools identified in the bottom 5% of the TTB list are Priority Schools. This includes a school that was identified as a Persistently Low Achieving (PLA) school in 2010 or 2011 (i.e. all previous PLA schools are classified as Priority schools while they are developing or implementing a reform plan per their original placement on the PLA list. Schools stay in this category for four years.)

5. What are the components of the Top-to-Bottom rankings?
   The calculation methodology and supporting information are explained in detail in documents on the MDE's website (www.mi.gov/ttb). In summary, the TTB ranking uses achievement scores (scale scores converted to z-scores, not proficiency rates); improvement scores based on student level two-year performance level change for students in grades 3-8, and cohort slopes of scores at the high school level; and achievement gaps. Up to five subject areas are included (math, reading, writing, science, and social studies), and these are averaged together to determine an overall standardized score for a school. For schools with a 12th grade, graduation rate is included into the overall score along with these subject areas. In short, the three main categories for the TTB are below:

   - Achievement in each of the five tested areas (math, reading, writing, science and social studies)
   - Improvement in each of the tested areas, and
   - Achievement gap in each tested area.

   (Note: Different metrics may be used in future iterations of the TTB methodology)

6. Are all schools included in the list?
   Any school that has at least 30 Full Academic Year (FAY) students in each of the last two years in at least two tested content areas is ranked. Students are included for accountability purposes in a school's results only if they were FAY students—as determined by pupil count days.

Draft

7. What are the intervention models that a Priority school can select for the reform plan?
Schools can select from one of the four following intervention models identified by the U.S. Department of Education. These are specifically mentioned in legislation.

a. Transformation Model
   i. Developing teacher and school leader effectiveness, which includes ensuring that the school has a principal with school turnaround competencies;
   ii. Implementing comprehensive instructional reform strategies;
   iii. Extending or repurposing time for instruction and teacher planning time and creating community-oriented schools; and
   iv. Providing operational flexibility and sustained support.

b. Turnaround Model
   i. This would address similar issues to those mentioned above in the transformation model, and include other actions such as:
   ii. Ensure the school has a principal with demonstrated school turnaround competencies and replace at least 50 percent of the school's staff;
   iii. Adopting a new governance structure; and
   iv. Implementing a new or revised instructional program.

c. Restart Model
   i. Districts would close the school and reopen it under the management of a charter school operator, charter management organization, or educational management organization selected through a rigorous review progress. A restart school would be required to enroll, within the grades it serves, any former student who wishes to attend.

d. Closure Model
   i. Districts would close the low-achieving school and enroll the students who attended that school in other high-achieving schools in the district.

8. Who submits the plan and when does the plan have to be submitted?
According to 1280(c)(2), within 90 days after a public school is placed under the supervision of the state school reform/redesign officer, the school board or board of directors operating the public school shall submit a redesign plan to the state school reform/redesign officer. According to 1280(c)(3), the SRO officer shall issue an order approving, disapproving, or making changes to the redesign plan. If the order makes changes to the redesign plan, the school board or board of directors has 30 days after the order to change the redesign plan to incorporate those changes into the redesign plan and resubmit it. Once a plan is approved, a school can request a change in the plan at any point.

9. What supports are available for Priority schools?
Priority schools receive a wide variety of supports to assist with the development and implementation of the reform plan. The range of services and supports varies depending on the Title I status of the school, and the number of years the school is identified as a Priority school including the following:

Draft

The MDE's supports from its Office of Education Innovation and Improvement (OEII) include, but are not limited to the following:

- Access to online professional learning resources specific to school turnaround and improvement,
- Participation in technical assistance professional learning events and conferences, including networking meetings, leadership academies, and targeted resources,
- Access to the Surveys of Enacted Curriculum for all core teachers in the school,
- Participation in the Superintendent's Dropout Challenge,
- Access to data tools and supports to analyze progress,
- Access to district resources such as the District Toolkit and Educational Resource Survey

The MDE's supports/requirements from its Office of Field Services (OFS) include, but are not limited to the following for Title I eligible Priority Schools:

- An Intervention Specialist (IS), who can facilitate various aspects of plan development, as well as provide technical assistance using customized data tools provided to the school,
- Access to the Statewide System of Support, which includes supports from OEII and ISDs, including School Improvement Facilitators (SIFs), to help guide instructional and school-wide components of the reform plan,
- Data packets on school achievement outcomes, demographics, and other data resources to support the school in consideration of the various reform efforts,
- Access to Title I specific events such as networking meetings and the School Improvement Conference.

The DTMB's supports from its State School Reform/Redesign Office (SRO) include, but are not limited to the following:

- Access to training relative to standards in a cohesive and easily accessible format to target and customize the individual unique needs of each Priority School. The SRO's formatting helps superintendents, school leaders and teachers engage in practices that determine which standards were taught and which students have mastered those standards.
- Streamlined superintendent-led communication and involvement for established expectations, transparency and clarity.
- Real-time school-wide, student-level data every 6-to-8 weeks to target core challenges in time for midcourse corrections with customized supports for individual students in a variety of data collection categories not collected by any other state agency.
- Response to Intervention (RtI) and Special Education tools and trainings to address gaps and immediate supports for students in Tiers I, II, and III.
- Access to national practices in Massachusetts and Tennessee that have shaped school reform.

Priority School Status Release, the SSRRD, and Exit Criteria

10. How does a Priority School exit Priority status?

To exit Priority School status, the Top-to-Bottom ranking must be above 5%, ninety-five percent of students must participate in the statewide test, and the school must meet all Annual Measurable Objectives/academic targets in the all students categories.

11. What is the SSRRD?

According to 380.1280(c)(6), the state school reform/redesign school district is created. The state school reform/redesign school district is a school district reserved as one of many last resort options for chronically failing schools. To date, the SRO has not placed any schools in the SSRRD. The Education Achievement Authority (EAA) was originally designed to be the state's school reform district but lost its exclusivity rights under the former superintendent of public instruction.

12. Does the state have other options besides placing a school in the SSRRD if the school fails to make satisfactory progress?

Yes, the law allows the SRO to place a Priority school under the management of a CEO if the SRO determines that "better educational results are likely to be achieved" under this model. The CEO must implement one of the four intervention models.

General Questions

13. What has the SRO been doing since the E.O. took effect in May?
    a. Planned and executed release-retention protocol for eligible schools identified in cohort 2011
    b. Launched new informative website to increase access to knowledge of national reform efforts and local state Priority School processes with data
    c. Implemented performance information system
    d. Compiled reform learnings from Massachusetts and Tennessee trips
    e. Met with superintendents and their teams regarding current status and next steps
    f. Wrote business plan and SSRRD operations
    g. Successfully transitioned to DTMB, Romney building
    h. Built curricular and RTI (response to intervention) system tools for districts' free and full access
    i. Submitted budget and academic plans to Governor
    j. Collaborated with ISDs to support long-term reforms
    k. Reconstituted team to diversify expertise in urban education, RTI, curriculum, technology, data, community, and charters schools
    l. Collected data related to Priority Schools' trajectories (i.e. student proficiency and growth data, specific circumstances at the school, and other factors).

14. What is the success rate for schools in the bottom 5%?

About 1/3 of schools are closed by their district, 1/3 released by the SRO, and 1/3 retained by the SRO.

15. Can you get rid of or change current CBAs?

According to the Revised School Code 380.1280(c), the SRO officer under specific circumstances can amend contracts barring compensation.

16. What's the plan for schools not in the bottom 5%?

Schools in the bottom 5% face a next level of accountability in addition to submitting performance reports to the SRO every six to eight weeks.

17. Why aren't you closing any schools?

The SRO selects options that are in the best interest of students. Closure is an absolute last resort and must include both community input and a transition plan to provide student access to a high performing school option.

18. Why are you only intervening in East Detroit Public Schools?

Draft

East Detroit Public School District has four schools under 5%. With access to quality school partners, the SRO can work in collaboration with the new superintendent to turnaround the four schools and to sustain the improvement.

19. Are the East Detroit schools the worst performing Priority Schools? If not, why aren't you addressing others first? How were these four schools selected?
The East Detroit Schools are among the bottom 5% of schools in the state. The four schools were selected by the ranking and the longevity of the high school on the list.

20. How is the CEO model any different than an emergency manager?
The CEO is responsible for the academic program of the school with leverage over finances. S/he is an expert in urban school turnaround. The emergency manager's role was strictly over finance.

21. When will CEO's be selected and how long will they remain in place?
CEO's will be selected based on the current circumstances and the time available. Obviously, having more time to plan is always an advantage so selecting and hiring an individual CEO will be based on his or her availability and the proximity to the effective date that schools were to be placed under his or her watchful eye. It is the desire of the State School Reform/Redesign Office that CEOs maintain continuity through the process for at least three years for each group of schools they oversee.

22. What are the advantages to having a CEO oversee schools?
CEOs selected by the SRO are experts in urban turnaround who have the authority and autonomy to make the necessary changes to turn around the schools in relatively short periods of time.

23. How long after the SRO Officer announces a school closure does a school actually have to close?
That depends on the timing of the notice and the type of school. Section 380.1280c of Michigan's Revised School Code outlines a process that could take almost two years for both types of schools: charter public schools and traditional public schools. Section 380.507 also includes some language for the closure of charter public schools but the criteria to implement that language is obsolete and unavailable for consideration, thereby making it unusable. However, more to the question, within the last several years we have seen districts and public school academies successfully implement school closures within three or four months after the decision has been made. In the best case situation, once the State School Reform/Redesign Officer determines that a school should be closed, the associated districts and public school governing boards take immediate affirmative action to initiate a closure plan that culminates at the end of the current school year.

24. What happens if a public school district, authorizing body, or public school academy governing body refuses to cooperate by initiating closure procedures immediately?
In the event that one or more of these entities refuses to cooperate with the implementation of a closure plan, the State School Reform/Redesign Officer may order that the particular school be placed in the State School Reform/Redesign District (SSRRD). If that happens, a traditional school will then be assigned to the SSRRD replacing their former district. This takes their former governance board and district leadership completely out of the decision making process. This school is then directed to implement a closure plan overseen by the SSRRD. If the school is a charter public school, then it gets placed in the SSRRD in a new PSA overseen by a new governance board that was populated by the State School Reform/Redesign Officer and whose charter was authorized by the SSRRD. This charter public school is then directed to implement a closure plan.

25. Is the closure model different for charters than traditional public schools?
In most cases the answer is yes. Most charter schools in Michigan are single building public school academies (PSAs), meaning the building being closed is the only building in the PSA, while a much greater percentage of traditional public school districts have multiple buildings, with multiple buildings serving the same grades. In PSAs and traditional district public schools with multiple buildings serving the same grade of students (e.g., two high schools serving grades 9-12), the closing of one of those buildings is handled very similarly. In PSAs with only one building, the closure of that building means the PSA must be closed too. And because PSAs are Michigan Non-Profit Corporations, the closure process can be significantly different because the corporate entity associated with that particular PSA must also be dissolved. When closure of a PSA is imminent, other stakeholders such as the charter authorizer and the Michigan Departments of Education and Treasury have statutory responsibilities.

26. What is a charter authorizer required to do upon notification by the SRO Officer to close a charter school?
The first step in the process, after communicating the determination to relevant stakeholders, is typically the modifying of the charter contract to establish a new contract termination date. In some cases, the authorizing body won't have to change anything because the contract is set to expire at the end of the current school year. In other cases they will have to move the end date to coincide with the end of the current school year. The authorizing body has a requirement to assist the PSA with the closure by helping to place students in new schools and an obligation to ensure that student and business records are properly handled. Typically, the authorizer also initiates the closure process by initiating a planning meeting with the Michigan Department of Education's Public School Academy unit. This unit uses a closure checklist that is available for review at their website: http://www.michigan.gov/documents/mde/Dissolution_draft_template_446583_7.doc?20140206162148

27. After what happened in Flint, is the timing really right for another state takeover of a locally-elected entity?
The SRO works in concert with local superintendents to ensure decisions are made in the best interest of students. Since the CEO model leaves the school in the district and allows for collaboration with the community and district leadership, it is not a takeover.

28. What specific measurements/reporting are used to determine success?
The SRO will use both statewide data and data collected every six to eight weeks to determine academic success.

29. What requirements will SRO use to make sure the CEO(s) are making progress?
CEOs will only be considered success when student achievement has increased.

30. What about other failing districts besides DPS?
The SRO works with all Priority Schools via streamlined communication through the local school district superintendent. The SRO will continue collecting data and providing local academic support customized for each school. Schools that continue to miss academic targets may experience a next level of accountability.

31. How is this bill different from the Coalition's recommendation?
The coalition recommended returning the EAA schools to DPS, fully funding the SRO and SSRRD, and allowing the SRO to take the lead on improving low-performing schools.

32. How does this bill address special education?
The board may appoint an advisory board to assess academics and operations including special education. All other state and federal regulations around special education apply.

33. How does this bill address stabilizing enrollment?
Bill 710 address various school options including cyber schools, schools of excellence, scholarships established by districts for enrolled students, and advisory boards used to provide an assessment of enrollment.

34. How does this plan address the facilities that are falling apart?

Draft

Except for debt or other obligations retained by the qualifying school district, the community district has the qualifying school district's right, title, and interest in, and all of the qualifying school district's responsibilities and authority arising under leases, concessions, and other contracts for facilities.

35. Why not charter the whole district?
The highest performing state in the nation does not use this strategy because there are few charter networks that have turned around schools. The most successful charter networks have started with new schools and grown to scale.

36. How is Bill 710 different from what the governor recommended?
The governor's team was engaged with the legislature in the drafting of Bill 710.

37. Who did the Governor's office consult when developing recommendations?
The governor's office consulted with key stakeholders, which included but was not limited to the following: state agencies, local educators, and business colleagues.

38. What is being done in the bill to prevent sick outs?
Senate Bills 713 (Pavlov), 714 (Robertson), and 715 (Hune) address changes in provisions concerning teacher strikes, required suspension of teaching certificates, and forfeiture of 5% of school aid payments for failure to deduct funds from strike participants.

39. What protections are in place to ensure New Co. won't find itself in the same situation?
According the Senate Bill 711, treasury will have a financial review commission for the qualified school district to ensure financial compliance and stability.

40. How do these bills address a needed change in culture?
Bill 710 allows for a new superintendent to lead the district with a vision aligned with nationally recognized high-performing urban school systems.

41. Why does the bill return to an elected board so quickly?
Returning he board to an elected body allows for members of the community to have a say in how their children are educated.

42. What is going to happen to the EAA?
At the time of these FAQs were drafted, no determination about the EAA had been made.

Jen Wolf via the MSP-EOC-MDEQ email. (Sorry. Alphabet soup.)(email attached) Trevor then had a follow-up adding Matt.

HOWEVER, later this afternoon, I had a voicemail waiting for me from Meegan apologizing about all the requests to add people and whatnot. She said it will be streamlined in the future.

So, that's good.

Can someone send me a list of those that have admin rights to the Flint Water page? There is a report that needs to be posted around 7 pm each night and they are trying to determine the best way to get that done.

Would this be something that the on-call eMichigan resource could do? I didn't offer that up yet because that doesn't seem like the best approach for the long-term. Let me know if you have any other ideas for posting this after hours.

Flint Drinking Water

Details:

DTMB will continue to offer tap and bottled water as options in the Flint State Office Building. An advisory has been sent asking residents and businesses within a defined area (see attached notice and map) to boil water before using it. However, the Flint State Office Building does fall within the Area of Interest on the map. Additionally, the results of testing we commissioned in October 2015 showed no signs of threats in the water supply to our building.

We will continue to monitor the water crisis and if at any time we have evidence that our water supply poses a threat to the health of our employees and visitors, we will take immediate action. Either way, we will continue to provide bottled water as an option for those who are still concerned.

DRINKING WATER WARNING

The City of Flint water system lost pressure and contamination may have occurred
BOIL YOUR FILTERED WATER BEFORE USING

Due to a drop in pressure in the City of Flint water supply, bacterial contamination may have occurred in the water system. Bacteria are generally not harmful and are common throughout our environment. Corrective measures are currently being undertaken to correct the situation.

What should I do?

AS A PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE, DO NOT DRINK THE WATER WITHOUT BOILING IT FIRST. Bring all FILTERED water to a boil, let it boil for one minute, and let it cool before using, or use bottled water. If you are currently NOT using a filter to remove lead from drinking water, FLUSH your water for AT LEAST 7 minutes before collecting any to boil. Boiled FILTERED, boiled FLUSHED, or bottled water should be used for drinking, making ice, brushing teeth, washing dishes, and preparing food. Boiling kills bacteria and other organisms in the water. Continue using boiled or bottled water until further notice.

Due to the pressure loss, there may be trapped air and loose sediment in your water lines. The air and sediment may be removed by flushing you water system. DO NOT FLUSH YOUR SYSTEM THROUGH THE FILTER. The resulting air and sediment may affect the performance of your filter and the filter cartridge should be replaced.

What happened? What is being done?

These precautionary actions are being taken due to the loss of water pressure in the water distribution system caused by a water transmission main break on February 9, 2016. Whenever a water system loses pressure for any significant length of time, precautionary measures are recommended.

The City of Flint Water Department is working to get pressure restored, and water staff will be taking other remedial actions such as flushing and collecting bacteriological samples from around the system. The samples will be collected to determine that the water quality meets the state drinking water standards. We will inform you when tests show no bacteria and you no longer need to boil your water. We anticipate resolving the problem later today. This precautionary boil water notice shall remain in effect until results from the sampling verify the water is safe to drink. Customers will be advised when the boil water advisory has been lifted.

For more information, please contact The City of Flint Water Department at (810) 766-7202. General guidelines on ways to lessen the risk of infection by microbes are available from the EPA Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1(800) 426-4791.

Please share this information with all the other people who drink this water, especially those who may not have received this notice directly (for example, people in apartments, nursing homes, schools, and businesses). You can do this by posting this notice in a public place or distributing copies by hand or mail.

An advisory has been issued by the City of Flint asking water customers within a defined area (see attached notice and map) to boil water before using it. However, the Flint State Office Building does not fall within the identified area. DTMB continues to offer tap and bottled water in public areas on each floor as options in the Flint State Office Building.

Yes, there is a plan to post all Flint-related emails to a website. I just heard about it yesterday afternoon.

I assume this means that no one has been in contact with eMichigan about this? If that's the case, we should convene a discussion, I'm just not sure who the lead is on this project, likely Gov Legal. I can talk through what I know, if you would like, and we could branch out from there.

I have a lot going on in today and tomorrow, but could free up 30 minutes for a phone call.

What does DTMB do?

Information Technology

- Customer Service
- Software and Application Development
- Infrastructure, Telecommunications and Network Services
- Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Protection
- Enterprise Architecture and Technology Innovations
- Desktop and End-User Support
- IT Project Management
- IT Shared Services
- Data Analytics
- Geographic Information Systems
- Michigan Public Safety Communications System

What does DTMB do?

Management

- Procurement Services
- Building Operations, Real Estate and Leasing
- Fleet, Mail, Print, Delivery, Warehousing, Records Management and Surplus Services
- Multi-agency Financial Services
- Retirement Services
- Facility Design, Construction and Maintenance
- Labor Market Information and Strategic Initiatives

What does DTMB do?

- DTMB Offices
  - State Budget Office
  - Office of State Employer
  - Office of Children's Ombudsman
  - School Reform Office
  - Office of Urban Initiatives
  - Office of Performance and Transformation
    - Executive Order 2016-4 (pending)

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 8]

NOTES:
Executive Order 2016-4 (pending) – taking effect in early April

How is DTMB funded?

- DTMB provides customer service to all state agencies
- Mostly funded by rates charged to agencies
  - Building Occupancy
  - Fleet Services
  - IT
  - Accounting Service Centers
- Rates are established during the budget process
  - Established a rate committee in 2015
  - Work with state agencies to establish new rates
  - New rates are submitted to the State Budget Office
- General Fund

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 10]

NOTES:
DTMB enacted a new Rate Committee process for approving changes to rates:
The committee is comprised of five voting members representing the agencies and their group executives as well as two non-voting members from State Budget Office and Internal Audit
Open meetings are held from June to August to discuss proposed rate changes and the impact to agencies
Upon approval of rate changes by the committee the proposals are presented to the State Budget Office for possible inclusion in the Governor's budget proposal

FY 2015 IT Accomplishments

- Radio Frequency ID (RFID) Program
- Unisys Mainframe Refresh
- MS System Configuration Manager 2012
- Infrastructure Server Virtualization Project
- State of Michigan Wide Network Transformation
- State of Michigan Data Center Upgrades
- Next Generation Digital Infrastructure (NGDI)
- Sales Use and Withholding, Phase 2
- MI Student Scholarships & Grants - Treasury
- MI Forest Inventory (MFI) – DNR
- Diseased Wildlife Reporting mobile app - DNR
- TED-TIA-UIA Taxable Wage Base
- TED-TIA-WDA Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA)
- Unemployment Insurance REA program
- MDOT Permit Gateway migration from Business OneStop
- MiLogin Enterprise Identity and Access Management Solution
- Medicaid Provider Enrollment for Illinois
- Enterprise Fraud Program
- Bureau of Labor Market Information and Strategic Initiatives (LMISI) new website for labor market information
- Center for Educational Performance and Information (CEPI) – Michigan Statewide Longitudinal Data System (MSLDS), Phase 2
- Office of Children's Ombudsmen MS Dynamics CRM implementation
- Insurance Licensing Online Services Portal release
- Electronic Medical Record (EMR) systems implemented in DMVA veteran homes

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 15]

NOTES:
Diseased Wildlife Reporting:
Mobile Application for reporting diseased wildlife takes advantage of cell phones camera and location services to provide better information to the DNR.
This application especially useful for reporting Chronic Wasting Disease in Michigan Deer population.

MI Forest Inventory (MFI):
Mobile friendly application uses geo-spacial technology to map out Michigan's 4.9 million acres of state owned forest land. Allows foresters to manage timber inventory while working in the forest – not in the office.
Uses web services so forest information can be re-purposed and used by other applications, including those supporting travel and tourism.

Unemployment Insurance REA program:
Addresses the needs of UI claimants for certain reemployment services and the prevention and detection of UI improper payments

MDOT Permit Gateway:
On time and on budget
This is the new portal for Construction Permits System (CPS), Internet Highway Advertising Program-Billboard Permitting (IHAP), and Michigan Transport Routing and Internet Permitting-Oversize and Overweight Trucking Permits (MiTrip)
Hard end date of October 2015 and was implemented in August 2015.

Electronic Medical Record systems implemented in:
Dominic J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans, Marquette
Grand Rapids Home for Veterans, Grand Rapids

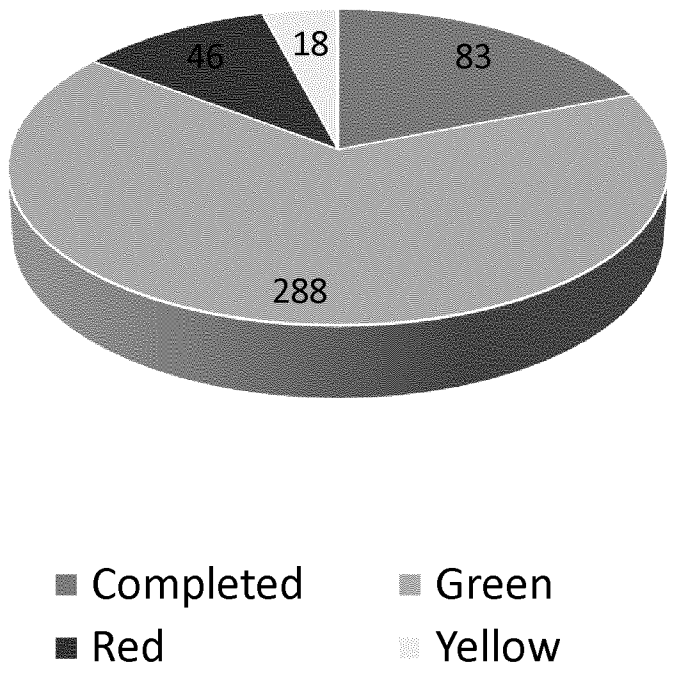
FY16 Project Statistics



- FY16 is shaping up to be a very busy year with 352 projects currently active and 83 projects completed
- Currently 82% of our projects are on time
- Projects listed as red are reviewed by the Project Review Board monthly to make adjustments and ensure project success

IT Investment Fund

- 2013 – to date
  - $9M savings realized through cost avoidance and efficiencies
  - FY16 funding $65M
  - 49 projects
  - 23 projects are complete – all on time and all on budget
  - 26 projects are active or in planning phase
  - 75 legacy systems have been retired, replaced, or modernized
  - 50 legacy interfaces eliminated
  - 230 manual processes automated
  - 72 new systems implemented
  - Over 180 agency remote offices have network and connectivity upgrades, retiring 10 year old and non-upgradeable telecommunications technology
  - Improved services, time savings, new information, improved maintainability, expanded user base, improved user experience

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 20]

NOTES:
We have an annual appropriation aimed at addressing legacy technology and automation opportunities.
We began in FY 2013 with $47M, the appropriation has increased to $65M.
With such a significant investment comes fiscal responsibility our ITIF program has been very successful which is critically important to us.

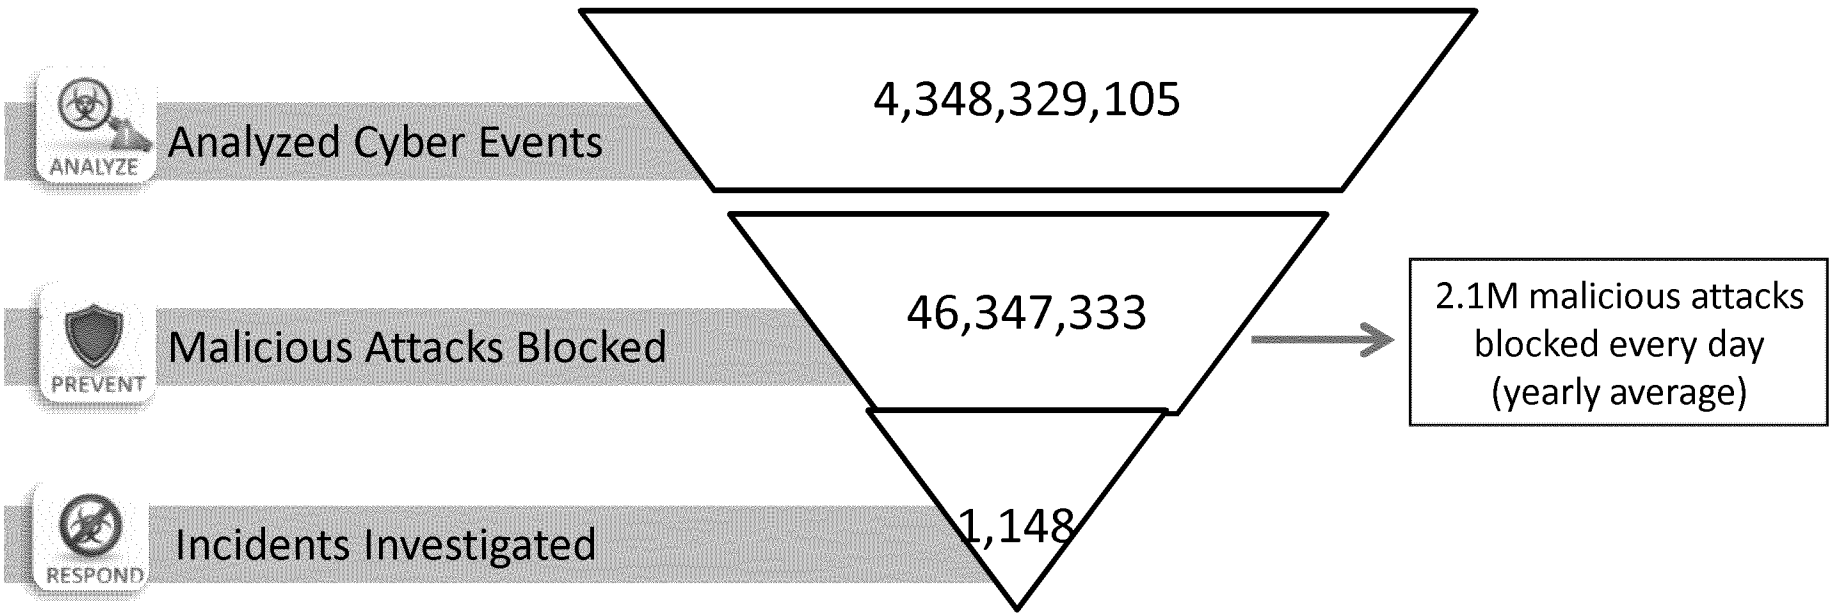
- IT investment fund projects are all online for transparency

FY 2015 Network Modernization Accomplishments

- Strategic Network Upgrades remediate enterprise network issues, specifically number of devices replaced or upgraded to meet continuing life cycle and continuously changing federal security compliance requirements.
  - Legacy Data Center Upgrades: upgraded legacy data center routers, reducing high risk vulnerabilities by 78%
  - Application Security Network Manager: implemented enhanced firewalls with additional performance capabilities
  - As part of continuous life cycle management, additional purchases have been made and will be implemented in FY16 including:
    - Internet routers, switch upgrades, firewall upgrades, switch replacements and creating of a network test environment to reduce the risk of network upgrades through testing prior to installation

Cybersecurity Threats

January 2016 Metrics



[Speaker Notes For Slide: 26]

NOTES:
Why different metrics? New tracking software in April 2015. Implementation of new cyber security and hardware produces different metrics.

Analyzed Cyber Events – The number of security events analyzed across 18 security devices that make up the state's perimeter defenses. These devices include internal and external firewalls, content management, Remote Access, Intrusion Protection Devices, end-point protection on desktops, laptops, And tablets. Examples: Firewall Blocks Connections, Web Queries, Virus indicators on End-Points, System Log-in Malicious Attacks Blocks – The number of application connections per month that were automatically blocked by our Intrusion Protection Devices. This represents ONLY ONE category of blocked items. This number shows a decrease because staff began blocking traffic from certain countries before it becomes an application connection. Examples: Connections to websites that are malicious as determined by our Intrusion Protection Devices. A employee clicks on a Phishing link that goes to a malicious website and is blocked by the Intrusion Protection systems.

Incidents Investigated - The number of Analyzed Cyber Events that are manually investigated each month. Examples The tools see Remote Access using a state account from a Foreign Country. The tools see Remote Access accessing multiple systems and transferring large volumes of data.

Cybersecurity Breach Costs

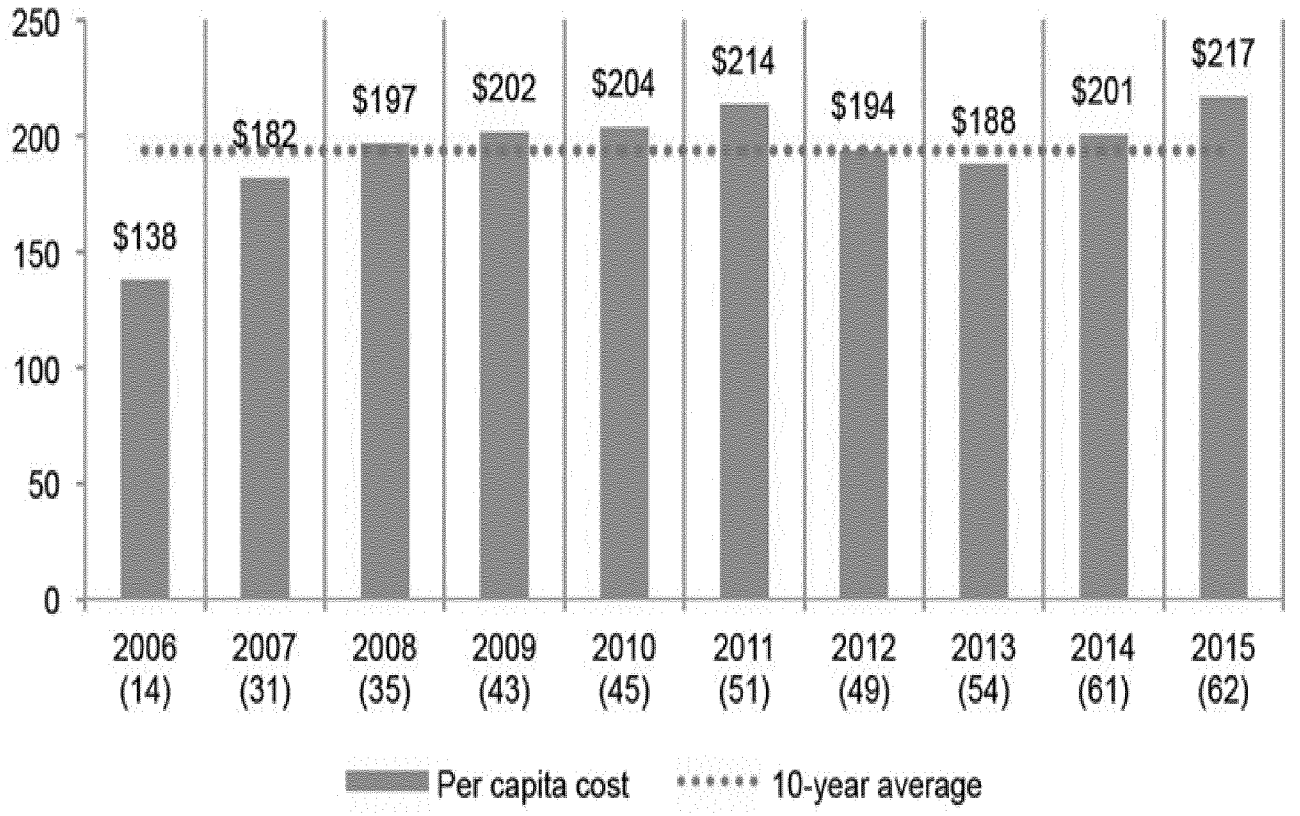
Bracketed number defines the benchmark sample size



[Speaker Notes For Slide: 28]

Phil to provide examples

NOTES:
Cost per breach:
- Per capita cost is defined as the total cost of data breach divided by the size of the data breach in terms of the number of lost or stolen records (Ponemon Institute© Research Report)
2015 Cost of Data Breach Study: United States (Ponemon Institute, May 2015)
- This report is dated in the year of publication rather than the fieldwork completion date. Please note that the majority of data breach incidents studied in the current report happened in the 2014 calendar year.

http://www.jmco.com/media/Ponemon-Data-Beach-2015-Report.pdf

FY 2015 Cybersecurity Accomplishments

- 13 Michigan Cyber Civilian Corps teams established, with 32 members total, an increase from 21 members in 2014 - an additional 18 members are currently being vetted
- Through implementation of Data Loss Prevention, Digital Incident Response and Security program risk reduction the average number of incidents per month have been reduced from 434 to 248 in FY15
- 25 Cyber Range events were held and the range was extended to Selfridge Air National Guard Base and Combat Readiness Center in Alpena

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 30]

NOTES:
The average number of cyber incidents per month have been reduced from 434 to 248 in FY 15 as a result of Employee security awareness training program
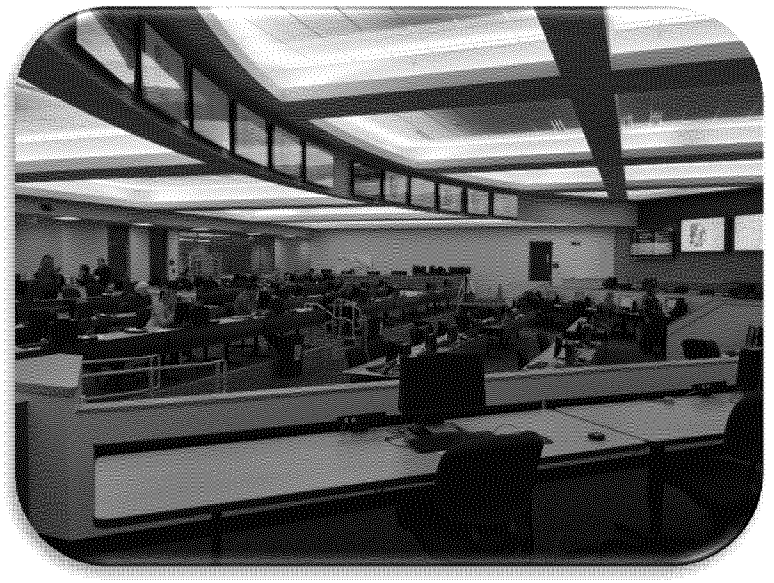
Blocking more threats by updated cyber security tools
Better correlation of security events across the network

FY 2015 Facilities and Business Services Administration Accomplishments



- Completion of State Emergency Operation Center
- Eliminated 10 leased facilities, totaling 159,050 sq. ft. and reduced annual base rent payments by $2.1M
- Six DTMB buildings received EPA's ENERGY STAR status

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 32]

NOTES:
ENERGY STAR:
ENERGY STAR rating: Con Hall, Flint State Office Bldg., Saginaw State Office Bldg.; Lewis Cass; Lottery Bldg.; Traverse City State Office Bldg.
An ENERGY STAR facility is at least 35% more efficient than similar buildings
Less than 1% of all facilities in the US have earned an ENERGY STAR rating
State Emergency Operations Center (SEOC):
DTMB Design and Construction Division
This project provides Michigan State Police with a comprehensive facility to consolidate and manage critical functions of the SEOC mission.
The hardened building addition is implemented to strict Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) requirements, of high-bay, reinforced masonry, and withstand wind speeds of up to 250 miles per hour.
Leased Facility Eliminations:
Real Estate Division
This was accomplished through the maximization of state-owned buildings, moving personnel into other existing leases, and reducing workstations sizes.
Frank Kelley Walkway Fountain:
Fountain decommissioned in the early 2000's due to budget constraints
Lack of use contributed to deterioration and made it inoperable
Bids were received to fix the fountain that would have cost the state up to $150,000
DTMB employees worked together and restored the fountain for only $5,000 in parts and materials
Building Operations Division:
Handled over 41,000 work orders in FY 2015
FY 2015 recycling profits: $114,606
Design and Construction Division:
Executed 477 contracts worth $146M for facility maintenance, repair, renovation, additions and new construction.
This include $18M for Enterprise-wide Special Maintenance and $10M for State Facility Special Maintenance.
Has 32 active security upgrade projects worth $41M and 21 active Personal Protection Device projects worth $31M ongoing with the Department of Corrections.
Real Estate Division:
Successful Audit: The DTMB-Real Estate Division (RED) recently underwent an external audit, performed by the Legislature's Office of the Auditor General (OAG).
Real Estate was rated as "Effective" the OAG's highest rating.
The audit only made only one recommendation, noting only a reportable (minor) condition (of which RED agrees).
State as Lessor – income year-to-date: 33 State as landlord leases totaling $2.6M in annual rent
Land Sales: Camp Manistique, DOC Property in Manistique, MI – private sale $150,000 exceeding appraised value and allowing for the creation of a new business in the area

FY 2015 Special Maintenance Accomplishments

- Capitol dome restoration
- DOC – multiple facilities roof replacement
- Grand Tower – replaced air handling system
- MDARD labs – roof replacement and replaced parking lot
- MSP – multiple facilities roof replacement

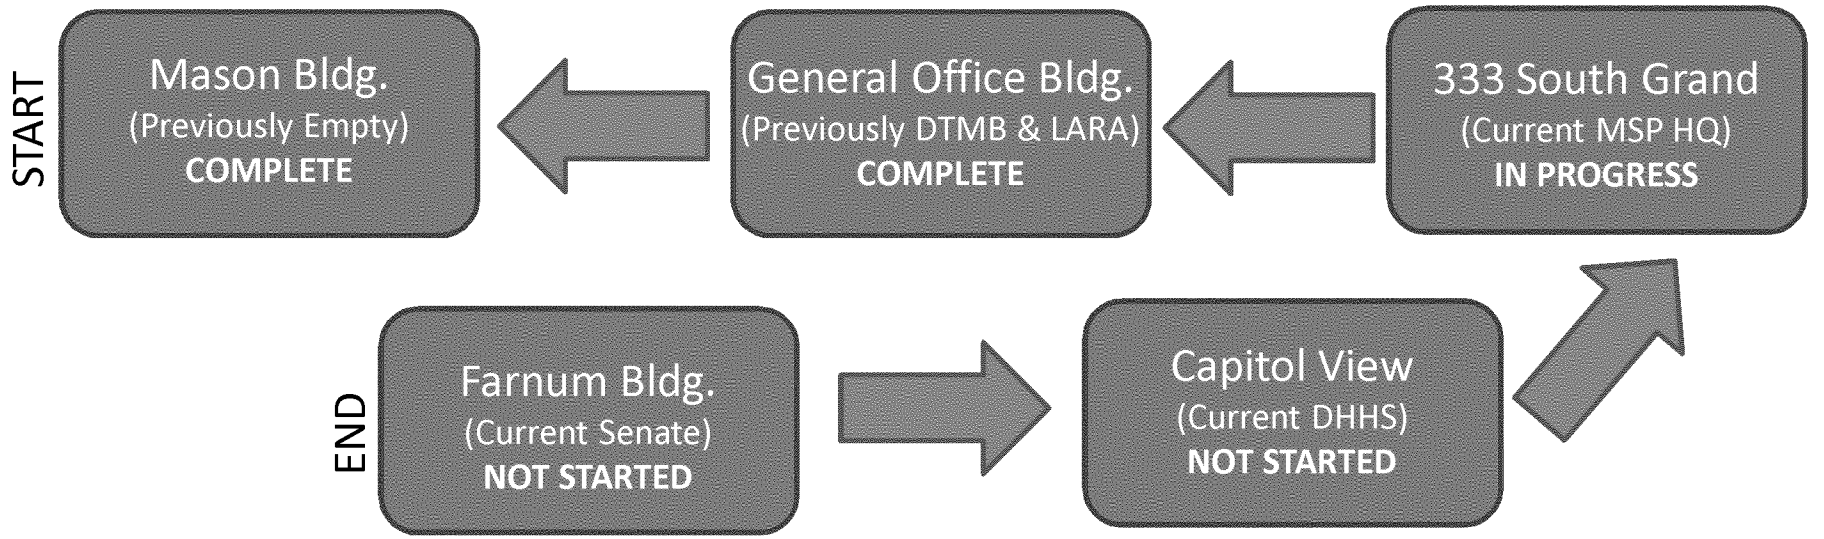
FY 2015 Capitol Area Reconfiguration Accomplishments

- Moved over 1,300 staff from May 2015 – Feb. 2016 (for CAR and related moves)
- Post-move survey's showed overall satisfaction score of 92%



FY 2017 Funding Priorities

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF TECHNOLOGY, MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

FY 2017 Funding Priorities: Cybersecurity

- Cybersecurity - $5M ongoing
  - Focus on prevention, detection and response
    - Comprehensive Asset Description Program
    - Security Event monitoring, analytics and business intelligence
    - Data Loss Prevention
    - Network Security Project

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 37]

NOTES:
This request continues funding for DTMB's Continuous Cyber Security Program to enhance cyber security (Risk Assessment and ICE findings).
The request is for the following initiatives and projects:
$4M
Comprehensive Asset Description Program
Establish Network Security remediation processes to tighten State's network security. Network device security and management is crucial to maintaining secure networks and protecting state data.
Establish a firewall lifecycle management process to monitor, manage and maintain firewall devices from purchase and implementation to decommissioning and removal.
Develop comprehensive server security process for the control of servers commissioned for use within the State's IT environment – whether by internal or out-sourced processing.
Security Event monitoring, analytics and business intelligence
Develop a security analytics and business intelligence process for gathering and analyzing security intelligence and data gathered through normal business operations
Develop a process and implement technology which includes the identification, consolidation, reporting and event correlation of key security information and event management (SIEM) activities/events for server, end user device and network device activities
Data Loss Prevention
Implementation of an enterprise-wide data loss prevention process and technology for all network, endpoints, critical servers, file shares and discovered wireless access points, covering all DTMB controlled networked devices.
$1M Network Security Project
Refresh of firewalls.
Establish a firewall lifecycle management process to monitor, manage and maintain firewall devices from purchase and implementation to decommissioning and removal.
Rule-base cleanup of approximately 153 firewalls. (Rule bases are the configurations items that tell the firewall what to let through and what to block).

FY 2017 Funding Priorities: Enterprise Identity Management

- Enterprise Identity Management: $6.7M ongoing, $2M one-time, 6 FTEs
  - Includes software, hardware, hosting charges, vendor resources and DTMB staffing
- Purpose: One customer – one set of credentials for all State systems (400+ Web & Mobile) and secure access in compliance with Federal and State laws and regulations
- Success Metrics: 6M citizens, 300,000 businesses and 50,000 state workers and contractors
- Major initiatives:
  - MDHHS MyHealthPortal and MyHealthButton (implemented Oct. 2014)
  - MiPage integration (implemented April 2015)
  - MDHHS CHAMPS/IMPACT (partially implemented in July 2015, rest planned for FY16/FY17)
  - Michigan Treasury Online (implemented Dec. 2015)
  - Program SIGMA (planned for FY16/FY17)
  - MDHHS Medicaid Modernization (planned for FY17)
  - Fraud Prevention (MDHHS, Treasury, UIA)

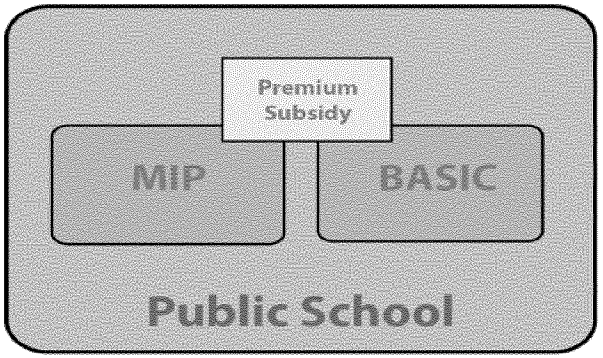
[Speaker Notes For Slide: 39]

NOTES:
MILogin enables Single Sign-On functionality for all State of Michigan Web and Mobile systems (400+), meaning one customer – one set of credentials for all online services.
It allows secure access in compliance with Federal and State laws and regulations, by leveraging features such as Identity Proofing and Multi Factor Authentication, to prevent unauthorized access to sensitive information.
$6.7M ongoing annual funding will support core MILogin functions and operations. These costs include software licenses, hardware and infrastructure (120 servers and appliances in State hosting data centers), vendor and DTMB resources for core operations, help desk and support activities.
MiLogin Metrics
6 Million Citizens – Outdoor, Hunting and Fishing Enthusiasts, Tax Payers, Michigan Drivers, Health and Human Services Beneficiaries and many others.
300,000+ Companies and Organizations – Business Tax Payers, Schools, Colleges and Universities, Health Care Providers and many others.
50,000+ State workers and Contractors
MDHHS MyHealthPortal and MyHealthButton (implemented October 2014)
MiPage integration (implemented April 2015)
MDHHS CHAMPS/MI-IL IMPACT (partially implemented in July 2015, rest planned for FY16/17)
Michigan Treasury Online (Implemented January 2016)
Michigan Individual Income Tax Refunds – Fraud Prevention (Planned for March 2016)
MDHHS Medicaid Modernization (planned for FY17)
Program SIGMA (FY16/17)
Various Fraud Prevention Initiatives (MDHHS, Treasury, UIA)

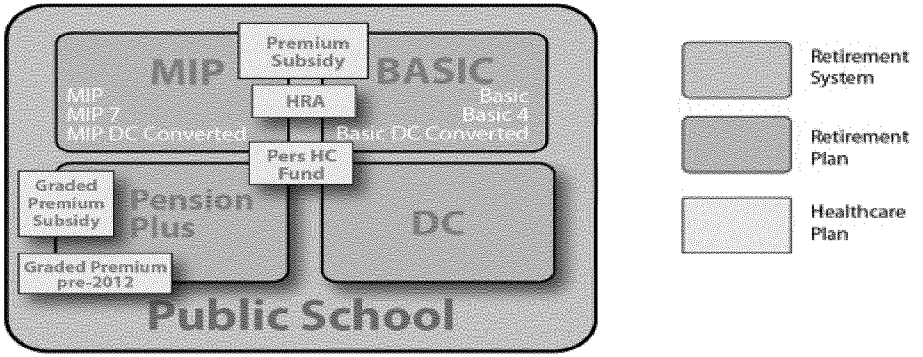
FY 2017 Funding Priorities: Office of Retirement Services

- Office of Retirement Services - $6.5M restricted funds, 7 FTEs
  - IT Modernization: $2.9M one-time replacing legacy systems
  - IT Services Increase: $2.5M ongoing for application and operation support, 2 FTEs
  - Customer Service Improvements: $1.1M ongoing, 5 FTEs

Pension and healthcare before legislated reforms (2009)



Pension and healthcare complexity increases in five years



[Speaker Notes For Slide: 41]

NOTES:
- $2.9M one-time for ORS IT modernization
Support upgrades and the implementation of enterprise mandates. These investments are necessary to maintain the vital administrative services ORS provides to customers. Dedicated efforts are required to maintain the viability of the ORS systems and there are significant risks if these investments are not made. The request includes implementing Enterprise-wide Single Sign-On Functionality, finalizing Finance Re-engineering, and performing infrastructure upgrades and establish security mandated data masking

- $2.5M ongoing for Office of Retirement Services IT costs
Since 2010, legislative changes have made pension and retiree insurance plans significantly more complex. In that short time, state employees began making contributions to their pension plan, public school employees now choose between a Defined Contribution or a hybrid plan, the State Police added a hybrid plan, the Military Retirement System was transferred from DMVA to DTMB-ORS, the graded subsidy for retiree healthcare was phased out, state workers were allowed to convert their subsidy to a monetized value that earns interest, Health Reimbursement Accounts were established, and new Personal Healthcare Funds were introduced. These exponential changes happened in the last four years without a commensurate increase in the FTE and funding needed to support the expansion to the IT infrastructure, code libraries, and data storage and access.

- $1.1M and 5.0 FTEs ongoing for ORS Customer Outreach
Customer education and communication customization to address the legislated expansion of retirement and health products since 2010. The FTEs support Customer Outreach analysts and Call Support Technicians Required to meet new accounting rules for pension reporting and necessary for school districts to request their funding. The new GASB requirements are above and beyond ORS's normal expenditures for legal, actuarial and audit services. These services must be purchased through 3rd parties to prevent a conflict of interest. Current projections for FY16 are an additional $250,000 for actuarial, $150,000 for legal and $100,000 for audit.

CHART:
Legislated reforms over the last five years have resulted in:
Health care cost avoidance in billions of dollars
New pension plans reducing employer costs
Post-retirement earnings oversight
Funding for these reforms were limited and required the use of work projects which resulted in:
Deferred systems maintenance and growth
Customer experience enhancements stalled
Ongoing and one-time funds needed to stabilize service levels, support the more complex environment and educate our members

FY 2017 Funding Priorities: Enterprise-wide Maintenance

- Special Maintenance: $10M one-time, (3.5M) ongoing
  - Statewide requests for facilities maintenance dollars totaled $134.8M in FY17 and included:
    - ADA upgrades
    - Roof repairs
    - Energy efficiency improvements
    - Waterproofing building exteriors
    - Sidewalk repair and parking lot resurfacing
- Capital Area Reconfiguration Project: $7.5M one-time

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 43]

NOTES:
Enterprise Wide Maintenance:
Had $29.5M in FY 2016, $6.5M FY17 increase is the net of a $3.5M reduction in the ongoing line-time (FY17 total is now $26M GF ongoing) and the addition of $10M in one-time GF for enterprise wide special maintenance
CAR project is $7.5M of GF appropriated as one-time. $25.9M in total has been spent on CAR in total, $5.4M in FY 15 and $20.5 in FY16.
Continues the creation of the Health and Human Services Corridor & the Public Safety Campuses.
This project allows the opportunity to create adjacencies never before realized:
Strategic alignment of government campuses will save time and create efficiencies.
Productivity savings from strategic placement of agencies/staff.
Close proximity to interrelated programs and services/employees that have significant interaction.
Supports the Governor's Executive Order to combine DCH and DHS to DHHS.
Better utilization and efficiency with the implementation of space standards where spaces are reconfigured.
Deferred maintenance for DTMB owned building $305M
CAR next steps:
- It is our intent to complete the Governor's vision of a Public Safety campus at the Secondary Complex and finalize the Health and Human Services Campus along Grand Avenue.

FY 2017 Funding Priorities

- Office of Performance and Transformation - $2.7M ongoing, 6 FTEs
  - Executive Order 2016-4 pending April 2016
  - Combining Office of Good Government (DTMB), Office of Regulatory Reform (LARA) and Office of Reinventing Performance in Michigan (LARA)
  - 6 FTEs to enhance organizational excellence and to continue to strengthen our leadership position regarding performance and accountability within state government
- Legal Services Fund - $5M one-time
- ITIF Funding - $7M one-time
  - Treasury legacy system modernization - $5M
  - Enterprise Identity Management integrations - $2M

[Speaker Notes For Slide: 45]

NOTES:
Office of Performance and Transformation:
Areas that came together to form this group: Office of Good Government(DTMB), Office of Regulatory Reform (LARA) and Office of Reinventing Performance in Michigan (LARA)
Purpose: to enhance organizational excellence and to continue to strengthen our leadership position regarding performance and accountability within state government
Why: we are committed to creating a sustainable and long-tern performance driven culture
Goals: organize and prioritize the work around desired results and focus on "outcome" rather than "output"

1. CIVIC ENGAGEMENT FOR STRONGER COMMUNITIES (CESC)

Opportunity

Civic engagement carries a number of different connotations. From trust and participation in government and municipal services, to voting, to volunteering with local non-profits; there are a number of ways to engage in your community. Following national trends however, Michigan cities suffer from a lack of an engaged citizenry. If the levels of participation and engagement can be increased, opportunity exists for greater buy-in to municipal activities and projects, less controversy and surprise, and safer, better connected neighborhoods.

Project Description

Support the Michigan Non-Profit Association's (MNA) "Civic Engagement for Stronger Communities (CESC)" initiative designed to support and build effective civically engaged community models. The strategy is to leverage networks and deep community partnerships to create a comprehensive civic engagement program aimed toward communities across the state of Michigan and particularly in the targeted communities of Detroit, Kalamazoo and Flint.

EC is based on the following three key components: Advancing Collaboration; Supporting Lifelong Civic Engagement; and Deepening Capacity through Diversity and Inclusion.

Implementation

Goal 1: Build lasting connections between nonprofit organizations and other community stakeholders.

- Conduct and share community assessments and issue identification via facilitated conversations.
- Foster and support the formation of collaborations in communities to address specific community needs.

Create a virtual space for communities to organize to address community needs in "real time".

Goal 2: Build and support civic engagement in communities

- Coordinate community partnerships and collaborations between community-based nonprofits and stakeholders in targeted communities.
- Convene community-based organizations to participate in quarterly engagement "boot camps" over the four-year project.
- Create a Civic Engagement blueprint and toolkit for community-based nonprofits to build and sustain a civic engagement plan.

Goal 3: Build nonprofit capacity through Diversity and Inclusion

- Conduct diversity and inclusion assessments for community –based organizations
- Provide diversity and inclusion awareness and training
- Create a common language and definition for Diversity and Inclusion to be adopted by the Michigan nonprofit sector.
- Create a diversity and inclusion blueprint and toolkit uniquely designed for the nonprofit sector.

2. FOOD INCUBATION ACCELERATOR NETWORK PROJECT: SECOND STAGE INCUBATION

Opportunity

As one of Michigan's largest industries, agriculture plays a huge role in the economic health of our state. In 2011, annual agricultural exports generated nearly $2.8 billion, and our agricultural diversity trails only California. One of the strongest growth sectors in this industry is in local food systems, small-scale farming, and cottage foods. Farmers' Markets and other entities have established a number of incubator kitchens across the state and an increasing number of entrepreneurs are launching food-based businesses. While many of these start-ups have met with success, far too many have struggled with how to get past the initial incubation stage and make the leap to their own facility. For many, the leap to taking on the purchase and build-out of their own facility is simply out of their range. These small-scale start-ups are often able to secure financing for equipment, but a build-out is not possible.

What is needed is an intermediary step between the typical rent by-the-hour incubator kitchen and a large facility. Eastern Market Corporation has studied the feasibility of creating a space where a number of flexible kitchens could be built out to minimal specifications by a central landlord and each individual space finished and equipped by the tenants. Unfortunately, this does not easily fit the current paradigm- banks have never financed a project like this and with no proof of concept are reluctant to loan on what is viewed as a risky proposition. Likewise, this does not easily fit the metrics of MEDC, as job creation numbers are difficult to ascertain.

Project Description

This project will consist of an environmental scan to determine the feasibility for a network of incubation facilities followed by a round of grants to create two incubators in year one, with additional facilities in the following years. The ultimate goal will be to have an incubator in every prosperity region deemed able to support one.

This project provides the opportunity to create jobs, accelerate one of Michigan's strongest growth sectors, and increase access to healthy food. It is anticipated that with successful execution, this project will provide proof of concept resulting in private sector support for similar efforts moving forward. Opportunity exists to leverage recently-enacted crowdfunding legislation for matching dollars. Additionally, this project offers the opportunity to benefit both rural growers and urban entrepreneurs and their employees.

DRAFT

Implementation

- Conduct analysis to determine feasibility for network
- Establish criteria for funding two $500,000 matching grants to catalyze construction of food incubation accelerators
- Develop curriculum around accounting, merchandising, marketing, branding, inventory control, food safety etc. for grantees to provide to tenants
- Launch and promote incentive
- Measure participation and accelerator graduation rates

Impacted areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Health
- Primary Indicators: Percentage of population employed, Public-private investment in contaminated/blighted/vacant land and buildings, Median household income, Percentage population that live and work in city
- Secondary indicators: Percentage of small-business start-ups in existence after five years, Percentage of SBA loans approved/denied
- Lead Department: MDARD
- Geographical Area: Kalamazoo

3. HEALTHY HOMES, GREAT STARTS

Opportunity

Harmful housing conditions generate high annual costs to the public and to taxpayers. The economic impact of lead poisoning alone among Michigan's children annually costs an estimated $330 million in increased health care, more crime, declines in IQ, and diminished earnings.

Poor housing quality directly counteracts Michigan's education goals and investment. Exposure to toxic peeling paint, broken windows, rodents, and other unsafe or unclean conditions are strong and consistent predictors of emotional and behavioral issues among children. Housing quality also is related to school performance, as adolescents in substandard homes regularly display lower reading and math skills in standardized achievement tests.

The solution is healthier homes. And personal home visits included in state supported early childhood initiatives – Early On, Head and Great Start, etc – present a timely, strategic and resourceful opportunity to identify and address these housing concerns.

Project Description

The state, along with key partners in Detroit and Grand Rapids, will pilot an initiative that systematically delivers home assessment and hazard remediation to support families with children joining key state-supported early childhood programs. The concept is to use enrollment in these ongoing initiatives as the opportunity to inform parents about the importance of safe and healthy home environments, offer assessments, and make repairs that improve the home environment, promote learning and ultimately help build tomorrow's workforce. Early intervention to abate lead exposure and other unsafe housing conditions is a well-established strategy to prevent or reduce problems for children later in life, particularly in school. Thus the initiative also will support and strengthen the return on the State's investment in early childhood education.

DRAFT

Implementation

The steps to implement this prototype initiative include:

- Staff Training and Development. The partners will design and offer tailor-made trainings to home visitors to familiarize them with the numerous ways housing quality affects child wellbeing and learning. Training will also be offered at parent meetings.
- Screening Protocol. The partners will design a custom-made screening tool to determine which households will best benefit from more intensive services.
- Home Assessments for Families. The partners will offer free and comprehensive home assessments for high-risk families to identify hazards that affect learning and child wellbeing. This will include lead, air quality, asthma triggers, and other basic safety concerns.
- Hazard Abatement. The partners will work with families to remediate concerns identified in the home assessment.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Housing, Education, Environment
- Primary Indicator(s): Quality of housing, Percentage of kindergarten-ready children, Percentage of homes meeting Healthy Homes principles
- Lead Department(s): MDCH and MDOE
- Geographic Area: Select home sites in targeted Detroit and Grand Rapids zip codes

4. INTERGOVERNMENTAL EQUIPMENT SHARING

Opportunity

In today's climate of shrinking government budgets, public works departments are challenged to maintain their fleet size and condition. Consequently, many municipalities, particularly smaller ones, have downsized their departments, turning to outside contractors and rental companies for temporary equipment use. This can be an expensive proposition, with rental rates soaring into the thousands of dollars. Concurrently, many larger municipalities have been able to maintain relatively large fleets, a great deal of which remains underutilized for a large percentage of the year.

There exists an opportunity to pair small communities with rental needs with larger ones with underutilized equipment to the benefit of both. The larger community is able to help pay off their equipment quicker, driving the purchase of new equipment, which in turn helps American manufacturing. The smaller community is able to realize savings through lower priced rentals. This opportunity is similar to other nodes in the emerging sharing economy such as Air BNB, or Uber.

Project description

In this project, the State of Michigan will engage in a regional pilot to develop a best practice around municipal sharing with the potential for voluntary statewide participation. Beginning in Prosperity Region eight, DTMB, will coordinate with state departments, local governments, and public institutions to develop an equipment sharing cluster with the goal of increased utilization rates and lower costs to the taxpayer. Each participating entity will have access to a real-time database of available equipment, ability to reserve and schedule use/rental online, and be provided with back-end invoicing.

Implementation

- Identification of participating communities, universities, school districts
- Track current equipment utilization rates and needs
- Design (or purchase) online software to set up cluster
- Track results, savings after one year

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Municipal Government and City Finance
- Primary Indicators: Annual cost savings achieved through partnerships, collaboration, and joint service agreements
- Lead Department: DTMB
- Geographic Area: Kalamazoo,

5. METRO CREATIVE ALLIANCE

Opportunity

A flourishing cultural economy is vital to Michigan's ability to deliver high quality of life, compete for top talent, drive innovation, and prosper in the 21st century. Conservative estimates reveal the creative sector annually generates some $565 million in direct expenditures, supports $2 billion in tourism, and pays more than $3.5 billion in wages.

More importantly, the cultural economy is poised for growth in Michigan's cities. Any comprehensive strategy to maximize that potential lies in a series of thoughtful public policy and investment initiatives. But one catalyst is to intentionally heighten collaboration among the creative community.

Michigan's cities are home to a diverse but typically loosely organized group of creative class individuals, non-profits, institutions, and businesses. Establishing a clear and more focused ecosystem of partners enables Michigan's urban areas to strengthen their position as energetic hubs for creativity, establish more supportive and promising places to build a career as a creative worker, and hasten the growth of the cultural economy.

Project Description

The state, in partnership with the greater Grand Rapids creative community, will establish the West Michigan Creative Alliance to promote deeper collaboration across the arts-related civic, cultural, education, business, and technology sectors in metropolitan areas. More specifically, the initiative will:
Convene members of the cultural economy to hone a common agenda and strategy for action.
Cultivate a unified voice to advocate the importance and interests of the creative, cultural and design communities in West Michigan.
Better connect creative services and assets to provide a more robust support system for artists, entrepreneurs, projects, and enterprises.

Implementation

The near-term steps to implement this pilot initiative include:

- Hold preliminary organizing meetings to hone the concept and plan of action with key partners.
- Develop a Cultural Plan that unites the creative community around a common mission, goals, and action.
- Establish and staff the Creative Alliance to implement the Plan, better serve the creative community, and grow the metro cultural economy.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Arts and Culture, Economic Development
- Primary Indicator(s): Economic activity, income and jobs generated by arts and culture organizations and creative industries
- Lead Department(s): MEDC
- Geographic Area: Greater Grand Rapids

6. METRO EZ RIDE

Opportunity

The need for reliable transport services for Detroit residents is undeniable as time after time we hear that transportation is a barrier in connecting employers and workers. Residents are conflicted enough with challenges of finding and keeping a job or attending college, university or trade schools. MetroEZride will represent a new GAP transportation strategy and community partnerships to help job seekers, students and employers surmount transportation barriers and develop transportation solutions.

Project Description

A top notch transportation network is a key component to successful economic growth and connecting people and jobs in new ways is a vital part of a public transportation system. We're excited about our potential to work together as a region to develop comprehensive transportation solutions. Following its Detroit launch, MetroEZride will begin community-based planning process [focus groups, research, and meetings with key stakeholders] in Flint, Pontiac and Saginaw to develop similar workforce transportation strategies that can be used as a roadmap for action in those communities.

Implementation

- Access opportunities to for GAP transit services in Detroit that are not competitive with existing city transit operations.
- MetroEZride will partner with faith-based, community, business and grassroots organizations utilizing vans and passenger vehicles typically not used during the weekday. MetroEZride's transportation network will also include its own fuel-efficient passenger vehicles and serve to maximize the potential of existing D-DOT/SMART regional public transportation system by forming connecting hubs.
- MetroEZride services will be designated for urban core residents (18 and older and Detroit Public School night school students taking additional classes to graduate) needing new transit options to city and suburban job sites and schools, and employed workers in 24/7 industries such as health care and hospitality who need transportation on evenings, nights and weekends.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Mobility and Talent Attraction/Retention
- Primary Indicator(s): Percentage population that live and work in the city; Annual number of public transit trips per capita
- Secondary Indicator(s): Investment in neighborhoods; Miles of transit routes Timeliness of service (i.e. reliability)

7. NEIGHBORHOOD STABILIZATION/SCHOOL ANCHOR (NSSA) INITIATIVE

A. NSSA: AmeriCorps Urban Safety Project

Opportunity

This successful Detroit pilot will be expanded into 3 other cities. The initiative focuses many strands of community involvement and neighborhood investment around a common goal of enhancing the quality of life around schools. The NSSA Initiative establishes a defined area of a neighborhood with a school at its nucleus (currently a half-mile radius around the school). Efforts around the school differ in scope and form in each neighborhood, depending on the community's need, but will begin with a collection and analysis of data and demographics. The areas of focus are public safety, private sector joint use of public school space, targeted job training, neighborhood/parental engagement.

Project Description

The AmeriCorps Urban Safety project (currently run by Wayne State University) is designed to build a culture of neighborly communication and responsibility in the city of Detroit. In order to reduce crime in the area, AMUS works with local residents to create block clubs, a forum for residents to connect and create neighborhood safety strategies. This initiative provides the spark for a network of residents that will continue their crime-fighting efforts well after the program has moved on. AMUS works to improve levels of neighborhood guardianship; reduce victim attractiveness and susceptibility; and provide technical assistance for wireless internet connections in residents' homes, in order to enable citizens to use Internet-based programs to help reduce crime.

In an effort to enhance the NSSA Initiative, AMUS was expanded to five areas in Detroit which includes the three existing NSSA areas through a Governor's/Mayor's AmeriCorps Grant. In November 2013, Gov. Rick Snyder and Mayor Dave Bing announced the launch and expansion AMUS crime reduction model in the city of Detroit. This initiative is a unique public-private partnership, the program utilizes 36 AmeriCorps members as catalysts to mobilize and recruit community volunteers to join them in improving public safety in targeted Detroit neighborhoods.

AMUS utilizes the progressive CompStat crime mapping program to evaluate crime "hot-spots" and implement targeted strategies to reduce blight, assaults, break-ins, drug dealing, and vehicle-related crimes. Contributing to the program's success, which has seen a 44 percent reduction in crime in its targeted areas, is the joint collaboration between residents, neighborhood non-profits, faith-based organizations, law enforcement, existing neighborhood associations and block clubs to improve public safety.

Currently, AMUS is active in five areas strategically selected in neighborhoods surrounding local Detroit schools where other state and local improvement initiatives are already underway around the following public schools: English Village, Cody, Osborn, Clark, Bates, Bagley, Gompers, Harms and Neinas. The effort also includes two EAA schools: Bethune and Phoenix Academy. Flint is the next community to launch this initiative.

The funders are the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) CEO, and the foundation community. CNCS is responsible for administering all federal national service programs, including AmeriCorps, Senior Corps, the Volunteer Generation Fund, and other service efforts.

Implementation

- Identify schools in an NSSA area
- Complete crime mapping
- Apply for CNCS support (currently the Governor/Mayors RFP)
- Secure foundation support to serve as a CNCS match
- Implement COMSTAT monitoring through a local university.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Public Safety, Education, Placemaking
- Primary Indicator(s): Kindergarten readiness; 3rd grade reading proficiency
- Secondary Indicator(s): Investment in neighborhoods; Quality housing
- Lead Department(s): MDOE, MEDC and MSHDA
- Geographic Area: Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Muskegon/Muskegon Heights, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo

B. NSSA: Targeted Job Training

Project Description

Most job training programs are targeted at all residents in a city. The challenge to train enough people who secure employment to impact unemployment is extremely difficult in cities like Detroit, Flint, Saginaw, and Muskegon Heights. The objective with Neighborhood Targeted Job Training would be to train and secure employment by neighborhood as a mechanism for stability; a working neighborhood is a safe and populated neighborhood.

This effort will pilot a best practice program in a targeted Detroit neighborhood.

STRIVE

STRIVE's mission is to help people acquire the life-changing skills and attitudes needed to overcome challenging circumstances, find sustained employment, and become valuable contributors to their families, their employers, and their communities.

- Since 1984, STRIVE has helped over 50,000 individuals find work
- STRIVE graduated 3,000 and placed over 2,200 into jobs nationwide last in 2012.
- Two-thirds of STRIVE graduates are placed into jobs
- STRIVE's graduates earn $10-$11 per hour on average – a threshold to living wages
- More than 90% of graduates are still working three months after placement

DRAFT

Implementation

- Secure unemployment data for each NSSA neighborhood.
- Place STRIVE in one NSSA neighborhood

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Housing and Talent Attraction/Retention
- Primary Indicator(s): Percentage population that live and work in the city; Percentage of the population employed in the targeted neighborhood, Quality of housing (condition of structure), Number of people per acre in city overall, Net migration rate
- Secondary Indicator(s): Number of jobs created through incentives, Cost per incentivized job created, Dwelling vacancy rate by specified rental- or owner-occupied status.
- Lead Department(s): MSHDA and MEDC
- Geographic Area: Detroit

8. NEXT GENERATION URBAN TRUNKLINE

Opportunity

Today, we are met with swiftly changing needs and user demands for the state's urban trunklines. The mix of users is shifting to a greater and greater number of pedestrians, cyclists, and other forms of transportation not considered when these roads were designed and constructed. Communities are demanding change to make their streets safer, more human-scaled, and development-friendly. This increased demand to meet the needs of all users has spurred the complete streets movement, something MDOT has embraced wholeheartedly. Additionally, there is an increasing awareness nationally that the vehicular level of service (LOS) should not be the only measure of the functionality of a roadway. In the past, the primary goal was to move cars out of and through our downtowns as quickly as possible. Today, the thinking has shifted, and street design is increasingly used to draw residents, shoppers, and employers into our central cities

In addition to the increasing and diverging needs of users, the make-up of our street networks helps to determine a community's level of walkability. This measure of walkability been shown through work at George Washington University to directly correlate to an area's real estate values and potential for growth in the coming decades. Communities that embrace walkability, complete streets, and quality placemaking will overwhelmingly economically outperform those that do not.

In Kalamazoo, as in a number of cities across Michigan, the street network, and the philosophy behind its design and configuration date to another era, one that valued the automobile and its efficient movement above all other considerations. In September 2014, MDOT and OUMI, and several other partners hosted a week-long community charette seeking input for the reconstruction of the portion of Stadium Drive/Michigan Avenue that connects (many would say divides) Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College with downtown and represents Kalamazoo's "Main Street". The participation in and support for progressive changes to the corridor were overwhelmingly positive, with over 1275 public interactions across a number of different input alternatives. The vast majority of these comments were positive.

Project Description

This project will take the process developed in Kalamazoo and apply to four regionally-significant urban trunklines. Year one will consist of charrettes in each community to develop a vision for how each trunkline can impact the community through connecting existing assets, and spurring economic development projects, that will help to attract and retain talent through the increasing of a community's quality of place. At the end of the charette process, MDOT will incorporate the vision into each region's five-year plan, and begin the design process.

In each example, the MI Place partnership will leverage their toolkit to ensure that these projects leverage the maximum amount of investment and are truly "strategic placemaking" projects.

Implementation

- Assess current conditions, usage levels by mode
- Conduct charette
- Incorporate recommendations into MDOT 5 year plan
- Project design
- Secure local, federal, philanthropic matching funds
- Construction
- Measure usage, economic impact

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Arts and Culture, Civic Engagement, Economic Development, Housing, Mobility, Placemaking, Talent attraction and Retention
- Primary Indicator(s): Percentage of roads deemed "complete streets", Economic activity, income, and jobs generated by arts and cultural organizations and creative industries both direct and indirect.. Percentage of population that live and work in the city, Public/private investment in contaminated/vacant/blighted land and buildings, Percentage of residents within ¼ mile of grocery with full-scale produce department, Percent of land zoned for mixed-use, Number of people per acre in city overall, Investment in downtown and neighborhood building areas (including new construction, historic, and infill projects), Population and household density
- Secondary Indicator(s): State dollars invested in art, culture, and creative economy support and promotion, Use of/variety of forms of communication (old and new) to inform residents and make them aware of meetings and events in the community, Percentage of brownfield-eligible properties remediated, Obesity rate per capita, Number of mixed-use building permits, Miles of bike facilities, Walkscore, Urban tree canopy, Number and size of public gathering spaces in downtown/neighborhood areas

Lead Department(s): MDOT, MEDC, MDNR, MSHDA, MDEQ

Geographic Area: Initial pilot in Kalamazoo. Potential second round projects in Hillsdale, Jackson, Lansing

9. PURE MICHIGAN ANCHOR CONNECT/BUY LOCAL MICHIGAN

Opportunity

In many Michigan communities, educational institutions and health systems/hospitals (anchor institutions) are the largest employers and have tremendous procurement needs. Unfortunately, in many cases, much of their purchasing power and economic impact leaks from the community in which the anchor institutions are located, often crossing state lines or in some cases, international borders. Typically many of the procurement needs that go unmet locally are not due to a lack of a local vendor, but rather because a lack of local outreach and/or disconnected local business networks. There is great potential to leverage the economic power of these institutions to impact local communities.

Project Description

Through local partners including chambers of commerce, and economic development organizations, OUMI, in conjunction with MEDC's Pure Michigan Business Connect team will host a series local vendor fairs designed to connect local business with the procurement needs of anchor institutions within the community. This strategy represents a "nearest first" initiative, designed to keep dollars, and jobs in the community that the procurement needs originate from. Data shows that local procurement leads to a greater percentage of dollars invested to remain in the community, growing business, jobs, additional local spending and philanthropy.

Implementation

- Identify local chamber/economic development organization/business network to serve as champion.
- Secure commitments from anchor institutions
- Implement necessary modifications to PMBC website
- Secure venues
- Design outreach strategy, ongoing maintenance of network
- Promote event
- Host event
- Track results

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development
- Primary Indicator(s): % of population employed
- Secondary Indicator(s): % of population that live and work in the city, % of startups inexistence after 5 years
- Lead Department(s): MEDC
- Geographic Area: Kalamazoo, Flint, Jackson, Muskegon

10. TARGETED URBAN EXPANSION PROJECT

Opportunity

As Michigan continues to recover from the great recession, jobs are being added at a robust pace and the manufacturing sector, especially autos is thriving. Concurrently, the number of structurally unemployed in our urban areas remains unacceptably high and educational attainment levels unacceptably low. New jobs being added to the market are not having the impact on the most marginalized populations. Additionally, many Michigan OEMs are utilizing out-of-state suppliers, resulting in tremendous economic leakage.

MEDC programs Pure Michigan Business Connect (PMBC) and Community Ventures both address parts of these challenges in limited ways. PMBC events offer Michigan-based suppliers the opportunity to network and meet with OEM procurement departments and have been successful in directing millions of dollars back into the Michigan economy. This investment however, has not been directed into any specific geography. Community Ventures offers employers the opportunity to receive $5000 for every person that they hire from returning prisoner populations, also providing necessary social services and support. This program has been limited to Detroit, Pontiac and Flint. Some employers have expressed concern with the perceived bureaucracy that programs such as this typically entail and have been reluctant to utilize them.

Project Description

The first step in this project will be the identification of a handful of small-to-midsize companies that have realized recent successes and have an active interest in giving back to the region through offering employment to populations that have been structurally unemployed. Ideally, these companies will be willing to bring the jobs to these populations, and expand or locate into urban core areas.

The incentive to employers to participate will be an opportunity to engage with large suppliers that are in the process of letting new contracts. We envision taking the PMBC model and reversing the relationship- that is, as opposed to numerous suppliers having the opportunity to get in front of one OEM with the goal of securing business, MEDC would facilitate companies with a commitment to hiring underserved populations and locating in urban centers an opportunity to meet with multiple OEMs to share their vision for urban employment and secure contracts.

This initiative provides the opportunity to direct investment into urban core cities, creating much needed tax base. This project will direct jobs to populations desperately in need. It is envisioned that similar suppliers willing to hire structurally unemployed individuals could be identified in multiple communities and that OEMs looking for a positive PR story without the perceived challenges of working through a program such as Community Ventures would be interested in participating in the program.

Implementation

- Design program parameters
- Publicize and secure partner companies
- Launch events
- Track results

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Municipal Finance
- Primary Indicators: Per capita incomes of 18-35 year-olds, Percentage of population employed, Median household income, Percentage of population that lives and works in the city, Unrestricted general fund balance is stable or increasing over five-year period.
- Secondary Indicators: Number of jobs created through incentives, Average FICO score in census tract
- Lead Department: MEDC
- Geography: Kalamazoo

11. TIERED ANCHOR STRATEGY

Opportunity

It is known that the largest generation in the United States is now the millennial generation, and that members of this generation are increasingly mobile, choosing where to live based on quality of place, bringing their talent, innovation, and entrepreneurialism with them. With only one city in the top 100 places to live for millenials, Michigan is at a decided disadvantage when it comes to attracting and retaining talent, something vital to our state's success.

This shift in workforce behavior is happening concurrently with the globalization of industry. Once-stable employers also becoming increasingly mobile as production moves to follow labor. This phenomena leaves educational and health institutions as the true economic anchors of our communities; that is, their location is dependent on the population where they are located, and they are "anchored" to the community. These institutions, and their hiring cycles, and the quality of the places they are located represent tremendous opportunity to lure and retain talent in our urban areas.

With the advent of the MIPlace initiative, the state, its component departments, and also local units are increasingly realizing the importance placemaking of offering quality places that will attract and retain talent. Communities with flexibility to adapt and offer the quality places demanded by todays talent, coupled with the economic potential of their anchor institutions stand poised to be the beacons of prosperity in coming decades.

Recently, OUMI contracted with consultants U3 Ventures to analyze the potential for anchor-based economic development strategies and placemaking -a component vital to the transformative turnaround of Midtown Detroit. In the eight cities already analyzed, U3 has provided a set of recommendations on how best to leverage the power of local anchor institutions and identified additional opportunities for transformative practices and projects.

Project Description

Working in close coordination with multiple state agency partners, OUMI will act as advisor for the implementation of a three phase anchor-based economic development program in two tiers of cities (based on population). Step one will consist of identification of communities with potential for anchor-based economic development strategies with an online assessment tool (complete in tier one cities). The identified tier-two cities will receive a package of consulting services through U3 Ventures which will analyze the demographics, housing stock, and opportunities for development strategies. Once U3 has made recommendations, communities will work through the MEDC Redevelopment-Ready Communities program, following a carefully plotted set of additional steps ensuring that local conditions, zoning regulations, development processes etc. meet best practice benchmarks. At the conclusion of each phase, the state will provide an additional suite of grants/technical assistance/project assistance.

It is anticipated that this project will result in a greater number of Michigan cities adopting best practices from a zoning and development process perspective, making them more attractive to private investment. Communities would be eligible for a pool of funding for the development of form-based zoning codes, downtown or district plans, market studies, etc.. Additionally, through the coordination of anchor institution resources it is anticipated that a number of locally-financed initiatives will emerge, driving increased local procurement, innovation, and leading to denser residential patterns.

Implementation

- Identification of set of local best practices
- Identification of state incentives and technical assistance to be offered at completion of stages
- Software tool design and build.
- Project roll-out
- Track and report impacts

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Placemaking, Municipal Finance, housing, public safety, Talent
- Primary Indicators: Percentage of people that live and work in the city, Public/private investment in blighted/contaminated structures and land, Quality of housing, Number of blighted or abandoned houses as percentage of housing stock, Population and household density.
- Secondary indicators: Number of mixed-use building permits, Assessed values per-capita, biking paths/facilities, Complete streets policies/ordinances, Walkscore
- Lead Departments: MSHDA, MEDC
- Geographic Area: Kalamazoo, Jackson, Flint, Saginaw

12. SIGNATURE RIVERS, STRONG CITIES

Opportunity

Globally unique freshwater rivers flow through nearly all of Michigan urban centers. These blue assets potentially provide a tremendous advantage in the competition to provide ready access to outdoor recreation, offer high quality of life, attract top talent, lure private investment, and prosper in the 21st century economy.

But too many of these waterways and riverfronts remain mired in the 20th century: blighted by obsolete land uses, polluted with contamination, inaccessible to people, not fully integrated into larger emerging recreational systems, or otherwise underutilized.

The Signature Water Trails initiative will align and prioritize efforts to restore and reactivate Michigan's rivers. The initiative will make communities of all types – urban, suburban, and rural – even better places to live by catalyzing the development of new recreational infrastructure such as trails and parks, but also by extension new housing, restaurants, and other desirable amenities. As a result, Michigan will more fully realize the social, environmental, and economic potential of her waterways and waterfront communities.

The initiative also aligns with MI Dashboard performance as well as the intent of, and recommendations put forward by the Michigan State Parks and Outdoor Recreation Blue Ribbon Panel (2012) and the coming state Water Strategy.

Project Description

The state, in partnership with West Michigan communities, will pilot the establishment of the state's first Signature Water Trail. The Grand River, the state's longest, is the backbone of the region's outdoor recreation system. It's also a key asset in the revitalization and economic development of Grand Rapids, the state's second largest city, as well as smaller cities, towns, and villages such as Grand Haven, Spring Lake, Ionia, and Portland.

Designating the 96-mile Lower Grand as a Signature State Water Trail will provide a new framework and platform to support and sustain the efforts to promote river restoration and recreation. The Signature designation – and organizational structure to support it – also provides a new model to achieve such outcomes as:

- Establish cities as hubs in unique outdoor recreation corridors.
- Inspire greater local/regional identity, differentiation, and collaboration.
- Protect and create new opportunities to experience Michigan's natural resources.
- Support talent attraction efforts and drive economic prosperity
- Connect people to their places and to each other.

Implementation
The near-term steps to implement this pilot initiative include:

- Determine "Signature" trail criteria and best practice designation process.
- Brief key West Michigan leadership on the concept.
- Formally designate the Lower Grand River as Michigan's first Signature Water Trail.
- Appoint a task force to begin exploring issues and potential organizational models to lead the development, stewardship, and programming of the Trail.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Placemaking, Housing, Talent Attraction
- Primary Indicator(s): Public-private investment in contaminated/blighted/vacant land and buildings, Investment in downtown building areas, Net population migration, Number of people per acre in city overall, Percentage of population holding a post-secondary degree
- Lead Department(s): DNR
- Geographic Area: Ottawa, Kent, and Ionia Counties

PROPOSED CONTINUED AND NEW LEGISLATIVE OR REGULATORY EFFORTS FOR FY 2015

CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION REFORM

The CTE programs in Michigan are not flexible, neither do they in many case have strong relationships with the private sector. The purpose is to review and reform the CTE programs.

MCOLES REVISION

Problem: Reduction in funding support for cities has challenged the stability of law enforcement. In 2012, Michigan had eight cities listed on the FBI's top 100 most violent crime list which four were on listed in the top 10. In 2004, MCOLES rule changes prevented private colleges and universities from having peace keeping activities outside the footprint of their campus.

Solutions: Revise MCOLES to permit private institutions to have arresting authority outside the footprint of their campus under certain conditions modeled after Wayne State University's policing operation in Midtown Detroit.

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Public Safety, Placemaking
- Primary Indicator(s): Reduction of crime, population growth, business growth
- Secondary Indicator(s): Investment in neighborhoods; Quality housing
- Lead Department(s): MSP, MEDC, MSHDA
- Geographic Area: Statewide with primary impact cities being Detroit and Flint

MUNICIPAL FINANCE REFORM

A statewide process initiated in conjunction with Treasury's Bureau of Local Government Services and the Office of Financial Restructuring to create a formal process for cities to actively participate in revitalizing their financial structure to avoid fiscal emergencies. The initial phase of this process will focus on exploring national best practices in three areas: Pension liability, Consolidation, and Revenue Flexibility.

TIF REFORM

Opportunity

Tax increment financing remains one of the best tools available to municipalities. It has been leveraged through a myriad number of different programs to achieve vastly different objectives that have leveraged billions of dollars in private investment. However, over the several decades that TIF has been in place in Michigan, it has become increasingly complicated, with no fewer than 15 different tools, each with its particular set applicable uses. With many of the older tools, particularly DDA TIF, the conditions that the original legislation was designed to address have changed, leaving communities without the flexibility they need to achieve desired outcomes. Additionally, taxing jurisdictions including counties, community colleges, and libraries are seeking greater input as to how these revenues are allocated. A comprehensive overhaul of this system is necessary with the goals of increased flexibility, transparency, and accountability.

Project Description

OUMI will convene an inclusive work group to include administration and departmental stakeholders, local partners, practitioners, and membership organizations through a thoughtful, holistic overhaul of these tools with the goal of an equitable, streamlined system that achieve the desired outcomes of the existing tools.

Implementation

- Convene state government stakeholders (OUMI, MSHDA, MEDC, DEQ)
- Convene partner organizations (Michigan Association of Counties, Michigan Townships Association, Michigan Downtowns Association, Michigan Municipal League)
- Identify legislative sponsors
- Analyze structure and efficacy of existing tools
- Recommend changes to structure, timeline for transition

- Introduce legislation
- Host “practitioner town halls”

Impacted Areas

- Focus Areas: Economic Development, Placemaking, Municipal Finance, Housing, Mobility, Energy and Environment
- Primary Indicators: Investment in downtown and neighborhood building areas, Percentage of people that live and work in the city, Public/private investment in blighted/contaminated structures and land, Quality of housing, Number of blighted or abandoned houses as percentage of housing stock, Unrestricted fund balance is stable or increasing over a five-year period
- Secondary Indicators: Number of mixed-use building permits, Assessed values per-capita, biking paths/facilities, Complete streets policies/ordinances, Walkscore, Number of small business start-ups in existence after five years, Percentage of brownfield-eligible acres remediated, Assessed values per-capita, Cities have five-year financial plan

Subject: Staff Needed for Joint Information Center

Importance: High

John,
As we discussed on the phone, the Joint Information Center has been activated by the Governor to handle manage communications involving the Flint Water Emergency. They have asked for a dedicated resource from eMichigan to physically sit in the room today to help with web changes. Please let me know the team member that will you have identified for this role.

They will need to go to 4000 Collins Rd, Lansing, MI. It is a State Police building and has gate access to enter the parking lot. Let the guard know that you are there for the Joint Information Center, if prompted. Enter the building and, once again, let the guard know what you are there for and they will sign you in and direct you to the right location.

When you get close to the building have them call Jen Holton at 517-242-2575. She is expecting the call and will be able to help you get set up. I would recommend having the individual bring their own laptop, I'm not sure what the computer situation is like.

Feel free to call me on my cell, 517-303-4038, if anyone has questions or trouble getting in.

State's Servers Vulnerable, According To Audit

MIRS, 12/17/15

The security settings on 94 percent of State of Michigan's computer servers, the data warehouses for the state records, were not properly set, according to audit released today. The audit specifically examined a series of issues related the UNIX servers, some of which contained systems that Auditor General Doug A. RINGLER's office dubbed "critical to state government operations" and "life threatening" to citizens if they were unavailable.

The audit included a review of the security configurations of 63 servers. Of those, 59 - or 94 percent - were found to have vulnerable security configurations.

The state's Department of Technology, Management and Budget was also cited for not fully establishing and implementing effective procedures to detect and remediate security vulnerabilities.

Of the servers reviewed by auditors, 47 percent had not had a vulnerability scan in over a month. When vulnerability scans were conducted at the request of auditors, the average number of "high risk exposures" for state servers was 77. One server had 420 security incidents auditors labeled "high risk."

Other findings of the audit included:

- Failure to apply operating system patches for servers in a timely fashion;

- Need to establish a strategy to ensure only supported UNIX operating system versions are installed on servers containing state applications. Unsupported versions were operational on approximately 30 of the state's UNIX servers;

- The state did not establish and implement proper controls over who could access UNIX operating systems;

- DTMB failed to fully establish a segregation of duties over the administration of the state's UNIX servers. The DTMB Agency Services Division had too much control over key processes, which increased the risk that controls designed to secure the state's information systems could be circumvented;

- DTMB didn't maintain accurate records of UNIX server information, which is necessary to maintain server security and to ensure the ready availability of information for critical business decisions.

Audit: Guns, Propane Tank Stored With State's IT Servers

MIRS, 12/18/15

For the second day in a row, the security and stability of the state's information technology systems have come under scrutiny from an audit.

Today, the Office of the Auditor General (OAG) released an unflattering look at the physical conditions of the places that contain the state's data systems. The auditors found loose restrictions in who had control to these places. They also flagged fire and water hazards with these rooms.

The findings from today's audit and one released Thursday were enough for the state to acknowledge that they "underscore the need for constant vigilance and improvement in the arena of cybersecurity," said Caleb BUHS, spokesperson for the Michigan Department of Technology, Management and Budget (DTMB).

The state keeps its computer servers and network equipment in various switch rooms and telecommunication rooms across the state. The OAG found that DTMB didn't implement controls to limit physical access to these places.

For instance, the OAG found former employees still had access to the state's hosting centers and switch rooms.

The OAG also scoped out the environmental conditions of these places and found they weren't being kept tidy, which has safety implications.

The auditors found some of these places weren't "reasonably free from dust, food and beverages," and even included pictures to show for it.

In some of these places, the auditors found everything from a propane tank to guns and holiday decorations.

On Thursday, the OAG released an audit critical of the security controls set on the state's servers.

Buhs said many of the concerns found in the audits were known potential vulnerabilities, with solutions that are in various stages of implementation.

Gov. Rick SNYDER has always talked up improving cybersecurity as a top priority for his administration, and Buhs said, "We have made strong gains in shoring up our IT resources during the Snyder administration and will continue to adjust our actions and plans as the technology world continues to evolve."

Buhs said one area of improvement the state is working on is a single sign-on system for state employees that will tighten access controls, known as MiLogin.

Snyder Appoints Hollins To Oversee Flint Water Efforts

Gongwer, 12/17/15

Governor Rick Snyder, in response to preliminary recommendations from the Flint Water Advisory Task Force, appointed Harvey Hollins, the director of his Office of Urban Initiatives, to oversee efforts to resolve the water issues in the city.

"Harvey is well-versed in the issues and the challenges faced by our cities and will be effective in this role," Mr. Snyder said.

He said his administration would also work on an Internet dashboard to display progress made on the water issue.

The task force is still working on its final recommendations, but members said they issued the preliminary recommendations - in a letter dated December 7 but released Thursday - to get some of the changes in place more quickly.

"We felt it was imperative to make these initial recommendations to help address the water crisis in Flint instead of waiting until our final report is submitted," Task Force Co-Chair Chris Kolb said. "We appreciate the prompt acceptance of our request for action by the governor and see it as a step forward."

Co-Chair Ken Sikkema also said the initial review presented "a distributing situation."

"While the Task Force is far from done with our work, the initial review has presented a very disturbing situation that will require many actions to help those that have suffered," Mr. Sikkema said. "We saw no reason to wait until the final report to make these initial recommendations. We also anticipate that we will made additional recommendations prior to the final report."

Task force members said the departments of Environmental Quality and Health and Human Services needed to set goals for the various efforts underway in the city as well as contingency plans if those goals are not being met.

The task force called for a single person or entity to coordinate the efforts.

DPS debt payments mount to unsustainable levels

Detroit News, 1/4/16

The debt payments of Detroit Public Schools — already the highest of any school district in Michigan — are set to balloon in February to an amount nearly equal to the school district's payroll and benefits as the city school system teeters on the edge of insolvency.

Detroit Public Schools has to begin making monthly $26 million payments starting in less than a month to chip away at the $121 million borrowed this school year for cash flow purposes and $139.8 million for operating debts incurred in prior years. The city school system's total debt payments are 74 percent higher from last school year.

The debt costs continue to mount while Gov. Rick Snyder and the Legislature remain at odds over how to rescue Michigan's largest school district. A bankruptcy of the district could leave state taxpayers on the hook for at least $1.5 billion in DPS debt.

The school district's payroll and health care benefits are projected to cost $26.8 million in February — meaning the debt payments will be 97 percent of payroll. General fund operating debt payments that exceed 10 percent of payroll are "a major warning flag," municipal bond analyst Matt Fabian said.

"That's extremely high," said Fabian, managing director of Municipal Market Advisors in Concord, Massachusetts, who also followed the city of Detroit's bankruptcy case. "That's no longer, really, a normal school district. The school district has turned into a debt-servicing entity. It's making its own mission impossible."

As a result, the Detroit district won't have enough cash to pay any bills in four months.

Caleb,

I just wanted to give you an update on the donation of bottled water to the City of Flint. I am currently working on setting up shipping for the 93 pallets of water from South Carolina to Flint. I am hoping that the pallets can start being delivery early next week. Please let me know if you have any questions. I have also been running everything through DHHS (Sheryl Thompson).

I have received quotes from Ryder Logistics ($1600 per truck load) and FedEx Freight ($1674 per truck load), but am still waiting for a quote from UPS. We have a state wide contract with UPS for freight and we should receive a 82% discount on shipping. We will need to ship the water in five truck loads. I will let you know what their quote looks like when I receive it. I have already spoken to the food bank to set up delivery dates. Would you like the shipping invoice to be sent to your attention?

I just received word on their changes.

1) Take the word "Resources" out of "Filter Resource Sites" so that it is not confusing with graphic above it. The new graphic will read "Filter Sites."
2) On the 211 section add some language so it reads "Call 2-1-1 if you have questions, need transportation assistance, to submit donations, or to volunteer your services.
3) Remove the bottom band of photos for now until the group comes to a final determination on how to populate that section.

After making these, we are ready to implement them on the production site.

Can you give me an estimate of when this can be done? Today, tomorrow, etc...

Thanks for all your help, you have been fantastic.

Michelle,
Thank you for all that you did last night to meet the JICs needs on the Flint Water site. I am now in the JIC today and have a few questions.

-Apparently, the documents that were displaced when the federal documents were added need to be put back up. Do you have a way of pulling those back in? No one here is exactly sure of what they all were and we are hoping that you can pull those easily. If you can find them, please put them back into the area under social media.

-We would like to move the federal letters below the news updates. We may create a header for that info, but for now, please just move that info below the updates.

Feel free to email or call my cell with any questions.

Thanks,

FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

OMB No. 1660-0009 Expires March 31,2016

REQUEST FOR PRESIDENTIAL DISASTER DECLARATION MAJOR DISASTER OR EMERGENCY

1. Request Date: Jan 14, 2016

Burden Disclosure Notice

Public reporting burden for this form is estimated to average 9 hours per response. The burden estimate includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and submitting the form. This collection of information is required to obtain a benefit. You are not required to respond to this collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding the accuracy of the burden estimate and any suggestions for reducing the burden to: Information Collections Management, Department of Homeland Security, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 500 C Street SW, Washington, DC 20472, Paperwork Reduction Project (1660-0009). NOTE: Do not send your completed form to this address.

Completion of this form including applicable attachments satisfies legal requirements for emergency and major disaster declaration requests under 42 U.S.C. §§ 5170 and 5191, respectively, as implemented at 44 C.F.R. §§ 206.35 and 206.36. Failure to use this form may result in a failure to meet these requirements and/or a delay in processing the request.

2a. Name of State (as defined in Stafford Act 102, 42 U.S.C. § 5122) or Indian tribal government requesting declaration.
Michigan

2b. Population (as reported by 2010 Census) or estimated population of Indian tribal government's damaged area(s): 9,883,640

3. Governor's or Tribal Chief Executive's Name
Richard D. Snyder

4. Designation of State or Tribal Coordinating Officer upon declaration (if available) and phone number
Captain Chris A. Kelenske Office: [redacted] Cell: [redacted]

5. Designation of Governor's Authorized Representative or Tribal Chief Executive Representative upon declaration (if available) and phone number
Mr. Anthony Katarsky Office: [redacted] Cell: [redacted]

6. Declaration Request For: ☒ Major Disaster (Stafford Act Sec. 401) ☐ Emergency (Stafford Act Sec. 501(a))

7. Incident Period: Beginning Date: Apr 25, 2014 End Date: _____ or ☒ Continuing

If requesting a "continuing" incident period, enclose an official statement from a qualified Federal Government agency acknowledged as a national authority in a specific incident field (e.g., United States Geological Survey for seismic incidents, the National Weather Service for flooding).

7b. Type of Incident (Check all that apply)

☐ Drought ☐ Earthquake ☐ Explosion ☐ Fire ☐ Flood ☐ Hurricane ☐ Landslide ☐ Mudslide
☐ Severe Storm (rain, high water, wind-driven rain, hail, lightning) ☐ Snowstorm (Must include Enclosure D: Historic and Current Snowfall Data) ☐ Straight-Line Winds
☐ Tidal Wave ☐ Tornado ☐ Tropical Depression ☐ Tropical Storm ☐ Tsunami ☐ Volcanic Eruption ☐ Winter Storm
☒ Other (please specify): Contamination and Damage to Public Water System

8. Description of damages (Short description of impacts of disaster on affected area and population). Include additional details in enclosed Governor's or Tribal Chief Executive's cover letter.

On April 25, 2014, the City of Flint switched from the Detroit Water System (DWSD) to water from its own water treatment plant drawn from the Flint River as its primary water source. The different characteristics of the water resulted in leaching of lead from lead pipes in the city's water infrastructure into the water supply. Increased exposure to lead can cause immediate negative health effects. However, the main health concerns are long-term effects in children such as developmental and cognitive delays, and behavioral disorders. Increased water lead levels and elevated blood lead levels in young children were observed in the City of Flint and confirmed by the State Chief Medical Executive. Based on U.S. census data, the population of the City of Flint is 99,002. Census data puts the percentage of the total population under the age of 5 at 8% or approximately 8,200. Children under age 6 are in a high-risk stage of growth for lead exposure. Approximately 2,642 residents have been tested for lead blood levels as a result of this incident with 50 exhibiting elevated blood lead levels. The 2010 census data identifies 40,017 households and 51,321 housing units within the City of Flint. All of these households obtain their potable water from the city.

9. Description of the nature and amount of State and local or Indian tribal government resources which have been or will be committed. Include additional details in enclosed Governor's or Tribal Chief Executive's cover letter.

All appropriate local, regional and state resources were used to their maximum in responding to and recovering from this public health emergency. This included equipment, personnel, materials and supplies, facilities, technical expertise (including emergency contracting, as appropriate), and financial resources. When local and regional resources (including partner voluntary relief organizations and other community-based organizations) were not sufficient to address incident conditions, or very specialized resources were required to perform specialized response and/or recovery functions, State of Michigan resources were activated to address capability shortfalls. State agencies actively involved in the response and recovery activities in the SEOC and/or field include the Michigan Departments of State Police, Agriculture and Rural Development, Attorney General, Civil Rights, Corrections, Education, Environmental Quality, Health and Human Services, Insurance and Financial Services, Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, Military and Veterans Affairs, Natural Resources, and Talent and Economic Development. Details are in the cover letter.

11. Programs and Areas Requested

Individual Assistance ☐ N/A ☒ Individuals and Households Program ☒ Crisis Counseling Program ☒ Disaster Unemployment Assistance

☒ All ☒ Disaster Case Management ☒ Disaster Legal Services

For the following jurisdictions, specify programs and areas (counties, parishes, independent cities, for Indian tribal government, list tribe(s) and/or tribal area(s)) if additional space is needed, please enclose additional documentation).

Townships of Flint, Genesee and Mt. Morris; Cities of Burton and Flint; County of Genesee

We request all available programs. The Individual Assistance programs will be needed to assist residents/water service customers with an estimated cost as much as $54,619,500 to repair damaged lead service lines on private property. The damage estimate is based on damage assessments conducted by the City of Flint with the Genesee County Equalization Department.

For States, identify Federally-recognized Tribes in the requested counties (if applicable).

11. Programs and Areas Requested (Continued)

Public Assistance ☐ N/A ☒ Debris Removal (Category A) ☒ Emergency Protective Measures (Category B) ☒ Permanent Work (Categories C-G)* (not available for Emergency Declaration Requests)

For the following jurisdictions, specify programs and areas (counties, parishes, independent cities; for Indian tribal government, list tribe(s) and/or tribal area(s)). If additional space is needed or your request includes different categories of work for different jurisdictions, please enclose additional documentation.

Townships of Flint, Genesee and Mt. Morris; Cities of Burton and Flint; County of Genesee

We request all available programs. Emergency Protective Measures have been and will continue to be implemented with estimated costs which could be in the range of $41,000,000. The need is estimated for 90 days for water distribution ($10,335,808) and 1 year for the balance for filters, cartridges, and water test kits. Damage assessments conducted by the City of Flint with the Genesee County Equalization Department concluded that the total potential damages to the City of Flint water distribution infrastructure is estimated at $712,800,000.

For States, identify Federally-recognized Tribes included in the requested counties (if applicable).

Please see Enclosure B: Supplemental Information for Public Assistance for additional information in support of this request*.

Indemnification for Debris Removal Activity

☐ I do not anticipate the need for debris removal.

☒ I anticipate the need for debris removal, which poses an immediate threat to lives, public health and safety. Pursuant to Sections 403 and 407 of the Stafford Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 5170b & 5173, the State or Indian tribal government agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the United States of America for any claims arising from the removal of debris or wreckage for this disaster. The State or Indian tribal government agrees that debris removal from public and private property will not occur until the landowner signs an unconditional authorization for the removal of debris.

Request for Direct Federal Assistance

☐ I do not request direct Federal assistance at this time.

☒ I request direct Federal assistance for work and services to save lives and protect property, and:

a. I request the following type(s) of assistance:

Emergency work and protective measures to save lives, protect public health and safety and to protect property, for state and local governments; including but not limited to the provision of food, water and other consumable commodities. Assistance from CDC, EPA, HHS, HUD, SBA and any other agencies with responsibilities related to health, nutrition, and water infrastructure.

b. List of reasons why State and local or Indian tribal government cannot perform, or contract for, required work and services.

State and local resources can not meet the demand for filters, cartridges, water, and water testing at each residence; or the physical and mental health or nutrition needs of the affected population of 40,509 households with approximately 99,002 residents. The city is not able to repair its water system and the state has responded, but the response needs far exceed the state's capability. In addition to continuing response to other disasters, including the 2014 flooding in metro Detroit.

c. In accordance with 44 C.F.R. § 206.208, the State or Indian tribal government agrees that it will, with respect to direct Federal assistance: (1) Provide without cost to the United States all lands, easements, and rights-of-ways necessary to accomplish the approved work; (2) Hold and save the United States free from damages due to the requested work, and shall indemnify the Federal Government against any claims arising from such work; (3) Provide reimbursement to FEMA for the non-Federal share of the cost of such work in accordance with the provisions of the FEMA-State or FEMA-Tribe Agreement ; and (4) Assist the performing Federal agency in all support and local jurisdictional matters.

14. Findings and Certifications

☒ I certify the following:

a. I have determined that this incident is of such severity and magnitude that effective response is beyond the capabilities of the State and the affected local government or Indian tribal government and that supplementary federal assistance is necessary.

b. In response to this incident, I have taken appropriate action under State or tribal law and have directed the execution of the State or Tribal Emergency Plan on Jan 5, 2016 in accordance with the Stafford Act.

c. The State and local governments, or Indian tribal government will assume all applicable non-Federal share of costs required by the Stafford Act.

Caleb,

I updated the below PDFs on the site, however I haven't moved them yet. I had to edit the PDFs again as the redaction didn't take. You could still select and copy the numbers even though they weren't visible. This has been corrected.

I'll create a new section under Social and News for the 5 docs you need moved.

Michelle,
Is it possible to have the "in the body" "In the Home" "In the Schools" accordion not have a default open? Right now, In the Body is the open when you go to the page and the team was wondering if you could have all three closed until someone clicks on one.

Snyder Pledges 'Not to Let You Down Again'

MIRS, 1/20/16 (condensed)

A contrite Gov. Rick SNYDER, his voice cracking at times over the dull roar of protestors outside the Capitol, pledged to fix Flint's lead-tainted water supply and to "not let you down again."

Snyder dedicated 18 minutes of this sixth State of the State message to the Flint water crisis -- his version of what had happened, what he's done to address it and his pledge to not let it happen again.

In an unprecedented move, the Governor vowed to release his 2014 and 2015 emails regarding Flint on Wednesday. He's asking the Legislature to sign off on $28 million for water filters, testing kits and immediate health services to the children of Flint. He released a public help website.

He's putting together a task force to look into public infrastructure needs in Flint and elsewhere in Michigan with aged water pipes, some made out of wood or cast iron.

All the while, more National Guard troops, state residents, the State Police and others have visited 21,000 homes with bottled waters and filters. Old fixtures are being replaced in schools, daycares and hospitals.

Nurse visits, adolescent health centers and environmental assessments are on the way.

"We will not stop working for the people of Flint until everyone has clean water every single day, no matter what," he said.

The pronouncement comes 113 days after Snyder said he was first briefed by his administration about the extent of the lead still contained in the city's water supply. Up until that point, Snyder said he was told by his Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) that the lead levels in the water were within compliance levels. His Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) told him elevated lead levels were "seasonal trends."

It wasn't until Virginia Tech's Marc EDWARDS and Dr. Mona Hanna ATTISHA came out with their studies on Flint's water and the lead level in people that the agencies took another look.

"Government failed you -- federal, state and local leaders -- by breaking the trust you placed in us," Snyder said. "I'm sorry most of all that I let you down . . .

"I know apologies won't make up for the mistakes that were made -- nothing will," he said. "But I take full responsibility to fix the problem so that it never happens again."

House Passes $28M Flint Water Spending Bill

MIRS, 1/20/16 (condensed)

The full House quickly passed the $28 million supplemental appropriation Gov. Rick SNYDER asked for in Tuesday's State of the State address.

The supplemental spending in HB 5220 is being described as a "first step" in addressing the issues confronting Flint residents after corrosive Flint River water that flowed through the city's aged water pipes caused lead leaching.

"I'm very delighted with my colleagues and allies of goodwill. Their moral compasses are pointed in the right direction," said Rep. Sheldon NEELEY (D-Flint).

Rep. Phil PHELPS (D-Flushing), who sponsored the measure, said there's a narrative circulating in the media that Gov. Rick SNYDER and his Republican colleagues aren't willing to help those residents impacted by the lead-laced water in Flint.

Based on what he's seen these past few weeks, the Republicans and Snyder are "doing everything they can to prove that narrative wrong." He thanked his colleagues for the quick pace in which the bill moved and said the Legislature will have the final say in setting the narrative to this issue.

"The narrative will be of overcoming adversity together," Phelps said.

The bill passed 106-0 with one member absent and 96 co-sponsors. House Appropriations Committee Chair Al PSCHOLKA (R-Stevensville) punctuated the bipartisan spirit of today's action with, "Let's stand with the people of Flint."

The $28 million supplemental ($22 million General Fund) brings the total state spending on Flint's water issue to $37 million. Another $9 million was approved late last year to switch Flint's water source from the Flint River back to the Detroit water system.

The spending items include:

- $2 million to support National Guard efforts in water support

- $935,000 to the Department of Education to support the hiring of additional school nurses, wrap-around services, providing early on and special education services. Funding may also be used for nutritional snacks for elementary students

- $17 million for the Department of Health and Human Services to cover the purchase of water filters and filter replacements, to provide nutrition support and community education and to support child and adolescent health centers

- $5.8 million to the Department of Environmental Quality to fund water system needs, to provide for lab and testing costs and to provide corrosion control procedures and an infrastructure integrity study using outside experts

The appropriation flows across a total of six departments. The funding will primarily go toward providing more bottled water, water filters, filter replacements and replacement of faucets and fixtures that may be contributing to the lead issue in Flint schools.

Of the appropriation, $2 million is going to the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs for plumbing fixture replacement.

Gov Urges 'Great Haste' On DPS Bills; Legislative Leaders Not Setting Timelines

MIRS 1/20/16 (condensed)

In addition to Flint, Gov. Rick SNYDER has another potential crisis looming over his head as 2016 begins -- the financial future of Detroit Public Schools, which is set to run out of money this spring.

During his State of the State address, Snyder beseeched the Legislature to "move with great haste" in passing legislation to begin to tackle the debt incurred by DPS and help the children of the district achieve academic success.

"Now is the time to get something done . . . Let's address this decades long crisis now," he said.

Snyder said the best-case scenario is to avoid court intervention when dealing with DPS finances, urging timely passage of legislation that recently took shape in the Senate.

He also asked the Legislature to consider the implementation of the Detroit Education Commission that was recommended by the Coalition for the Future of Detroit Schoolchildren, which would in theory oversee both public and charter schools in the city.

That recommendation came with a grain of salt -- he acknowledged that many lawmakers so far have been cool to the idea.

The language would separate the DPS district into an "old" district to hold the debt until it's paid off and create the new Detroit Community Schools District. The bills would also create a newly elected board that would be on the November ballot in 2016 and then be seated in January 2017.

In the interim, the nine-member board would be appointed, with four selections made by Mayor Mike DUGGAN and five chosen by Gov. Rick SNYDER. That board would initially be in charge of choosing a superintendent for the district.

Also included in the legislation is language that would include the bottom 5 percent of schools into the state reform district. The schools would be put under the purview of the School Reform Office, but would not be taken out of the new community district.

After Hansen rolled out the bills, House and Senate Democrats came together in unified opposition to the plan just a few hours later.

Rep. Fred DURHAL III (D-Detroit) said the school district has been under state control for 20 years -- it was in a surplus for 20 years, and now it's in a deficit. He said he and his colleagues are willing to work to fix the issue, but at the end of the day it's up to Republicans to help come to an agreement.

"It's difficult when you talk about taking money from other school districts," he said. "That's what has individuals on the other side of the aisle kind of weary about DPS."

He noted that both sides have the potential to come together like the "Grand Bargain" for the city of Detroit.

"We can talk about the fiscal and money all day, but the kids did nothing to anyone and it's the kids that are suffering."

Wayne Co. Weighs Moving Juvenile Court to New Center

Detroit News 1/21/16

Wayne County is considering moving its juvenile court to the city's New Center area, officials said Thursday.

Deputy Wayne County Executive Richard Kaufman said the county is close to completing a deal with the state of Michigan to move the juvenile court to its Cadillac Place building on West Grand.

He told the county commission about plans to move the Lincoln Hall of Justice from East Forrest at northbound Interstate 75 during a committee of the whole meeting Thursday.

"At the end of the day, it will be a better facility, provide better security, parking and at less cost," he said.

Kaufman made the remarks during discussion of a proposal to revamp a settlement agreement between the county and the Third Circuit Court in a 2008 lawsuit the court filed against the county over funding of its operations in fiscal years 2008-09 and 2009-10. Juvenile court is part of Third Judicial Circuit Court of Michigan.

Under the proposal, a new settlement agreement would be put in place.

It calls for the county to consolidate the court's four locations — the Civil Division in the Coleman A Young Municipal Center, the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice in Greektown, Friend of the Court in the Penobscot Building and the Lincoln Hall of Justice — into either a single location or two campuses.

The single location option calls for the county to move all four of the court's divisions into a single, undetermined location.

In the two-campus option, which county officials appear to be leaning toward, officials plan to keep the court's criminal division at Frank Murphy and put the three remaining divisions into one location. The civil division will house the Family Divisions — domestic and juvenile, as well as the Friend of the Court — in the single location, which after Thursday's discussion appears likely to be Cadillac Place.

Court officials have signed off on the new settlement agreement at Cadillac Place, but it requires commission approval.

During the meeting, commissioners raised questions about why the administration hadn't informed them the county was negotiating with the state about moving the juvenile court or that it was negotiating with the circuit court on a new settlement agreement.

"When was the commission brought in on this? When did we first know about that this agreement was afoot?" asked Commissioner Tim Killeen, D-Detroit. "It seems to me with this kind of a thing ... there should have been some discussion ahead of here's a signed-sealed-delivered document and we have to vote either up or down on it."

Kaufman said the administration sent the proposal to the commission as soon as it and the court came to an agreement.

Commissioners voted unanimously to send the proposal to the full board for its approval. Commissioner Diane Webb, D-Livonia, was excused.

Kaufman said the Lincoln Hall of Justice building is in poor condition and has problems with its heating and cooling system and its elevators.

"It's a very needy, decrepit building," he said. "We need to find the Lincoln Hall of Justice a new home."

He said the county aims to wrap up negotiations with the state and have the court moved within a month or two. Once moved, the county would sell the building; hopefully, he said, within a year.

How the State's Small Errors Cost You $213K

Lansing State Journal, 1/14/16 (condensed)

LANSING – The government's small errors and minor negligence — and, perhaps, fraud by prisoners — cost Michigan taxpayers nearly $213,000 over the last three years.

Since January 2013, taxpayers have been charged nearly $62,000 for damaged vehicles (not all because of potholes), about $30,000 for broken, lost or stolen TVs, and about $12,000 for lost, damaged or stolen eyeglasses, according to a State Journal analysis of records of small claims against state government approved by the State Administrative Board.

The amounts approved by that board, which considers claims seeking less than $1,000 in damages, are barely a blip in the state's $54 billion annual budget. And they pale against the nearly $71 million in larger court judgments and settlements the state paid in 2014 alone.

But the small-claims awards – paid to ordinary Michiganders, to state employees, and to Michigan prisoners – highlight how common mishaps and mistakes are in a nearly 50,000-employee organization serving nearly 10 million constituents.

Claims are reviewed by both department officials and the attorney general's office before going to the Administrative Board for final review. The claims are paid out of the departments' budgets.

And the claims are not rubber-stamped. Less than half of the claimants get everything they ask for – on average, the board approves payments equal to about 80% of the amount people originally seek. About three in 10 requests are outright denied.

In 49 of the 1,727 claims considered since 2013, the board actually approved an amount higher than what the person asked for.

"If information is discovered during the review of the supporting documents by the (attorney general) or the board, then adjustments can be made up or down," DTMB spokesman Caleb Buhs said in an email to the State Journal.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

RICK SNYDER
GOVERNOR

DEPARTMENT OF TECHNOLOGY, MANAGEMENT & BUDGET
LANSING

DAVID B. BEHEN
DIRECTOR

February 2, 2016

TO: State of Michigan Procurement Leadership

FROM: DTMB Procurement

SUBJECT: Genesee County Water Emergency Response - Purchasing Guidance

Thank you to all who are working to support the State of Michigan's Genesee County, City of Flint water emergency response.

Given the complexity and variety of the needs of this emergency effort, the purchasing support required is complex as well. Purchasing protocols have some differences under this declared state of emergency, and meticulous tracking of expenditures is imperative.

The Michigan State Police (MSP) is the lead agency overseeing the situation and managing the State Emergency Operations Center (SEOC). Flint related purchases must first be routed through the appropriate SEOC contact (see attached for an agency roster) to include the SEOC State Director. This is required for all Flint- related purchases without exception. The SEOC financial team is responsible for tracking all expenditures in connection with the emergency efforts.

Each agency is responsible for its own purchasing transactions. This includes p-card transactions and purchase orders, the tracking of all such transactions, and reporting of those transactions to the appropriate SEOC representative. Failure to properly inform the SEOC financial team of any transaction may result in a forfeiture of any potential reimbursement anticipated by the agency.

Agency purchasing managers are responsible to supply their agency's SEOC representative with a 24/7 phone number for agency purchasing staff support and request that the SEOC representative involves them in every purchase. (Note: SEOC hours are 8 am to 8 pm, seven days a week at this time.)

Emergency Purchasing Procedure:
Public Act 431 of 1984 provides an exception to competitive bidding during a state of emergency. However, responsible purchasing procedures are still the expectation for all procurement professionals (agency purchasing staff).

In addition to the notification and reporting expectations set forth above, transactions should be conducted and/or overseen by procurement professionals, with rare exception, in accordance with the following:

- Each agency makes their own determination when an emergency purchase order is required, and is then responsible for the supporting documentation
- Utilize existing State contracts where possible. Contact DTMB Procurement for help negotiating bulk rates or expedited shipments if needed, and for any concerns related to availability of funds on a contract

- Obtain three quotes whenever reasonably practicable
- Post bids online to the extent practicable
- Please escalate any questions to DTMB Procurement before executing a buy
- DTMB Procurement will assist any agency upon request to address supply chain issues (e.g. working with a national supplier to ensure a high volume supply of water filters are available)
- DTMB-Financial Services is not responsible for issuing emergency purchase orders on behalf of agencies with the exception of information technology related goods and services
- Maintain documentation supporting all transactions. Establish internal protocols to support this such as a single spreadsheet to track agency-wide transactions. Report your agency's expenses to the SEOC Finance team via your SEOC representative.

Auditor or Attorney: _____ Contact: _____

Media Specification: Paper Copies or Email attachment less than 20 MB, CD-ROM or DVD, unless certain records are not available in computer format, in which case response by fax or in-person viewing is preferred

Records requested: The records and documents I am requesting are all those relating to:

Copies of the documents, including but not limited to emails already requested by and provided to Progress Michigan or those associated with the organization related to any and all discussion of Flint's water supply, including but not limited to contaminant such as lead and copper in the water as well as any and all discussion of Legionnaire's disease in Genesee County, Mich.

For the purposes of this request, the term "you" or "your" refers to public body generating or maintaining the public records requested in this request, and to which this request is directed, whether that be an agency, municipality, office, county, or any other entity subject to disclosure under this act; the term "records" refers to all documents, regardless of physical form (including without limitation papers, reports, notes of telephone conversations, telephone call messages, studies, proposals, indices, letters, messages, faxes, minutes, logs, journal entries, calendars, and computer-based or computer-generated materials including e-mail, or any other documentation of any kind of any and all kind) of or belonging to any department, agency, service area, board or other subdivision of the public body. "Records" shall include drafts of records to the extent permitted by law; The term "email" includes any electronic message and any attachment to any such message, and specifically includes emails sent or received by an officer, agent, or employee using an email address other than that person's official government issued email address if sent or received while on duty, using a government computer, in a government building, sent or received using a government contact list, or other using any other government resource.

Michigan law requires you to respond to this request not more than five (5) days from your receipt of this request, but you are asked to expedite this request if possible. If this request is sent by fax or email, the time to comply begins the day after the faxed request is sent to you. If your agency does not maintain these public records, please let my designated auditor know who does, and include the proper custodian's name and address. If this fax request does not go directly to the office of the FOIA coordinator, you must deliver it there immediately. If you deny any part of this request, please indicate the name and position of the person too who an appeal should be directed prior to instituting suit, so that needless litigation in which costs, damages, and attorney fee may be taxed against you might be avoided.

Take notice of the penalties and consequences for failure to comply with this request: Willful violation of FOIA by refusing to disclose or delaying in disclosing or providing copies of a public record, may result in the court awarding in addition to any actual or compensatory damages, award punitive damages in the amount of $500 to the person seeking the right to inspect or receive a copy of a public record. Reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements" will be awarded to any person who prevails in an action to compel disclosure under MCLA § 15.240. If the requesting person only prevails in part, "the court may, in its discretion, award all or an appropriate portion of reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements.

Because of the civic educational purpose of this request, I request a fee waiver and ask that you determine that a waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest because furnishing copies of the public record can be considered as primarily benefiting the general public." MCLA § 15.234(l)

I agree to pay any reasonable search, copying, and postage fees of not more than $2.00. If the cost would be greater than this amount, Please immediately contact me by telephone or email if you anticipate that the costs will exceed this amount, so as not to cause delay in the prompt disclosure of the records requested. I may appear in person to inspect the documents on scan them using my portable equipment. Please provide a receipt indicating the charges for each document. The Michigan FOIA law provides that, "A fee shall not be charged for the cost of search, examination, review, and the deletion and separation of exempt from nonexempt information as provided in section 14 unless failure to charge a fee would result in unreasonably high costs to the public body because of the nature of the request in the particular instance, and the public body specifically identifies the nature of these unreasonably high costs. MCLA § 15.234(3).

If the documents I have requested are not subject to disclosure in their entirety, I request that you release all nonexempt portions of the documents that may be segregated and all parts of the documents that can be rendered disclosable by redaction without fee. If you determine that any of the requested documents fall within a statutory exemption, I request that you exercise your discretion to disclose those materials because of the overriding public concern about the improper use of government email systems and resources to further political agendas. As to any portion of the documents that you withhold, please state with specificity the legal and factual basis for withholding such portion. To the extent that you are unable to produce copies of or otherwise make available all records requested within the time frame provided, please notify my auditor in writing and provide me with those records that are available within the prescribed time frame and the remainder of the records on a "rolling" basis as they become available for production.

I appreciate your anticipated prompt cooperation and will expect your response within 5 days, as required by the act. If you need further explanation of the details or the nature or scope of this request, please feel free to call me or my designated auditor or attorney specified above using the contact information provided.

Subject: Volunteer Opportunity in Flint

The State Emergency Operations Center (SEOC) is coordinating a response to the ongoing health and safety issues in the city of Flint's drinking water. Teams from the Michigan State Police, Genesee County Sheriff's Department, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, and volunteer organizations have been delivering bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits at homes in the city of Flint since Tuesday.

To help with this critical work, the SEOC is looking for volunteers to expand this effort and continue this distribution during the upcoming holiday weekend. Teams are being assembled for shifts on Saturday, January 16; Sunday, January 17; and Monday, January 18, 2016. If you are interested in volunteering your time for this critical work, please complete the information in one of the attached surveys (depending on which day you are volunteering).

To volunteer on Saturday, January 16, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/28NVJBL

To volunteer on Sunday, January 17, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/26NMJKK

To volunteer on Monday, January 18, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/26P7P5G

Volunteers will begin their assignment at the Local Emergency Operations Center located in the Genesee County Administration Building located at 1101 Beach St, Flint at 9 a.m. and end by 4 p.m. Parking is available at the corner of Beach Street and 8th Street. Lunch will be provided. This is strictly a volunteer effort, as all three days will be unpaid. Volunteers are responsible for their own transportation; mileage reimbursement for personal vehicles is not authorized. Volunteers should dress for working outdoors and wear foot attire appropriate for walking.

This opportunity is for state employees and their immediate family members 16 years of age or older only, others looking to assist should volunteer through the American Red Cross in Flint. The volunteer coordination center for the Red Cross is located at 1401 S. Grand Traverse, Flint, MI. They are open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

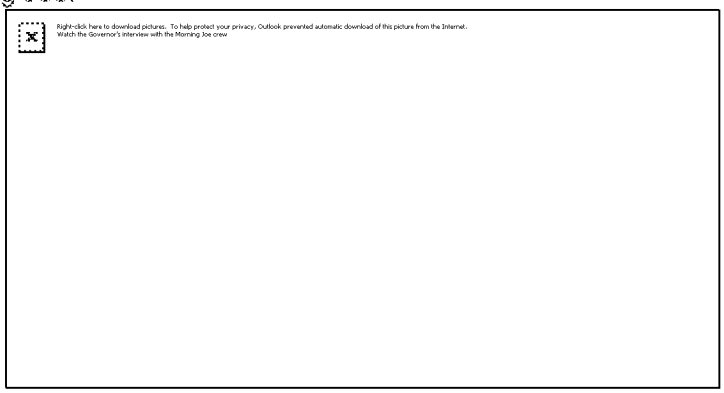
How we are fixing the Flint water crsis

Governor Rick Snyder has committed to spending the rest of his time as Governor to fixing the Flint water crisis. Over the last few days, he has sat down to explain what happened and how we're fixing the Flint water crisis. Watch the interviews below and be sure to read the Governor's Op-Ed in the USA Today.

Governor Snyder on Morning Joe

"What is so frustrating and what makes you so angry is you have a handful of experts who were career civil servants that made terrible decisions, in my view. We have to live with the consequences, and they worked for me, so I accept that responsibility. We are going to fix this problem." Watch Governor Snyder address how we are fixing the Flint water crisis on Morning Joe.



Governor Snyder with Charlie LeDuff on Fox 2 Detroit

"I feel awful about this. These are people. They've been harmed. You can't feel good about that. The people of Flint have been harmed and a major influence of that harm came from people who worked for me, and I feel responsible for that. But I am committed to solving the problem and addressing the damage as much as possible for the rest of the time I'm Governor." Watch Governor Snyder address the Flint water crisis with Charlie LeDuff on Fox 2 News.

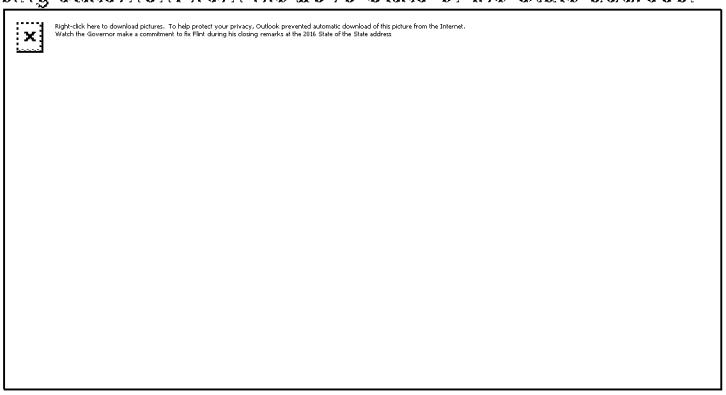
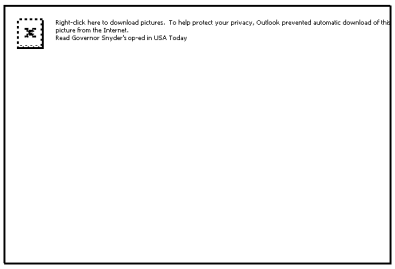
Governor Snyder's 2016 State of the State

"Michiganders don't quit, we don't give up, instead we will work with even more passion and commitment to truly improve our state. For everyone who's chosen to make Michigan their home, this is more than a promise, this is my commitment." Watch Governor Snyder's full closing statement from his 2016 State of the State address.



Governor in USA Today: "I will fix this, and I mean it."



"Residents in one of Michigan's proud cities cannot drink their water. That's unacceptable. The crisis in Flint arose from missteps at all levels of government — local, state and federal. But as governor, I take responsibility for what these families are going through, and I'm holding people in my administration accountable for their failures." Washington Post: "Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder is in a tough spot, but he's his own best spokesman"

Snyder has born the brunt of criticism in the local health crisis that has turned into a national scandal. But unlike many other politicians facing crises of leadership, Snyder may also be his own best counter-programming. Click here to read the full story in the Washington Post.

THANK YOU!

Fellow employees,

Each day, more than 46,000 state of Michigan employees come to work with the confidence and commitment to make Michigan a better place to live, work and play. I appreciate the way you care about the citizens we serve, and how it is reflected in the work that you do.

As you have heard from me and the media, our reputation and trust can be severely impacted when people do not make good decisions, or use good judgment in solving problems. That principle is universal, but never more so than when public health is at stake. What happened in Flint can never be allowed to happen again anywhere in our state.

I know that you want to work in a place where employee input is valued, efforts are recognized, and teams are always striving for continuous improvement. That's why we introduced employee surveys, Bureaucracy Busters and other reinvention initiatives. We want and deserve a culture of innovation, continuous improvement and employee engagement at every level. We can never take for granted how important the people are who depend on us to do our jobs, and I am asking you not to let the situation in Flint negatively impact your motivation to excel every day.

Many of you have taken an interest in helping the citizens of Flint on your own time, and I'd like to take this opportunity to recognize and thank those who have volunteered over the last couple of weekends. You have worked tirelessly to deliver cases of bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits to the families in need. I appreciate you donating your time to help our fellow Michiganders. To date, more than 37,000 homes have been visited by one of our water resource teams.

For employees who would like to further help the people of Flint, please visit www.HelpForFlint.com to learn how you can do so. For additional information and to sign up for daily updates, please visit www.mi.gov/FlintWater. I am committed to ensuring that all residents have access to safe and clean water.

Again, I'd like to express my gratitude for the work you do every day to continuously improve our state and earn the trust of those you serve. You make a real difference.

Thanks,

Governor Rick Snyder

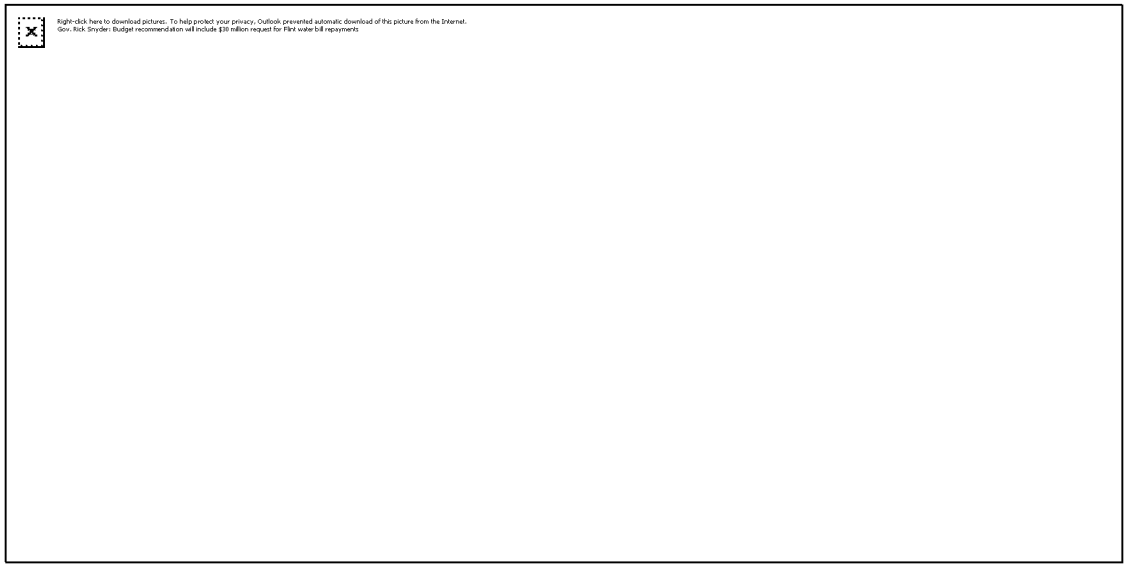
Budget recommendation will include $30 million request for Flint water bill repayments



When Governor Rick Snyder presents his budget recommendation next Wednesday, Feb. 10, he will include a $30 million request for the residents of Flint to keep their water service on and eliminate the need to pay for water they cannot completely trust to drink.

Under the governor's ask, the funding would enable the city of Flint to apply credits for customers on future bills. Estimates show water is roughly 47 percent of billing and sewer costs are around 53 percent. The credit would be applied to consumption usage (roughly 65 percent) of a resident's water portion of the bill, such as for bathing, drinking, cooking, and washing your hands. Residents still would be responsible for paying the sewer portion of their water bills.

Professor Marc Edwards of Virginia Tech said, "This essentially refunds all the money associated with consumption or consumer use. I think it's an amazing gesture of common sense and good will and it corrects an injustice. I don't think there's a precedent for this. I feel so encouraged by the direction this is going."

Click here to learn more about the budget request.

Gov. Rick Snyder's FY 2017 budget calls for critical investments for the Flint water crisis, statewide infrastructure and the Detroit Public Schools. The governor's recommendation also addresses the skyrocketing costs of specialty medications that Michigan residents depend on for better health outcomes.

This budget also stays committed to the Governor's core statewide priorities of education, talent and economic development, health and human services, and public safety.

The proposed FY 2017 budget makes key investments to strengthen the state for all of

A few years ago we had business cards printed with "New Materials Evaluation" as the name on the card. This card also had the scanning symbol on the back that went with a URL. Hopefully you still have this information in your files.

We now need a phone number included on this card – 517/322-5665.

Please update this card and print more copies.

Dear Resident,

From previous contact with the Flint Water Response Team, you have been identified as a home that indicated you would be willing to participate in follow up sampling and monitoring of your water quality.

We stopped by today to discuss additional sampling, check your plumbing and coordinate with you on sampling protocols.

If you would still like to participate, and we hope you do, please call the Environmental Assistance Center at 1-800-662-9278 and we will find a time that works for you to have us stop back at your home.

Thank you,

All –

You may have received a meeting invitation for a mandatory meeting tomorrow afternoon. This is mandatory and you should call in to the conference line. You do not need to physically attend.

Your name was provided in response to a request for a list of employees who may have received email(s) with a slew of key words, including; Flint, Genesee County, lead, water and more. There is no timeframe associated with the request, therefore, we must be responsive, although our emails were a result of the printing needs resulting from the crisis.

Let me know if you have questions or need more information.

DRINKING WATER LEAD AND COPPER SAMPLING INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for helping to monitor for lead and copper in your drinking water.

It is important that you follow these instructions so we obtain an accurate measurement of the lead and copper in your drinking water.

Do not open the bottle until instructed in step 3. Do not touch the inside of cap or bottle.

1. The water in the house must not have been used for a minimum of six (6) hours prior to sampling. The best times to sample are early morning or after returning from work. Do not flush the sample tap before sample collection.

2. Select a cold water faucet in the KITCHEN or BATHROOM that is commonly used for drinking and has been used within the last 24 hours. No other faucets are acceptable for collection. If the faucet is connected to a faucet mount filter, water softener, iron filter or reverse osmosis system, etc. the treatment device must be removed or bypassed.

When was the faucet last used before sampling? Date _____ TIME _____ AM/PM

Is there a faucet-mount filter? ☐ YES ☐ NO If YES, was it bypassed? ☐ YES ☐ NO

Is this faucet connected to a home treatment device such as a water softener, a reverse osmosis unit, an iron removal device OR is any kind of additive used in the home? ☐ YES ☐ NO

If YES, please describe: _____

If YES, was it bypassed? ☐ YES ☐ NO

3. Open sample bottle and place below the faucet and gently open the COLD water tap. If you have a single handle faucet, turn it fully to the COLD side. Fill the sample bottle to within an inch of the top with the "first draw" of COLD water.

4. Tightly cap the sample bottle

If any plumbing repairs or replacement has been done in the home since the previous sampling event, please note this information here:

If YES, please describe: _____

5. Fill out the collection information on the front, answer the questions below and sign the form.

6. Attach this form to the bottle and return it to either Flint City Hall or the Flint Water Plant.

7. Thank you again for your help. We will send you your individual results within 30 days of receiving them from the laboratory. A summary of information on this year's lead and copper monitoring will be printed in the annual water quality report that will be made available by July 1 of this year. Contact your water supply if you have questions.

If you have any questions contact:

City of Flint Water Plant 4500 N. Dort Hwy. Phone: 810-787-6537 ext. 3501

I have read the Drinking Water Lead and Copper Sampling Instructions and have taken a tap sample in accordance with these directions.

Hi Mark –

Per our conversation today, the attached documents are needed by 11:30 AM Monday morning - to hand out at the governor's press conference.

Attachments:
#1 Flint Palm Card – need 10,000 total, but 6,000 must have at 11:30 (card we discussed)
#2 Church Cards – need 500 on yellow card stock (no cutting needed)
#3 FD Cards – need 2,000 printed on blue card stock (no cutting needed)

I will have one more of the Palm Card (Spanish version) that we will need 5,000 copies. This will be sent to you in the morning.

If you have any questions, please let me know. Thank you for all of your help!

Subject: Volunteer Opportunity in Flint

The State Emergency Operations Center (SEOC) is coordinating a response to the ongoing health and safety issues in the city of Flint's drinking water. Teams from the Michigan State Police, Genesee County Sheriff's Department, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, and volunteer organizations have been delivering bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits at homes in the city of Flint since Tuesday.

To help with this critical work, the SEOC is looking for volunteers to expand this effort and continue this distribution during the upcoming holiday weekend. Teams are being assembled for shifts on Saturday, January 16; Sunday, January 17; and Monday, January 18, 2016. If you are interested in volunteering your time for this critical work, please complete the information in one of the attached surveys (depending on which day you are volunteering).

To volunteer on Saturday, January 16, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/28NVJBL

To volunteer on Sunday, January 17, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/26NMJKK

To volunteer on Monday, January 18, https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/26P7P5G

Volunteers will begin their assignment at the Local Emergency Operations Center located in the Genesee County Administration Building located at 1101 Beach St, Flint at 9 a.m. and end by 4 p.m. Parking is available at the corner of Beach Street and 8th Street. Lunch will be provided. This is strictly a volunteer effort, as all three days will be unpaid. Volunteers are responsible for their own transportation; mileage reimbursement for personal vehicles is not authorized. Volunteers should dress for working outdoors and wear foot attire appropriate for walking.

This opportunity is for state employees and their immediate family members 16 years of age or older only, others looking to assist should volunteer through the American Red Cross in Flint. The volunteer coordination center for the Red Cross is located at 1401 S. Grand Traverse, Flint, MI. They are open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

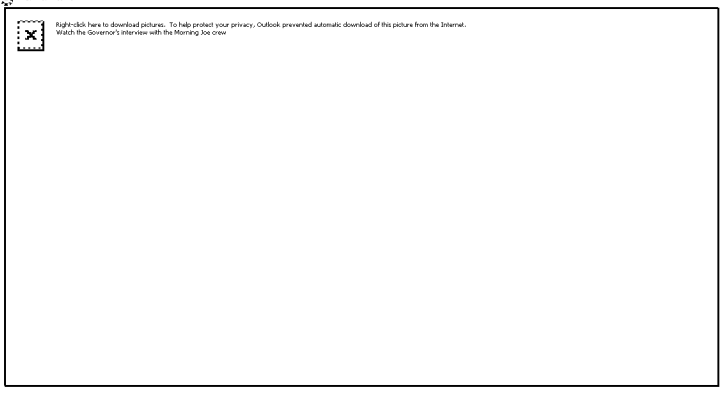
How we are fixing the Flint water crsis

Governor Rick Snyder has committed to spending the rest of his time as Governor to fixing the Flint water crisis. Over the last few days, he has sat down to explain what happened and how we're fixing the Flint water crisis. Watch the interviews below and be sure to read the Governor's Op-Ed in the USA Today.

Governor Snyder on Morning Joe

"What is so frustrating and what makes you so angry is you have a handful of experts who were career civil servants that made terrible decisions, in my view. We have to live with the consequences, and they worked for me, so I accept that responsibility. We are going to fix this problem." Watch Governor Snyder address how we are fixing the Flint water crisis on Morning Joe.



Governor Snyder with Charlie LeDuff on Fox 2 Detroit

"I feel awful about this. These are people. They've been harmed. You can't feel good about that. The people of Flint have been harmed and a major influence of that harm came from people who worked for me, and I feel responsible for that. But I am committed to solving the problem and addressing the damage as much as possible for the rest of the time I'm Governor." Watch Governor Snyder address the Flint water crisis with Charlie LeDuff on Fox 2 News.

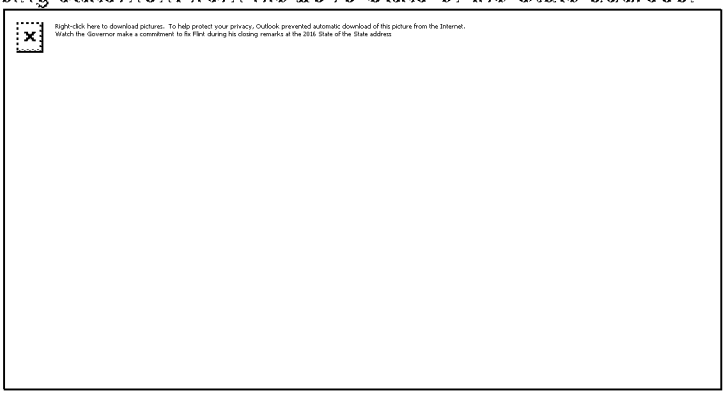
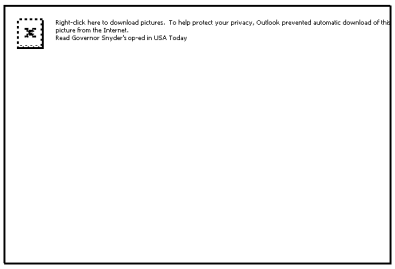
Governor Snyder's 2016 State of the State

"Michiganders don't quit, we don't give up, instead we will work with even more passion and commitment to truly improve our state. For everyone who's chosen to make Michigan their home, this is more than a promise, this is my commitment." Watch Governor Snyder's full closing statement from his 2016 State of the State address.



Governor in USA Today: "I will fix this, and I mean it."



"Residents in one of Michigan's proud cities cannot drink their water. That's unacceptable. The crisis in Flint arose from missteps at all levels of government — local, state and federal. But as governor, I take responsibility for what these families are going through, and I'm holding people in my administration accountable for their failures." Click here to read the Governor's full op-ed.

Washington Post: "Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder is in a tough spot, but he's his own best spokesman"

Snyder has born the brunt of criticism in the local health crisis that has turned into a national scandal. But unlike many other politicians facing crises of leadership, Snyder may also be his own best counter-programming. Click here to read the full story in the Washington Post.

Dear State Employees,

Gov. Rick Snyder and I want to thank everyone who donated their time during the holiday weekend to deliver bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits to families in the city of Flint. We are working hard to ensure all residents are provided with the safe water resources they need, and each donation and hour of your time volunteered goes a long way.

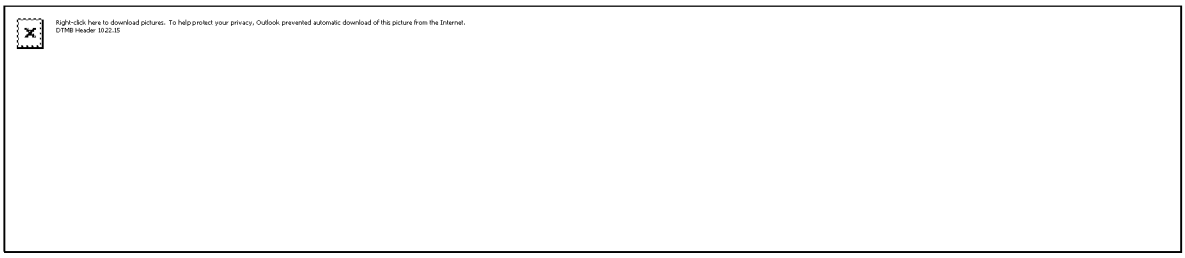
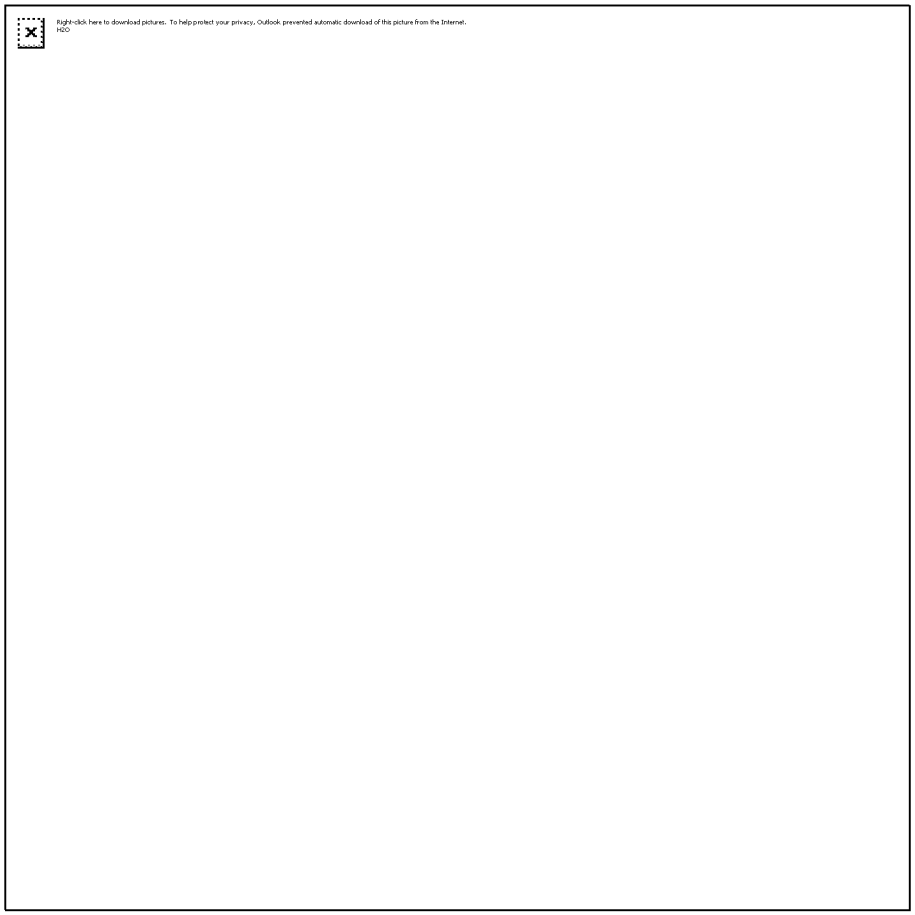
Subject: Contributing time, muscle and money



During this month's Martin Luther King Jr. holiday weekend, some state employees turned their "day off" into a "day on" in Flint. There, they delivered bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits to families. The volunteers joined other Michiganders, turning Dr. King's birthday observance into a day of service.



Mike Zimmer, director of the Office of Good Government and the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, has shared a link – www.helpforflint.com – that offers other opportunities to contribute time, muscle and money to bring clean drinking water to the community.Here in DTMB, some of our employees didn't wait for an invitation to lend a hand. Office of Retirement Services staff contributed funds that were used to buy 31 cases and 23 gallons of water, which a local organization transported to Flint.

Now work.

Last week, I signed a new policy that formalizes the annual employee review process and sets expectations for employees and managers. Administrative Policy 200.37 establishes consistent standards for implementing performance plans and reviews. Some of the standards are practices we have followed for years. Others are new. Some of particular note include:

- The mandatory use of HRMN
- A standard Feb. 1-Jan. 31 rating period for all employees
- An Individual Development Plan that specifies training or development programs for each employee
- Competencies and objectives that align to DTMB goals or scorecard metrics
- Consequences for managers and supervisors who do not complete the review process as required

A fundamental role of each DTMB manager or supervisor is to provide employees with direction and feedback on their performance. Employees also are expected to take an active role in pursuing professional development opportunities and achieving their competencies and objectives. I encourage you to review the new policy and talk with your manager or supervisor if you have questions. Of course, I welcome your questions and input as well. Please send your comments and ideas to me at behend@michigan.gov.

I know these have been busy weeks for many of you as you take on additional responsibilities and work hard to provide resources and services for our customers and citizens across the state. Please know that your hard work has not gone unnoticed. Thank you for everything you do, every day.

Have a great week,

David

Frequently Asked Questions About Lead in Flint Water

MDHHS Michigan Department of Health & Human Services

- Lead is hard to avoid completely. It can be found in old paint, water pipes and brass water faucets, in dirt, at some job sites, and in metal used for some hobbies.
- The amount of lead found in some Flint homes' drinking water could affect kids' health.
  - Even small amounts of lead can harm kids' health because they are little and still growing.
  - Adults are less likely to be harmed by the levels found in the water.
- Filter your drinking water using a NSF-approved filter.
  - Find a NSF-approved filter at http://www.gchd.us/docs/lead_filter_information.pdf.
  - If you use City of Flint water, you can call 211 to find out where you can pick up a free water filter.
- Some filters can remove up to 99% of the lead in water when used properly. To be sure your filter is removing as much lead as it can, carefully follow the instructions that came with it.
  - Change the filter cartridge as often as you should.
  - Run only cold water through the filter.
- Even after changes to the water system, it may take a while before lead levels in your home's water drop. Use the tips below to know when it's best to use filtered water:

Lead in Water

Although your water may be a different color sometimes, it is not caused by lead. It's important to remember:

- You can't see, smell, or taste lead in water.
- Lead won't change the color of your water.
- The only way to know what your home's lead levels are is by having your water tested in a lab.

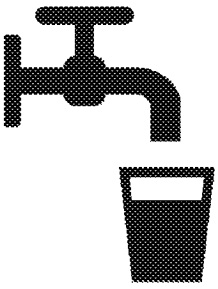
Please call the Flint Water Department at 810-787-6537 to request a free or low-cost water test.

In The Kitchen



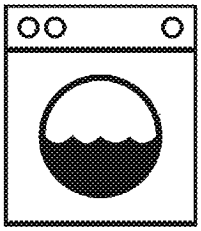
Use filtered tap water for:

- Drinking (including making coffee, drink mixes, juice, baby formula)
- Cooking (even if you boil the water, the lead will stay in the water and food)
- Washing fruits and vegetables

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Washing your hands
- Washing dishes
- Wiping down countertops

Cleaning



You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Mopping floors
- Washing clothes

Your washing machine and dryer won't put lead from the water into the air of your home.

In the Bathroom

Use filtered tap water for:

- Brushing kids' teeth

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Showers
- Baths (don't let kids drink the water as they play in the tub)
- Brushing your teeth (if you are an adult)

Lead will not cause rashes or other skin problems. However, if chlorine levels or other cleaners are high in the water, it may cause itchy or dry skin (similar to what can happen when you swim in a pool).

Caring for Pets

Use filtered tap water for:

- Pets' water bowls

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

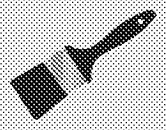
- Baths

If you notice your pet acting differently than normal, please contact your vet.

Other Sources of Lead in Your Home



Lead Paint

- Homes built before 1978 likely have lead paint, both inside and outside.
- Old paint is the most common way that kids are exposed to lead.

Dirt

- If you live in the city, there may be lead in the dirt outside your home.
- Before 1996, gas and the exhaust from cars contained lead. More lead will be found in dirt in busy traffic areas.

Dust

- The dust in your home can contain tiny amounts of both the paint and the dirt that contain lead.

Hobbies & Jobs

- Solder, fishing sinkers, bullets, and stained glass framing materials are some of the items in your home that may contain lead. You could also track home lead dust from your job site.

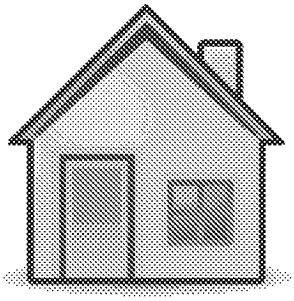
What can you do to keep your home lead-safe?

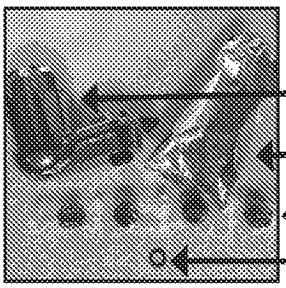
- Homes built before 1987 are more likely to have lead service lines and pipes. Some faucets and certain kinds of solder could also have lead in them, even those installed recently.
- The lead found in tap water in homes around Michigan is likely from these older pipes, solder, and faucets. You can have your water tested to see if it has lead in it. Call 211 to find out which City of Flint locations have free water test kits.
- Replacing old pipes, service lines, and faucets is the best way to limit the lead in your tap water. New pipes, solder, and faucets should meet EPA lead-free standards.



- If you can't replace your pipes and faucets, please use an NSF-approved filter for all water that you drink or cook with. You can get a filter that attaches to your sink faucet or you can use a pitcher with a filter inside it.
- If you live in Flint, call 211 to find out where you can get a free faucet filter, replacement filter cartridges, or a water filter pitcher.
    - To be NSF-approved, filters have to show that they can take water that has up to 150 ppb (parts per billion) of lead in it and put out water that has 10 ppb or less for you to drink.
    - Please get your unfiltered tap water tested to be sure your water lead levels are less than 150 ppb.
    - Use a filter anyway until you know what your water lead levels are. The lead levels may not be the same from each faucet in your home. Only drink from the faucets you test.
    - If your water levels come back higher than 150 ppb, call 211 and ask to talk to a public health official.

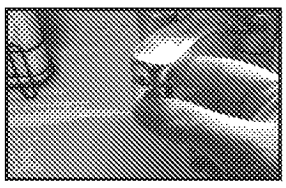
Installing a PUR Water Filter on your Kitchen Faucet

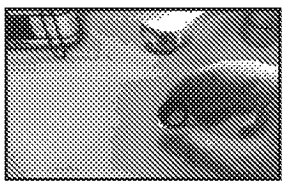
1.



- When you open your filter box, you should see several things inside:
    - the filter unit that will be attached to your sink
    - the filter cartridge in a wrapper
    - the adapters for your faucet (you'll only need one of these)
    - and a rubber gasket

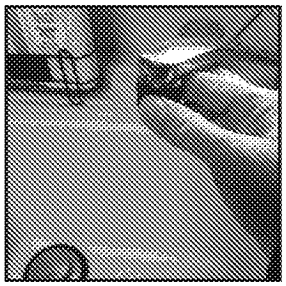
2.





- Remove the aerator that is on your sink faucet now.

3.



- Try the adapters to see which one will screw on your sink faucet. The directions say to start with Option A (the letters on are on the plastic wrapper), because it fits most sinks.
- Once you find the right fit, put the rubber gasket into the adapter. Screw the adapter on to the faucet.

- Next, unscrew the cap of your filter unit.
- If there is an old filter cartridge already inside, pull it out. It should pull straight up. You may have to wiggle it a little bit to loosen it.
- Throw away the old filter cartridge in your trash. They can't be recycled.

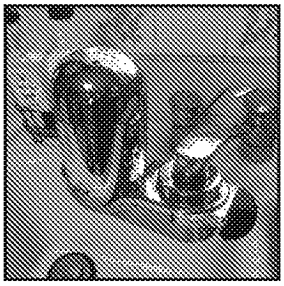
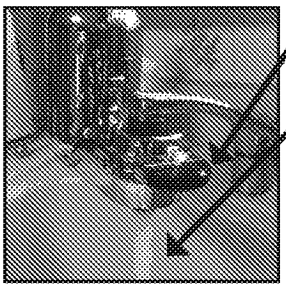
- Unwrap your new filter cartridge.
- Drop the filter cartridge into the filter unit. The "Front" arrow should point to the Pur logo on the front of your filter unit.
- Screw the cap back onto the unit. This will push the filter cartridge down.

6.



- Holding the filter with the cartridge to the left of your faucet, push the filter onto the adapter until you hear a click.
- The filter should now be stuck on your faucet.

7.



The black piece on the side turns. When it is flat, you are using the bypass. This means you are NOT using the filter.

The water will come out fast and directly under the faucet when you're using the bypass.

- You can run warm or cold water through the bypass. Do NOT run warm water through the filter.
- You can use the bypass water for washing - including dishes, countertops, and your hands. This is safe even when there is some lead in the water.

When the black piece is facing down, you are using the filter.

The water will come out slowly from the left side of the filter.

- Only run COLD water through the filter.
- The first time you use your filter, run the water for 5 minutes.
- Any other time you use the filter, run water through the filter for 5 seconds before using the water.

Each time you turn on the filter, a light will flash on the front for about 30 seconds.

- GREEN - the filter is working.
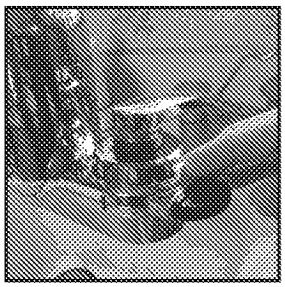
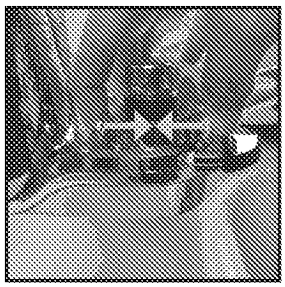
- YELLOW - the filter is working, but you should go pick up a new filter cartridge soon so you have one ready when the light turns red. Call 211 to find out where to get a free filter cartridge.
- RED - it is time to change your filter cartridge. Go to step #4 again.

10.





- If you need to remove the filter unit for any reason, there is a quick release option.
- There are small white buttons on each side of the adaptor area. Squeeze them in at the same time and the filter unit will come right off.
- To put the filter unit back on, see step #6.

If you live in the City of Flint and need a free water filter, replacement cartridge, or filter pitcher, call 211.

To get a free or low-cost water test, go to the Flint City Hall, call 211, or call the Flint Water Plant at 1-810-787-6537.

Other questions? Call MDHHS at 1-800-648-6942

If you live outside of the City of Flint and are interested in buying a filter that will protect you and your family from lead and other chemicals that may be in your water:

Check the filter box to make sure it:

- Removes metals - including lead and mercury
- Has been NSF-approved. Look for this symbol on the box.

Should You Use Filtered or Unfiltered Water?

In The Kitchen

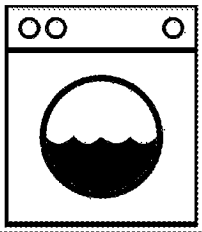
Use filtered tap water for:

- Drinking (including making coffee, drink mixes, juice, baby formula)
- Cooking (even if you boil the water, the lead will stay in the water and food)
- Washing fruits and vegetables

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Washing your hands*
- Washing dishes
- Wiping down countertops

Cleaning



You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Mopping floors
- Washing clothes

Your washing machine and dryer won't put lead from the water into the air of your home. Lead won't soak into your skin from the cloth.

In the Bathroom

Use filtered tap water for:

- Brushing kids' teeth

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Showers*
- Baths (don't let kids drink the water as they play in the tub)*
- Brushing your teeth (if you are an adult)

Lead is not known to cause rashes or other skin problems.

Caring for Pets

Use filtered tap water for:

- Pets' water bowls

You can use unfiltered tap water for:

- Baths

If you notice your pet acting differently than normal, please contact your vet.

PREGNANT AND NURSING MOTHERS

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT LEAD POISONING

What causes lead poisoning?

There are many factors that can put a pregnant woman or nursing mother at risk for lead poisoning.

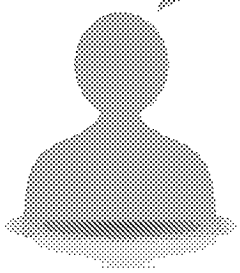
In Michigan, lead paint is still the #1 cause of lead poisoning. It is often found in homes built before 1978 and the older the home, the more likely that painted surfaces like windows, cupboards, doors and porches will contain lead paint.

Other sources of exposure may include soil and water or jobs and hobbies using lead such as factory work, soldering, ammunitions or jewelry making. Some pottery glazes, imported spices and home remedies may also contain lead.

Should I get tested?

Routine blood testing is NOT recommended for all pregnant women or nursing mothers. Talk to your doctor or local health department to learn more.

If I test positive for lead poisoning, can I continue to breastfeed?



In most cases, breastfeeding is safe. However, if your blood lead level goes above 40 ug/dl or your level is greater than 20 ug/dl and your baby has a level above 5 ug/dl, you should talk with your doctor about continuing to breastfeed.

Childhood LEAD POISONING prevention program

What can I do to protect myself from lead?

- Wash hands, bottles, pacifiers and toys often.
- Always take off shoes before going into the house.
- Flush your pipes before drinking, and only use cold water for drinking or mixing formula. Flush pipes by running the water for approximately 5 minutes.
- Watch your diet carefully. Foods high in calcium and iron help keep lead from being absorbed by your body.
- Avoid using power sanders, open-flame torches, heat guns, dry scrapers and dry sandpaper on painted surfaces.
- Fix peeling or chipping paint.
- Use a certified Repair and Remodeling Professional when making updates to your home.
- Practice safe cleaning methods.

Frequently Asked Questions About Lead & Your Body

MDHHS Michigan Department of Health & Human Services

Pregnant Woman

If you are exposed to lead when pregnant, the lead can be passed on to your fetus, possibly causing:

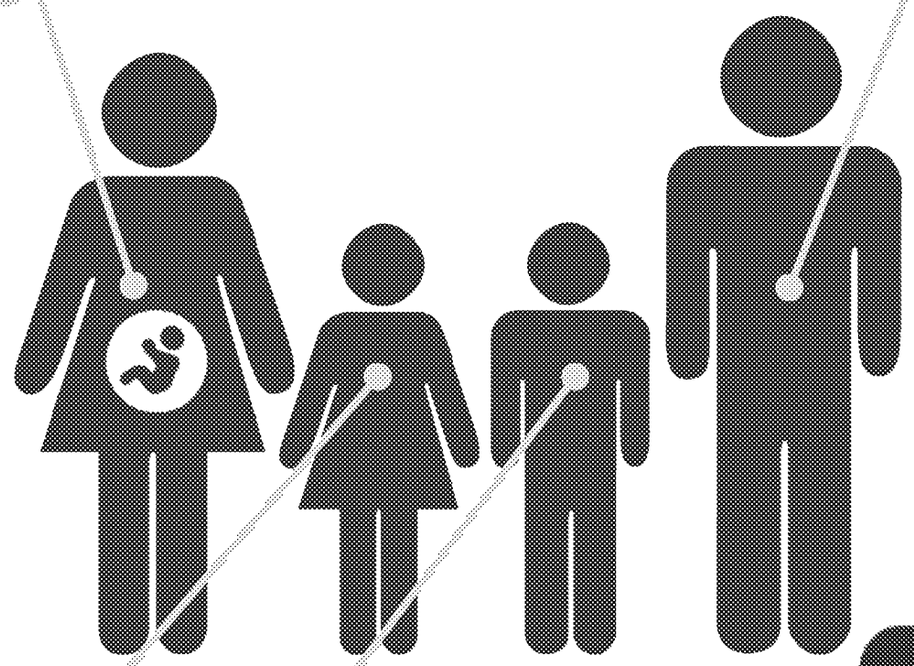
- premature birth
- a smaller baby
- learning difficulties
- slower growth in young kids

Healthy Adult

You are at lower risk of health problems from small amounts of lead.

Most health problems that come from lead in adults are because they are exposed to a lot of it at their job - whether they are in painting or construction or work at a factory where lead is used in a product.

If you work with lead, you should have regular blood tests to make sure you're not getting too much into your body.



Kids

Even small amounts of lead can harm kids' health. Your doctor can do a simple blood test to find out if your child has been exposed to lead. Some possible signs of lead poisoning include:

- a bad stomachache
- muscle weakness
- paleness (caused by anemia)

Over time lead can affect a kid's

- brain development
- growth rate

How Does Lead Get Into Your Body?

Eating and breathing lead dust is the most common way lead gets into your body.

- When kids accidentally eat lead, up to 50% can be absorbed into their bodies, compared to 3 to 10% for adults. This is why protecting kids from even small amounts of lead is important.

Lead does not absorb into your skin quickly or at high levels.

- The CDC reviewed a study where a cream with high levels of lead was put on the skin of adults. The cream was left on their skin for 12 hours. The amount of lead that soaked into their skin was very, very small (less than 0.3 percent).
- Taking a shower or bath in water containing lead at levels found in most tap water in Michigan is unlikely to be a problem for anyone, including kids.

If you think you or your children have been exposed to lead, please talk to your doctor or health department about getting a simple blood test to measure how much lead might be in your body.

For more information on protecting yourself and your family from lead, please visit: www.michigan.gov/lead, or you can call the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services at 1-800-648-6942. We will help direct you to the best department that can answer your questions about lead in your home.

You can also call the Flint Water Department at 810-787-6537 to request a free or low-cost water test.
If you use City of Flint water, you can call 211 to find out where you can pick up a free NSF-approved water filter.

THANK YOU!

Fellow employees,

Each day, more than 46,000 state of Michigan employees come to work with the confidence and commitment to make Michigan a better place to live, work and play. I appreciate the way you care about the citizens we serve, and how it is reflected in the work that you do.

As you have heard from me and the media, our reputation and trust can be severely impacted when people do not make good decisions, or use good judgment in solving problems. That principle is universal, but never more so than when public health is at stake. What happened in Flint can never be allowed to happen again anywhere in our state.

I know that you want to work in a place where employee input is valued, efforts are recognized, and teams are always striving for continuous improvement. That's why we introduced employee surveys, Bureaucracy Busters and other reinvention initiatives. We want and deserve a culture of innovation, continuous improvement and employee engagement at every level. We can never take for granted how important the people are who depend on us to do our jobs, and I am asking you not to let the situation in Flint negatively impact your motivation to excel every day.

Many of you have taken an interest in helping the citizens of Flint on your own time, and I'd like to take this opportunity to recognize and thank those who have volunteered over the last couple of weekends. You have worked tirelessly to deliver cases of bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits to the families in need. I appreciate you donating your time to help our fellow Michiganders. To date, more than 37,000 homes have been visited by one of our water resource teams.

For employees who would like to further help the people of Flint, please visit www.HelpForFlint.com to learn how you can do so. For additional information and to sign up for daily updates, please visit www.mi.gov/FlintWater. I am committed to ensuring that all residents have access to safe and clean water.

Again, I'd like to express my gratitude for the work you do every day to continuously improve our state and earn the trust of those you serve. You make a real difference.

Thanks,

Governor Rick Snyder

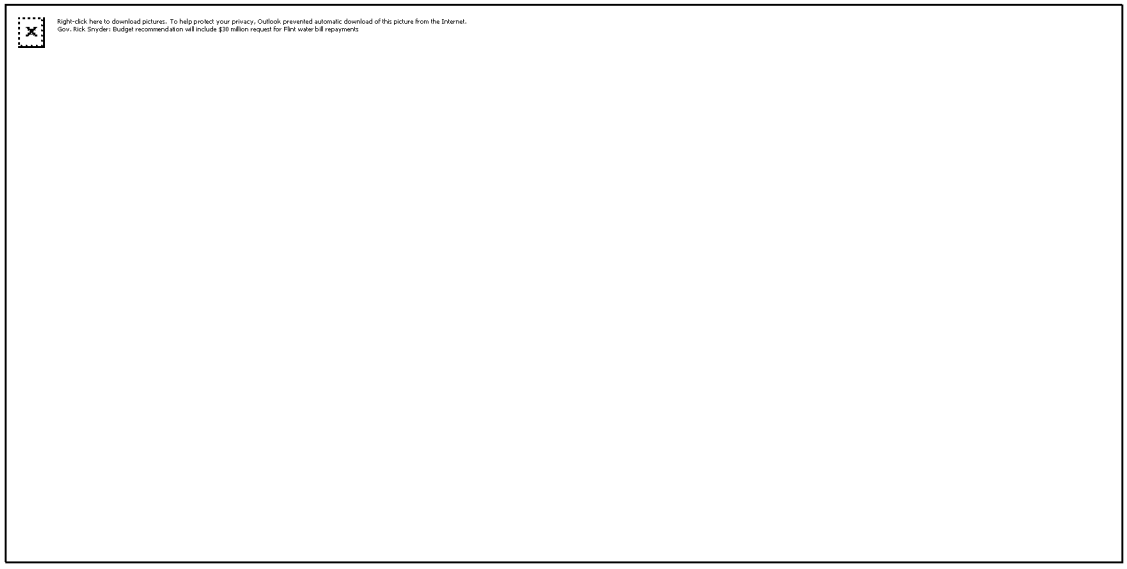
Budget recommendation will include $30 million request for Flint water bill repayments



When Governor Rick Snyder presents his budget recommendation next Wednesday, Feb. 10, he will include a $30 million request for the residents of Flint to keep their water service on and eliminate the need to pay for water they cannot completely trust to drink.

Under the governor's ask, the funding would enable the city of Flint to apply credits for customers on future bills. Estimates show water is roughly 47 percent of billing and sewer costs are around 53 percent. The credit would be applied to consumption usage (roughly 65 percent) of a resident's water portion of the bill, such as for bathing, drinking, cooking, and washing your hands. Residents still would be responsible for paying the sewer portion of their water bills.

Professor Marc Edwards of Virginia Tech said, "This essentially refunds all the money associated with consumption or consumer use. I think it's an amazing gesture of common sense and good will and it corrects an injustice. I don't think there's a precedent for this. I feel so encouraged by the direction this is going."

Gov. Rick Snyder's FY 2017 budget calls for critical investments for the Flint water crisis, statewide infrastructure and the Detroit Public Schools. The governor's recommendation also addresses the skyrocketing costs of specialty medications that Michigan residents depend on for better health outcomes.

This budget also stays committed to the Governor's core statewide priorities of education, talent and economic development, health and human services, and public safety.

The proposed FY 2017 budget makes key investments to strengthen the state for all of Michigan's families. Click here to learn more about the top 6 takeaways from the

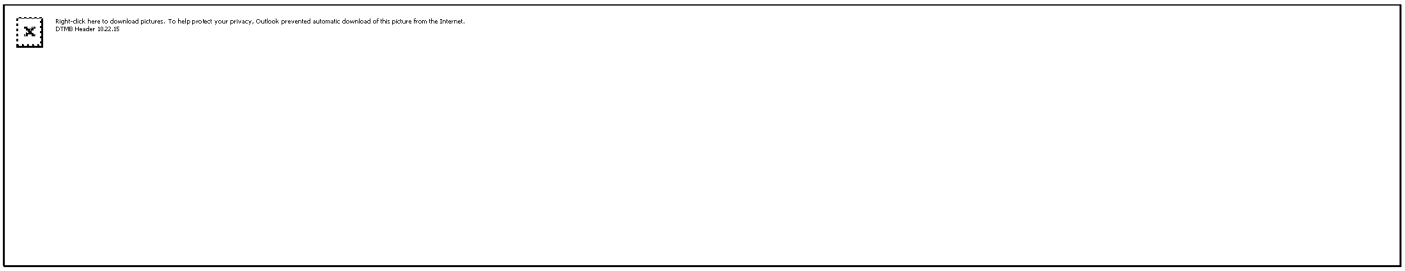
Subject: The Gov. Snyder's Budget Proposal



Good morning everyone. I hope everyone had a great holiday weekend.

I had the good fortune to travel to Marquette on Monday with Chad Laidlaw, DTMB's policy and planning analyst, to meet with city, business and university leaders and to address the Economic Club of Marquette. I told them about the many things DTMB does, placing special emphasis on our work in mobility and cybersecurity. Marquette is really developing and making its mark as an innovative and entrepreneurial community.

Now work.

The executive budget Gov. Snyder presented last week outlined his investment plan for Michigan. Yes, the proposal for fiscal year 2017-18 outlined a strategy to address the critical challenges of addressing the Flint water crisis and turning around Detroit's Public Schools, but the $54.9 billion plan also includes investment in four key areas:

- Education. The budget increases investment to K-12 schools, community colleges and the state's public universities. Additional funds are proposed to expand career, technical, science, technology, engineering and math programs.
- Protecting the Public. The governor's plan expands the Secure Cities program, which has reduced violent crime in four major Michigan cities. Funds also would support an additional trooper recruit school and an academy to train corrections officers, among other initiatives.
- Putting People First. The governor recommends continued expansion of the Healthy Kids Dental Program and funding efforts to ensure residents have access to affordable health care. His proposal boosts funds to help cover new higher cost specialty medications to treat conditions such as hepatitis C and cystic fibrosis, among others.
- Investing in Infrastructure. The proposal allocates $1.2 billion to maintain and repair Michigan roads, bridges and other critical infrastructure.

The budget proposal also includes FY 2017-18 funding recommendations for DTMB. Gov. Snyder recommends ongoing funding of $1.3 billion for department operations and a one-time allocation of $32.4 million.

A few highlights include:

- $502 million for information technology support for all state agencies and $132.8 million for 14 high-priority IT projects in seven agencies. He recommends increasing the Information Technology Investment Fund by $7 million, from $65 million to $72 million. This fund supports several major multiyear IT projects and upgrades, including the replacement of outdated legacy systems.
- An additional $5 million to support cybersecurity improvements to safeguard citizens' personal information and protect critical infrastructure and government services.
- IT support of $6.5 million to modernize the Office of Retirement Services' systems and enhance customer service for more than 530,000 current and future retirees.

You can see the full executive budget recommendations, which are posted on the Budget Office website. Details of DTMB's proposed budget begin on page B-75.

We can expect to see many changes before the budgets are signed and become effective Oct. 1. The executive budget will be used by the House and Senate Appropriations Committees as they work on their own budgets and hold committee hearings on the proposals. I'll keep you posted as the process moves ahead.

As always, I welcome your notes, whether about the budget process or any other topic. Please send them to me at behend@michigan.gov.

Thank you again for all the good work you do. I hope you have a great week ahead.

David

STATE OF MICHIGAN

RICK SNYDER
GOVERNOR

LANSING

DIRECTOR

February 17, 2016

TO: All DTMB Custodians of Correspondence Related to Flint

FROM: Jean Ingersoll, Interim Chief of Staff to David B. Behen, Director and CIO

SUBJECT: Flint Document Production – Search Terms and Guidance

In recent months, the State of Michigan has received a number of requests to produce documents related to the water emergency in Flint. You have been identified as a potential custodian of relevant/responsive correspondence and/or documents related to these requests. As a custodian, you are required to produce any documents containing the search terms listed below, no later than Monday, February 22, 2016. This memorandum contains detailed instructions for the process of identifying, compiling, scanning, and copying the necessary information.

Microsoft 365 – Outlook (includes emails, calendar items) and OneDrive

DTMB staff will centrally coordinate the Microsoft 365 search for all of DTMB's custodians. Therefore, DTMB's custodians do not need to independently search any of their Microsoft 365 applications for the search terms listed below.

Network Drives

Similar to the approach outlined above, DTMB staff will centrally coordinate the network drive search effort for all DTMB custodians. Custodians do not need to independently conduct a network drive search for the search terms below.

Non-Network Drives – includes hard drives, desktop, and thumb/flash drives

For all non-network drive types, each custodian will need to search every search term listed below in every non-network format, and move all relevant/related documents in to a network drive for collection. In order to move items to the network, you must be connected to the network.

Start by conducting the search of all non-network drives, filling out the attached search term checklist as you go. If you need guidance as to how to perform this search, a step-by-step guide is included below in Appendix 1.

All relevant/responsive items that are produced as a result of your search need to be moved to a network drive. You can move your relevant/related documents to a network drive in whatever format the document is currently in. After the February 22, 2016, deadline, DTMB staff will access the network drives to collect the files.

Paper Files

Review all applicable paper files. Scan any relevant/related documents, and save them to a network drive, as described above. If this is not possible, you may provide hard copies of documents to Jean Ingersoll in the Director's Office. These documents must be received in the Director's Office by February 22, 2016, and will not be returned to you.

Home Computer

Any relevant e-mails or other documents on a personal computer also are subject to this request. Please check your personal computer for any e-mails or other documents relating to this search. If you discover any relevant/related documents, please include the phrase "personal computer" in the file name, and save them to the aforementioned network drive.

Conclusion

Thank you for your cooperation in complying with this request. Should you have any questions, please contact Jean Ingersoll at 1-8844.

Search Term Checklist

In recent months, the State of Michigan has received a number of requests to produce documents related to the water emergency in Flint. You have been identified as a potential custodian of relevant/responsive correspondence and/or documents related to these requests. As a custodian, you are required to search and copy all items that you identify to a DTMB network drive, as described above.

Please complete your search no later than close of business on Monday, February 22, 2016. Relevant/related items from the past 10 years should be included.

You should search for each term exactly as it is shown below, and include quotation marks around each separate word. For example, "Legionnaire", "Legionella", or "Flint" would all go into search fields. After you complete a search term, check the box beside the term.

Search Terms:

- ☐ "Legionnaire"
- ☐ "Legionella"
- ☐ "boil water order" & "Flint"
- ☐ "coli" & "Flint"
- ☐ "bacteria" & "Flint"
- ☐ "microb" & "Flint"
- ☐ "TTHM" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Lead" & "Flint"
- ☐ "emergency" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Karegnondi"
- ☐ "Genesee County Health Department"
- ☐ "Flint" & "utilities"
- ☐ "Lead and Copper Rule"
- ☐ "Detroit Water and Sewerage Department" & "Flint"
- ☐ "DWSD" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Flint River"
- ☐ "Pb" & "water"
- ☐ "KWA"

Search conducted on the email account of: _____

By (your name): _____

Date completed: _____

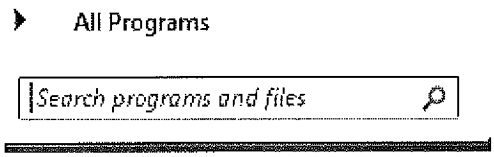
Please return this completed Checklist to DTMB Director's Office staff by February 22, 2016, at DTMB@michigan.gov, or
Directors Office, Cass Building, Second Floor

APPENDIX 1 – Search Guidance

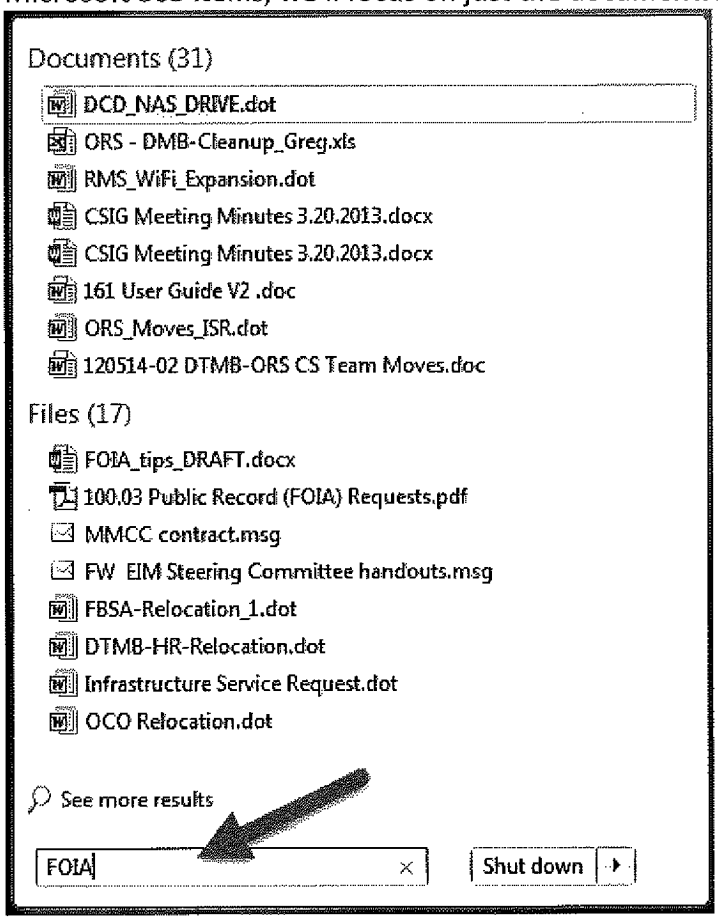
Regardless of what version of Windows you're using, each of them has a search feature built in called "Windows Explorer," you see it every time you open up a folder on a network drive, or on your own computer.

Using the search function in windows 7

Since the majority of DTMB is on Windows 7, the examples below are on that operating system. If you click on windows Start button, you'll see the search box right next to it



This example searches for the word FOIA. As you can see, the search yielded numerous documents including emails. Since DTMB is centrally collecting relevant emails and other Microsoft 365 items, we'll focus on just the documents.



You need to open each document to make sure that it's relevant. In this instance, the search brought up a DTMB Move form, but only because it has the word FOIA in the form.
You'll notice that the words "See more results" appears at the bottom of the list. This means that the search turned up a lot more documents than what can easily be displayed. You must click on the link to open Windows Explorer and reveal a comprehensive list, along with their locations.

As you can see from this example the search found 46 items. We can now select them all using the "Ctrl-A method", and copy them to a network drive.

DAVID B. BEHEN
DIRECTOR

February 17, 2016

TO: All DTMB Custodians of Correspondence Related to Flint

FROM: Jean Ingersoll, Interim Chief of Staff to David B. Behen, Director and CIO

SUBJECT: Flint Document Production – Search Terms and Guidance

In recent months, the State of Michigan has received a number of requests to produce documents related to the water emergency in Flint. You have been identified as a potential custodian of relevant/responsive correspondence and/or documents related to these requests. As a custodian, you are required to produce any documents containing the search terms listed below, no later than Monday, February 22, 2016. This memorandum contains detailed instructions for the process of identifying, compiling, scanning, and copying the necessary information.

DTMB staff will centrally coordinate the Microsoft 365 search for all of DTMB's custodians. Therefore, DTMB's custodians do not need to independently search any of their Microsoft 365 applications for the search terms listed below.

Network Drives

Similar to the approach outlined above, DTMB staff will centrally coordinate the network drive search effort for all DTMB custodians. Custodians do not need to independently conduct a network drive search for the search terms below.

Non-Network Drives – includes hard drives, desktop, and thumb/flash drives

For all non-network drive types, each custodian will need to search every search term listed below in every non-network format, and move all relevant/related documents in to a network drive for collection. In order to move items to the network, you must be connected to the network.

Start by conducting the search of all non-network drives, filling out the attached search term checklist as you go. If you need guidance as to how to perform this search, a step-by-step guide is included below in Appendix 1.

All relevant/responsive items that are produced as a result of your search need to be moved to a network drive. You can move your relevant/related documents to a network drive in whatever format the document is currently in. After the February 22, 2016, deadline, DTMB staff will access the network drives to collect the files.

Paper Files

Review all applicable paper files. Scan any relevant/related documents, and save them to a network drive, as described above. If this is not possible, you may provide hard copies of documents to Jean Ingersoll in the Director's Office. These documents must be received in the Director's Office by February 22, 2016, and will not be returned to you.

Home Computer

Any relevant e-mails or other documents on a personal computer also are subject to this request. Please check your personal computer for any e-mails or other documents relating to this search. If you discover any relevant/related documents, please include the phrase "personal computer" in the file name, and save them to the aforementioned network drive.

Conclusion

Thank you for your cooperation in complying with this request. Should you have any questions, please contact Jean Ingersoll at 1-8844.

Search Term Checklist

In recent months, the State of Michigan has received a number of requests to produce documents related to the water emergency in Flint. You have been identified as a potential custodian of relevant/responsive correspondence and/or documents related to these requests. As a custodian, you are required to search and copy all items that you identify to a DTMB network drive, as described above.

Please complete your search no later than close of business on Monday, February 22, 2016. Relevant/related items from the past 10 years should be included.

You should search for each term exactly as it is shown below, and include quotation marks around each separate word. For example, "Legionnaire", "Legionella", or "Flint" would all go into search fields. After you complete a search term, check the box beside the term.

Search Terms:

- ☐ "Legionnaire"
- ☐ "Legionella"
- ☐ "boil water order" & "Flint"
- ☐ "coli" & "Flint"
- ☐ "bacteria" & "Flint"
- ☐ "microb" & "Flint"
- ☐ "TTHM" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Lead" & "Flint"
- ☐ "emergency" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Karegnondi"
- ☐ "Genesee County Health Department"
- ☐ "Flint" & "utilities"
- ☐ "Lead and Copper Rule"
- ☐ "Detroit Water and Sewerage Department" & "Flint"
- ☐ "DWSD" & "Flint"
- ☐ "Flint River"
- ☐ "Pb" & "water"
- ☐ "KWA"

Search conducted on the email account of: _____

Date completed: _____

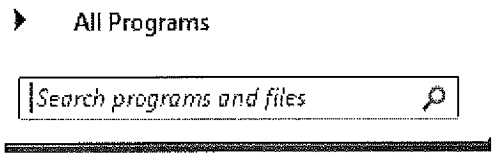
Please return this completed Checklist to DTMB Director's Office staff by February 22, 2016, at DTMB@michigan.gov, or
Directors Office, Cass Building, Second Floor

APPENDIX 1 – Search Guidance

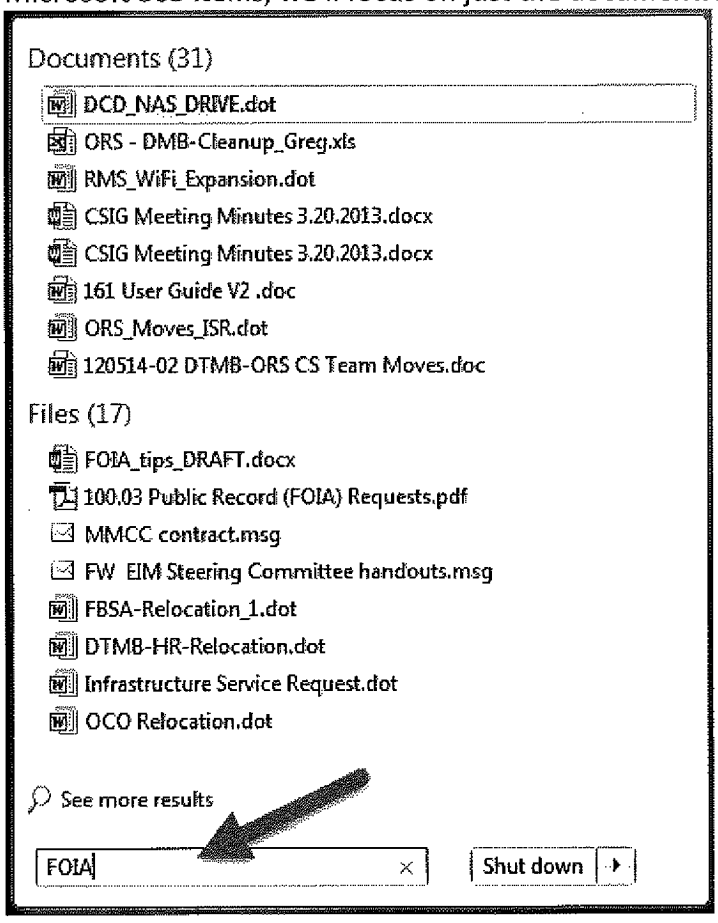
Regardless of what version of Windows you're using, each of them has a search feature built in called "Windows Explorer," you see it every time you open up a folder on a network drive, or on your own computer.

Using the search function in windows 7

Since the majority of DTMB is on Windows 7, the examples below are on that operating system. If you click on windows Start button, you'll see the search box right next to it



This example searches for the word FOIA. As you can see, the search yielded numerous documents including emails. Since DTMB is centrally collecting relevant emails and other Microsoft 365 items, we'll focus on just the documents.



You need to open each document to make sure that it's relevant. In this instance, the search brought up a DTMB Move form, but only because it has the word FOIA in the form.
You'll notice that the words "See more results" appears at the bottom of the list. This means that the search turned up a lot more documents than what can easily be displayed. You must click on the link to open Windows Explorer and reveal a comprehensive list, along with their locations.

As you can see from this example the search found 46 items. We can now select them all using the "Ctrl-A method", and copy them to a network drive.

A few years ago we had business cards printed with "New Materials Evaluation" as the name on the card. This card also had the scanning symbol on the back that went with a URL. Hopefully you still have this information in your files.

We now need a phone number included on this card – 517/322-5665.

Please update this card and print more copies.

THANK YOU!

Fellow employees,

Each day, more than 46,000 state of Michigan employees come to work with the confidence and commitment to make Michigan a better place to live, work and play. I appreciate the way you care about the citizens we serve, and how it is reflected in the work that you do.

As you have heard from me and the media, our reputation and trust can be severely impacted when people do not make good decisions, or use good judgment in solving problems. That principle is universal, but never more so than when public health is at stake. What happened in Flint can never be allowed to happen again anywhere in our state.

I know that you want to work in a place where employee input is valued, efforts are recognized, and teams are always striving for continuous improvement. That's why we introduced employee surveys, Bureaucracy Busters and other reinvention initiatives. We want and deserve a culture of innovation, continuous improvement and employee engagement at every level. We can never take for granted how important the people are who depend on us to do our jobs, and I am asking you not to let the situation in Flint negatively impact your motivation to excel every day.

Many of you have taken an interest in helping the citizens of Flint on your own time, and I'd like to take this opportunity to recognize and thank those who have volunteered over the last couple of weekends. You have worked tirelessly to deliver cases of bottled water, water filters, replacement cartridges and water testing kits to the families in need. I appreciate you donating your time to help our fellow Michiganders. To date, more than 37,000 homes have been visited by one of our water resource teams.

For employees who would like to further help the people of Flint, please visit www.HelpForFlint.com to learn how you can do so. For additional information and to sign up for daily updates, please visit www.mi.gov/FlintWater. I am committed to ensuring that all residents have access to safe and clean water.

Again, I'd like to express my gratitude for the work you do every day to continuously improve our state and earn the trust of those you serve. You make a real difference.

Thanks,

Governor Rick Snyder

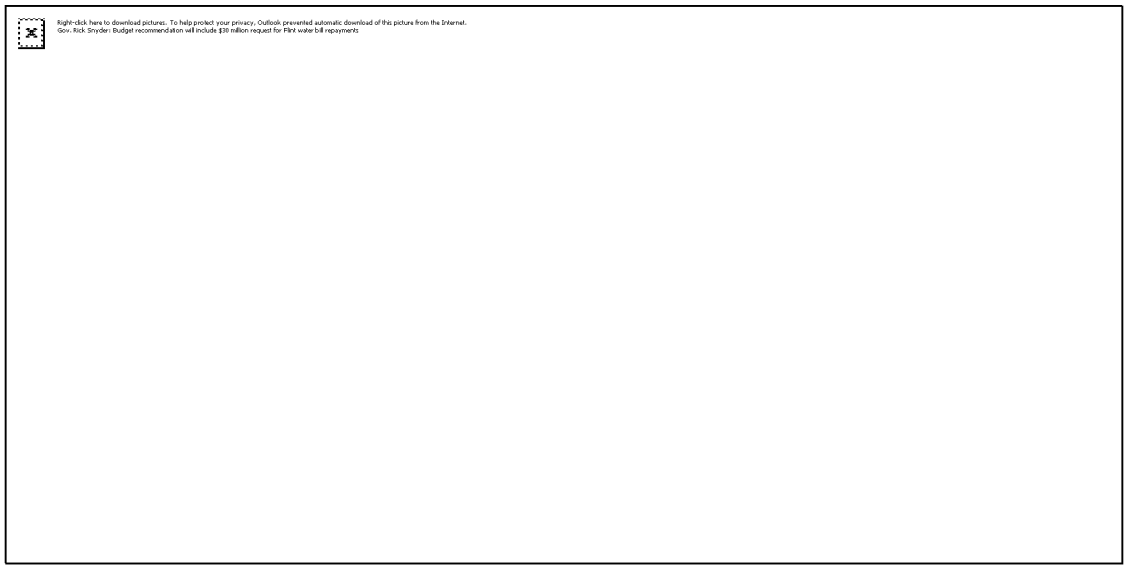
Subject: "Flint residents should not have to pay for water they cannot drink"

Budget recommendation will include $30 million request for Flint water bill repayments



When Governor Rick Snyder presents his budget recommendation next Wednesday, Feb. 10, he will include a $30 million request for the residents of Flint to keep their water service on and eliminate the need to pay for water they cannot completely trust to drink.

Under the governor's ask, the funding would enable the city of Flint to apply credits for customers on future bills. Estimates show water is roughly 47 percent of billing and sewer costs are around 53 percent. The credit would be applied to consumption usage (roughly 65 percent) of a resident's water portion of the bill, such as for bathing, drinking, cooking, and washing your hands. Residents still would be responsible for paying the sewer portion of their water bills.

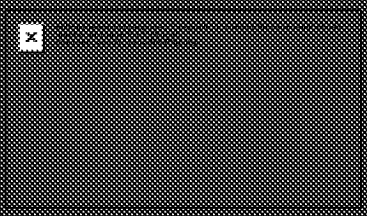
Professor Marc Edwards of Virginia Tech said, "This essentially refunds all the money associated with consumption or consumer use. I think it's an amazing gesture of common sense and good will and it corrects an injustice. I don't think there's a precedent for this. I feel so encouraged by the direction this is going."

Click here to learn more about the budget request.



We spoke with Staff Sgt. Thomas Vega about the critical resources they're providing to Flint families every day. He also encouraged residents to pick up and return their water testing kits to Flint fire stations. Test results will be posted online at www.mi.gov/flintwater. Click here to watch the video.

Gov. Rick Snyder's FY 2017 budget calls for critical investments for the Flint water crisis, statewide infrastructure and the Detroit Public Schools. The governor's recommendation also addresses the skyrocketing costs of specialty medications that Michigan residents depend on for better health outcomes.

This budget also stays committed to the Governor's core statewide priorities of education, talent and economic development, health and human services, and public safety.

The proposed FY 2017 budget makes key investments to strengthen the state for all of

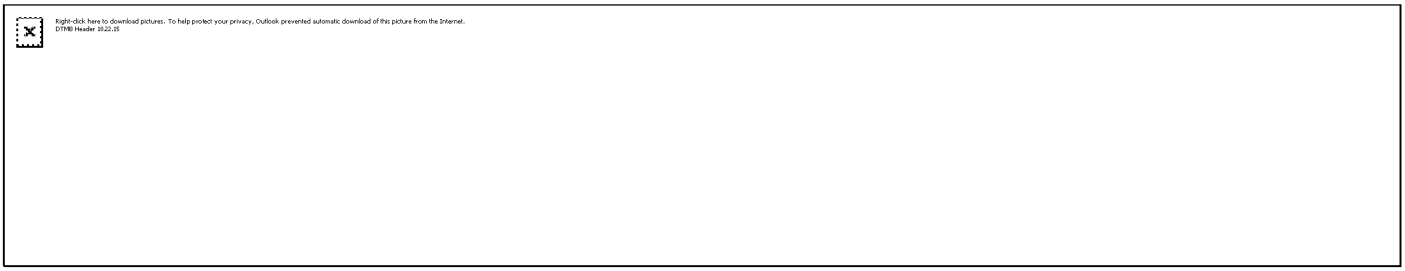
Subject: The Gov. Snyder's Budget Proposal



Good morning everyone. I hope everyone had a great holiday weekend.

I had the good fortune to travel to Marquette on Monday with Chad Laidlaw, DTMB's policy and planning analyst, to meet with city, business and university leaders and to address the Economic Club of Marquette. I told them about the many things DTMB does, placing special emphasis on our work in mobility and cybersecurity. Marquette is really developing and making its mark as an innovative and entrepreneurial community.

Now work.

The executive budget Gov. Snyder presented last week outlined his investment plan for Michigan. Yes, the proposal for fiscal year 2017-18 outlined a strategy to address the critical challenges of addressing the Flint water crisis and turning around Detroit's Public Schools, but the $54.9 billion plan also includes investment in four key areas:

- Education. The budget increases investment to K-12 schools, community colleges and the state's public universities. Additional funds are proposed to expand career, technical, science, technology, engineering and math programs.
- Protecting the Public. The governor's plan expands the Secure Cities program, which has reduced violent crime in four major Michigan cities. Funds also would support an additional trooper recruit school and an academy to train corrections officers, among other initiatives.
- Putting People First. The governor recommends continued expansion of the Healthy Kids Dental Program and funding efforts to ensure residents have access to affordable health care. His proposal boosts funds to help cover new higher cost specialty medications to treat conditions such as hepatitis C and cystic fibrosis, among others.
- Investing in Infrastructure. The proposal allocates $1.2 billion to maintain and repair Michigan roads, bridges and other critical infrastructure.

The budget proposal also includes FY 2017-18 funding recommendations for DTMB. Gov. Snyder recommends ongoing funding of $1.3 billion for department operations and a one-time allocation of $32.4 million.

A few highlights include:

- $502 million for information technology support for all state agencies and $132.8 million for 14 high-priority IT projects in seven agencies. He recommends increasing the Information Technology Investment Fund by $7 million, from $65 million to $72 million. This fund supports several major multiyear IT projects and upgrades, including the replacement of outdated legacy systems.
- An additional $5 million to support cybersecurity improvements to safeguard citizens' personal information and protect critical infrastructure and government services.
- IT support of $6.5 million to modernize the Office of Retirement Services' systems and enhance customer service for more than 530,000 current and future retirees.

You can see the full executive budget recommendations, which are posted on the Budget Office website. Details of DTMB's proposed budget begin on page B-75.

We can expect to see many changes before the budgets are signed and become effective Oct. 1. The executive budget will be used by the House and Senate Appropriations Committees as they work on their own budgets and hold committee hearings on the proposals. I'll keep you posted as the process moves ahead.

As always, I welcome your notes, whether about the budget process or any other topic. Please send them to me at behend@michigan.gov.

Thank you again for all the good work you do. I hope you have a great week ahead.

David

Jeff –

Attached is our draft financials for the new Office of Great. Sorry I took so long on my end, Flint interceded this afternoon. I would peg this @ 98% complete. It puts GREAT at a total of 64.0 FTE and $11.1M gross / $8.2M GF. The augmentation related increase is 10.0 FTE and $3.6M gross / $2.6M GF, and includes the staffing costs for the new positions, office space, employee and citizen survey, benchmarking and the replacement of Corporations Fees previously supporting the RPM functions in LARA.

As you know, we have been carrying a GF placeholder of $1.5M, so GREAT is coming in approx.. $1M higher than anticipated from a FY 2017 budget perspective. In addition, the financials include an additional $1M in SWCAP charges which is an approximately a 10% increase which could also equate to a GF expense on the agency side.

How all this plays out in relation to our shifting budget priorities with the Flint emergency remains to be seen. At least now, we have personnel and related costs identified and we can adjust as needed.

Greg – You will note that I made a change in the "Program Transfers from LARA" column, and it is out of balance. We may just have to live with that when we do the revision for the EO, because we have to force the augmentation expenses including the Corporations Fee shift into the FY 2017 Executive Recommendation – see the corresponding adjustment I made in the "Replace Corps Fees" column. If we wait until the 60 days for the EO to expire in March/April, we would not have the ability to recommend new GF-related costs. It will be awkward, but I think we can manage it with the fiscals.

If everyone is ok, I would like to get this to our leadership and in the decision-mix tomorrow.

Thanks…Lisa

Lisa - this looks good.

Actually, a little better than I thought (obviously the reductions yesterday helped).

Let's move this forward - I see John tonight and will give him a heads up.

Thanks again for the quick turn

Best regards

Jeff

The augmentation related increase is 10.0 FTE and $3.6M gross / $2.6M GF, and includes the staffing costs for the new positions, office space, employee and citizen survey, benchmarking and the replacement of Corporations Fees previously supporting the RPM functions in LARA.

State, Employee Unions Seek To Avoid 'Cadillac Tax' In ACA

It is too soon to say whether the federal government's recent move to delay the tax on the most generous health insurance plans, known as the "Cadillac Tax," by two years will mean the administration of Governor Rick Snyder seeks another one-year contract on wages and health insurance with state employees, state officials say.

On Friday, President Barack Obama signed into law something his administration had resisted but a bipartisan coalition in Congress strongly sought - a two-year delay, until 2020, of the 40 percent tax on health plans costing at least $10,200 for individual coverage and $27,500 for family coverage.

When the state reached tentative agreements with the unions representing state employees in the fall, the Michigan Corrections Organization said the reason the state had sought a one-year deal on wages and health insurance but the traditional three-years on everything else was uncertainty about the implementation of the Cadillac Tax, which at the time was schedule to take effect in January 2018, in the third year of a three-year contract.

State Employer Marie Waalkes had declined to comment on the situation until after the unions had ratified the contracts. That process concluded December 11, and the Civil Service Commission gave final approval to the new contracts last week.

Ms. Waalkes, responding in writing to questions relayed to her via State Budget Office spokesperson Kurt Weiss, said the state and employee unions agreed in the most recent contract to steps to avoid the imposition of the Cadillac Tax on the state. The value of the health plan is calculated by combining the employer share and employee share of premiums as well as employee contributions to a flex spending fund for medical expenses that has a maximum contribution amount of $2,550.

Had the delay not occurred and the federal government concluded that Michigan's state employee coverage qualified for the Cadillac Tax, the state and employees agreed to reduce as necessary or eliminate the flexible spending plan as a first step to bring the state under the threshold.

Using 40,000 state employees with individual coverage at the minimum level to qualify of $10,200, the tax would cost the state $163.2 million.

"The parties also agreed to meet throughout 2016 to discuss options to avoid the excise tax, and agreed that if such options are not successful the parties will negotiate terms of the health insurance plan with an end result that will provide the costs stay below the excise tax threshold," Ms. Waalkes said.

The state, prior to Mr. Obama signing the two-year delay, had been preparing for the U.S. Internal Revenue Service to issue final regulations on the tax next year. The two-year delay will aid in planning, Ms. Waalkes said. That is why the state wanted only a one-year deal on wages and health insurance, so it could fully evaluate whether the state would fall beneath the tax threshold, she said.

"Moving the effective date two years means there will be more time to discuss and evaluate existing health plans and projected increases in costs year after year," she said. "The intent of the employer is to stay below the federal excise tax threshold."

Census: State Slowly Growing, Could Lose Congressional Seat

Michigan's population grew slightly from 2014 to 2015, helped by births and immigration, but the rate of growth is slow enough that the state could lose another congressional seat, figures released Tuesday by the U.S. Census Bureau showed.

In fact, Kurt Metzger, founder of Data Driven Detroit and mayor of Pleasant Ridge, said it is clear that Michigan will lose another U.S. House member following the 2020 census and there is nothing the state can do to stop it.
Mr. Metzger said there is also some troubling data in the latest report, as it shows the number of people leaving the state has grown even though the state's economy has improved.
In fact, the number of people that left Michigan from July 2014 to July 2015 was the largest since 2011, when Governor Rick Snyder first took office and the state began to see improvements in its unemployment rate.
The figures show that Michigan is the nation's 10th most populous state with an estimated 9.922 million. The state grew by just 6,270 people during the past year.
And it was surpassed by North Carolina, now the 9th-largest state with more than 10 million people.
Michigan is still more than 1 million people larger than New Jersey, the 11th-largest state in the nation.
And the state has seen its population grow by some 45,000 people since it stood at 9.877 million people in 2010 (when it was the only state to lose population from 2000 to 2010).
A total of states, even in sunshine areas, lost population during the year: Illinois, West Virginia, Connecticut, Mississippi, Vermont, Maine and New Mexico. North Dakota was in terms of percentage the largest growing state, with growth of 2.3 percent. The state was helped by the energy industry, but still it had a total population of 756,927, the 47th largest state.
And Mr. Metzger said because states like North Carolina (which grew by more than 100,000 people in the last year), Texas, Florida and others continue to outpace every other state in growth there is virtually nothing the Midwest can do to counter that kind of growth.
"We might as well prepare ourselves" for losing at least one seat in the U.S. House of Representatives following the 2020 census, Mr. Metzger said. Losing one seat would mean Michigan would have 13 members of the House, the lowest number in more than a century. It would also mark fifth consecutive census that resulted in the state losing at least once congressional member.
From the 1960s to the 1980 census, the state had 19 members of the U.S. House.
The state saw some 24,000 immigrants come into the state and its highest total of births this decade, more than 114,000, which was 24,000 more than the number of deaths.
But the state saw outmigration to other states of more than 38,000 which put the state second behind Illinois in terms of the largest outmigration.
Mr. Metzger said it was unclear what was the cause of that outflow, and officials would have to watch to see if the trend repeats in another year.
While some of it may be due to retirees leaving the state for milder weather, Mr. Metzger said it could also be that younger people are searching out what they see as better job opportunities.
Michigan has seen job growth over the last five years, but much of it may be in lower paying jobs such as retail trade, Mr. Metzger said. There are indications that graduates of the state's best known universities, Michigan State University and the University of Michigan, are still more likely to go to other states than graduates of the other schools.
Mr. Metzger said the state has a significant split on the age ranges of its residents. While the Detroit metro area is the third most concentrated in the nation in terms of Baby Boomers, he said, it is 49th in terms of Millennials.

Library Association Joins Protest On Ballot Issues Bill

Michigan's libraries have joined with other public agencies protesting a major rewrite of the state's campaign finance law that the libraries said could result in librarians going to jail if they provide information on local ballot issues.
The libraries have also started an online petition - which as of Tuesday had nearly 2,000 signatures - calling on Governor Rick Snyder to veto SB 571.
SB 571 has not yet been presented to Mr. Snyder. The bill's initial purpose was to make clear it is legal for organizations to accept in one payment membership dues and a political action committee contribution.
However, the Legislature also added a provision that for 60 days before an election on a local ballot issue, a public body or a person acting for a public body (which could include local employees or elected board members) could not "use public funds for a communication by means of radio, television, mass mailing or prerecorded telephone message if that communication references a local ballot question and is targeted to the relevant electorate where the local ballot question appears on the ballot."
That would prevent public local officials from distributing information even to simply tell voters there is an issue on the ballot in the two months before the election, even if it takes no position on the issue.

Libraries have been a local source of information on election issues in the past.
In a statement, the Michigan Library Association said the measure would "block access to unbiased, objective, communications and dissemination of information, the very definition of a library's purpose. It reduces transparency and impedes open communications between libraries and their communities."
And the organization says the "hastily crafted legislation does not respect the need to inform and educate voters."
Other organizations such as the Michigan Municipal League and the Michigan Association of School Administrators have also called on Mr. Snyder to veto the bill, saying it is so broadly written city council and school board members could not even discuss a ballot issue during a meeting, if the meeting were broadcast on public access television.
Supporters of the bill have accused opponents of trying to obscure what they said is an attempt to stop government funded "propaganda" in favor of ballot issues, especially tax issues. Local officials can speak out on ballot issues, but not use local money to do so.

Michigan Has 'Reasonable Path' To Compliance Of EPA Rule, Officials Determine

Michigan is well on its way to compliance with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Clean Power Plan on reducing emissions, a preliminary review by the Michigan Agency for Energy and Department of Environmental Quality has found, and could continue maintaining business as usual for at least another decade.
The two agencies announced Tuesday they completed preliminary baseline modeling showing that if Michigan maintains the status quo with 1 percent annual energy waste reduction per year - less than the amount utilities are actually achieving at around 1.4 percent - and the state's electric demand doesn't exceed 1.2 percent growth per year (which would be more than the historical average), it is set to be in compliance with the EPA rule through at least 2025, and in one scenario, 2028.
"This helps us much better understand in relation to the rule. We were able to, just with some technical experts, feel comfortable there was a path to compliance," MAE Executive Director Valerie Brader said in a press call. "With these modeling results, we have a much clearer path to compliance."
The announcement was the first step in a series of actions the two will take before finally submitting a draft proposal to the U.S. EPA in September 2016. At that time, it will also request a two-year extension on compliance, a provision which was included in the final proposal by the federal agency and one that numerous states expect to request.
The deadline for a fully enforceable plan is September 6, 2018.
If the request is denied, DEQ Director Dan Wyant said in the press call, Michigan would be unable to comply with the federal rule, but he and Ms. Brader are cautiously optimistic about their chances given the provision was something that was added after extensive input from all the states on the Clean Power Plan.
"We think they understand that is required," he said. "That's a decision they'll have to make at that time but the construction of the rule recognized that giving any less than three years would make it difficult for states, including Michigan, to comply."
And some investments would need to be made prior to 2025 in order to continue compliance for the federal rule, Ms. Brader said. The federal rule hopes to achieve 32 percent less carbon pollution than industries had contributed in 2005 by 2030 when the Clean Power Plan is fully implemented.
Michigan specifically is expected to reduce its emissions 31 percent by 2030. Ms. Brader said the initial outlook considered previously announced coal plant retirements, and in fact that is one of the reasons Michigan can rest easy for a little while. Between 2013 and 2020, 25 different coal units will retire in Michigan, Ms. Brader noted.
"In addition, the continuation of our energy waste reduction is helpful," she said, as is the fact that Michigan already has some renewable energy units to help adapt to demand.
DTE Energy on Monday announced it would break ground in the spring of 2016 on 45 megawatts of new solar generating capacity at two projects sites in Lapeer - enough to generate power for 9,000 average-sized homes, it said in a statement. When completed, DTE said it will be the largest operating utility-owned photovoltaic solar array east of the Mississippi and the third-largest in the county.
The projects come with the approval by the Public Service Commission of DTE's contract with Inovateus Solar MI, LLC.
The only potential downside of the announcement by the MAE and DEQ is that it assumed natural gas prices would remain relatively low, and some did not agree with that assumption.
"We urge Governor Snyder and his team not to rely too heavily on natural gas at the expense of clean, renewable energy like wind and solar when it comes to meeting Michigan's energy needs," said Liesl Clark, president of the Michigan

Energy Innovation Business Council, in a statement. "The initial Clean Power Plan modeling released today by the state of Michigan assumes the lowest-cost scenario for natural gas, which also poses the greatest risk for residential and business ratepayers. Clean energy will reduce that risk should the 'best-case' scenario for energy prices fail to materialize."

But the announcement is indeed only the first step in a longer process. Ms. Brader said the state will launch its carbon rule website in mid-January, which will include information on how to be involved in the stakeholder process and offer opportunity to comment on plan development. It will also have the compliance process timeline, results of state modeling efforts, news, documents and more.

She expects to take the first round of public input between January and March, and a summary of reports should be available by late April. The DEQ will then prepare an initial draft of that state plan in the spring, making adjustments through the summer until finally submitting a draft proposal September 6, 2016.

Ms. Brader said they will continue looking at different modeling to see what Michigan will have to do after this decade of basic compliance as well as how Michigan could fare if it had more renewable energy units that emit far fewer, if any, carbon emissions. But she said she would expect that given how cheap renewable energy projects are coming for incumbent utilities that they would continue moving in that direction with or without a mandate from the state.

Some legislators have introduced legislation to allow the Legislature to review whatever greenhouse gas emissions plan the administration comes up with before it sends it to the federal government (SB 439 and SB 465). That legislation came on the heels of Ms. Brader and Mr. Wyant saying the state would develop its own plan on greenhouse gas emissions, and a plan that would not need legislative approval (See Gongwer Michigan Report, September 1, 2015).

Ms. Brader maintained that mantra on Tuesday. She some helpful points in legislation currently before the House and still being debated in a Senate committee are the provisions for allowing for a greater planning process. The House proposal also allows the state to look at reliability, affordability, adaptability and other variables in that planning process, she said.

But "the state of Michigan already has the authority it needs to develop this plan" without the Legislature, Ms. Brader said Tuesday, though having both plans "is helpful" no less.

Sen. Mike Shirkey (R-Clarklake) is the sponsor of one of those bills to require legislative input on the plan, though he notes that input is different from approval. He said he and Sen. Tom Casperson (R-Escanaba) still view their legislation as a high priority.

"We ran out of bandwidth (in 2015) and it's a high priority in 2016 because of things like this," he said. "We're going to be faced more and more with federal requirements and states having to respond."

He said there is a tendency for the state or bureaucrats to fix an issue themselves and that's the reason for the legislation, so the Legislature has a chance for a real review of a major issue.

He also questioned the true level of urgency to address Michigan's energy policy if what the two departments said is true in terms of the state's ability to maintain the status quo.

"If that's the case, then we've been fed some interesting information from incumbent utilities when they claim all the problems we've got to address. It just adds further skepticism to what urgency there is to us having to upgrade our energy policy," Mr. Shirkey said. "That's not to say it's not time for us to do it, it's just I'm not convinced it's the emergency (some would have us believe)."

SFA Revenue Outlook Offers Mixed Bag

The Senate Fiscal Agency on Tuesday issued its economic outlook on revenues through fiscal year 2017-18 showing more-than-expected revenues for the General Fund and School Aid Fund for the most recent fiscal year but a potentially tight revenue year for the current fiscal year.

Preliminary final fiscal year 2014-15 General Fund and School Aid Fund revenue totaled $21.9 billion, the SFA analysis determined, up 6.8 percent from fiscal year 2013-14 and $320.3 million above the May 2015 consensus estimate.

"The increase reflects an improving economy that boosted income tax revenue, and less-than-expected refunds under the Michigan Business Tax and individual income tax," the analysis noted.

The January revenue estimating conference will involve this estimate, as well as those from the House Fiscal Agency and the Department of Treasury.

But the economy will grow more slowly in the 2015-16 fiscal year than the most recent fiscal year, the SFA said, and MBT refunds are expected to increase. As a result, the combined GF and SAF revenue will total an estimated $22.1 billion, it said, a 0.6 percent increase from fiscal year 2014-15. That revised forecast is $55.1 million below the May 2015 consensus estimate.

And in fiscal year 2016-17, the combined GF and SAF revenue will total an estimated $22.6 billion, the SFA estimated, a 2.6 percent increase from the current fiscal year but $80.6 million below the May 2015 consensus estimate.
Specifically, it expects GF revenue will total an estimated $10.2 billion, an increase of 2.7 percent from the current fiscal year that reflects slower employment growth and increased revenue reductions attributable to personal property tax reform, it said. But SAF revenue will rise to an estimated $12.4 billion, a 2.5 percent increase.
In terms of year-end balance estimates, the SFA estimated the fiscal year 2014-15 GF budget will close the fiscal year with an $815.9 million balance, and the SAF budget will close with a $217.4 million balance, it said, based on accounting of state revenue and expenditures as of December 17, 2015.
And a comparison of the SFA's fiscal year 2015-16 revenue estimates with enacted and projected appropriations leads to a $701.2 million GF balance and a $59.8 million balance in the School Aid Fund.
Looking ahead to the fiscal year 2016-17 budget, there is a projected GF balance of $345.4 million if the agency's revenue estimate is compared with GF estimated expenditures that freeze ongoing and one-time spending at the fiscal year 2015-16 level and are adjusted for caseload and costs, as well as economic factors.
As for the SAF, the comparison estimated expenditures that adjust the fiscal year 2015-16 level of funding for estimated pupils and other costs, the projected SAF surplus for fiscal year 2016-17 is $17.4 million
"Although the year-end balance estimates are healthy, future budget pressures, such as GF/GP funding for road projects, increases in Medicaid costs, and potential aid for school districts in financial distress, will require more state resources," the agency cautioned. "The magnitude of this requirement will pose challenges to balancing the state's budget going forward."
NOVEMBER REVENUES: Revenues to the state's General and School Aid funds fell almost $80 million below expectations in Novembers, thanks to larger than expected Michigan Business Tax refunds, the Senate Fiscal Agency reported Tuesday.
General Fund revenues fell $77.5 million below expectations while revenues to the School Aid Fund were down $6.2 million from the forecasted level.
The major culprit was the Michigan Business Tax, which produced $98.9 million in negative revenue as a result of higher than expected refunds.
The income tax, however, was up from November 2014 by 8.9 percent and the sales tax also was up, by 3.8 percent.
Reflecting strong performance in the auto industry, sales tax revenues from motor vehicles was up 14 percent from November 2014.

PSC Directs Utilities To File Assessments On Meeting Customer Demand

The Public Service Commission on Tuesday directed all Michigan-regulated electric utilities to file, by April 21, 2016, assessments of their ability to meet customers' expected electric requirements in the 2016 through 2020 timeframe.
The order (Case U-17992) also asks alternative electric supplier to file similar assessments by that date, as well as requests that the Midcontinent Independent System Operator, PJM Interconnection, American Transmission Company, LLC, Michigan Electric Transmission Company and International Transmission Company submit comments by May 12, 2016, on relevant issues to the investigation.
"Last year's assessment covering five years provided the MPSC with a meaningful picture of the supply outlook and associated risks for the state as a whole and for individual providers," said PSC Chair John Quackenbush, in a statement. "Today's order again calls for five years of information that will assist the MPSC as it works toward assuring that Michigan's energy future is one that is built on adaptability, reliability, affordability and environmental protection as the focus."
Persons wishing to comment on the filed assessments and/or the possibility of future capacity needs have until May 12, 2016 to do so. Comments referencing the case number may be emailed to mpscedockets@michigan.gov, the PSC said.
All information submitted to the commission in this matter will become public information, available on the commission's website, and subject to disclosure.
CLOVERLAND ELECTRIC: The PSC also approved a settlement (case U-17313-R) to reconcile its 2014 power supply cost recover costs and increase its rates by more than $1.9 million annually, resulting in an increase of $1.73 on the monthly bills of residential customers on the Farm and Home Service Rate using 500 kilowatt-hours of electricity a month. Former Edison Sault residential customers on the Rate R-1 using the same amount of electricity a month will see an increase of $1.36 on their monthly bills. Both increases are effective with the next full billing cycle.

The PSC also determined, in a separate case (Case U-17971), that Cloverland Electric Cooperative has met legal requirements to become member-regulated effective January 19, 2016.

CONSUMERS ENERGY: The PSC also approved on Tuesday an agreement authorizing Consumers Energy to amend its energy optimization plan for 2016 and 2017, resulting in a decrease of 1 cent on the monthly bills of residential electric customers using 500 kilowatt-hours of electricity a month, and a decrease of 7 cents on the monthly bills of natural gas customer using 100 ccf of natural gas a month. Both are effective January 2016 (case U-17771).

Lincoln Park Back To Local Control; No Municipal Emergency Managers Active

For the first time in 15 years, there are no emergency managers in charge of a municipal government in the state as Lincoln Park has been turned back to local control.

Governor Rick Snyder on Tuesday accepted the recommendation of Lincoln Park Emergency Manager Brad Coulter that the Detroit suburb's financial emergency is resolved.

In accepting the recommendation, Mr. Snyder also named a receivership transition advisory board to help ensure the city maintains fiscal stability.

With the release of Lincoln Park, Mr. Snyder called it a great day for Michigan as the city has shown how the system can work to resolve ongoing financial problems.

While no city emergency managers are operating, three school districts - Detroit, Highland Park and Muskegon Heights - are under emergency management. Among the cities that have seen emergency managers under Mr. Snyder have been Detroit (which also underwent a bankruptcy), Pontiac, Benton Harbor and Flint.

Because of the drinking water crisis in Flint, the emergency manager system has come under sharp criticism for the role the manager took in moving the city off the Detroit water system to use Flint River water. That improperly treated water interacted with antiquated plumbing systems and led to increased lead levels in many children and older residents.

Such a situation did not occur in Lincoln Park. And in some 18 months, the city has eliminated a general fund deficit of more than $1 million, reduced retiree health care costs by $3 million (much of which is now going to the city's pension system), negotiated a reduction in firefighter overtime costs and reduced costs with its primary health-care provider.

Snyder Signs Court E-Filing Bills

Bills setting up a statewide electronic filing system for all district and circuit courts were signed into law Tuesday by Governor Rick Snyder.

With new fees designed to generate the $40 million to $45 million to establish the system, the bills would help bring those Michigan courts still stuck in a paper-only era into the electronic age.

Under the bills, a person who is found unable to pay the filing fees would be able to get them waived, otherwise the following fees apply:

- $25 in the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, Court of Claims, circuit court and probate court;
- $20 in district court if a claim for relief is both monetary and nonmonetary;
- $5 in small claims court; and
- $10 in district court if the preceding two instances do not apply, including actions for summary proceedings.

"Modernizing state government is a major priority, and as inefficiencies are identified, they are being addressed," Mr. Snyder said in a statement. "Enacting an e-filing system statewide for local courts is a common sense change that saves residents a trip to the courthouse when they need to file a document and eases the burden on employees."

The bills, HB 5028 (PA 230), HB 5029 (PA 231), HB 5030 (PA 232), SB 531 (PA 233), SB 532 (PA 234) and SB 533 (PA 235), take effect January 1.

Mr. Snyder also signed HB 4212 (PA 236, immediate effect) and HB 4215 (PA 237, immediate effect) removing the sunset on the law that allows counties to dissolve their road commissions and have their board of commissioners absorb those duties.

And the governor signed legislation altering the escheats process.

Unclaimed property worth $25 or less would no longer revert to the state under SB 538 (PA 242, immediate effect). The bill also streamlines the Department of Treasury's audit process for businesses with a significant Michigan presence when they request unclaimed property from the state.

Mr. Snyder also signed:

HB 4596, PA 238 — CAMPAIGN FINANCE (Lyons) Provides waiver on requirement for filing statement of a committee of an incumbent judge or justice elected or appointed.

Signed: December 22, 2015; Effective: March 21, 2016

HB 4597, PA 239 — CAMPAIGN FINANCE (Lyons) Modifies reporting and disclosure of certain candidates' expenditures.

State GOP Official Asked To Pull Down Post Mocking Muslims

Wayne Bradley, the director of African-American outreach for the Michigan Republican Party, removed a post from his Facebook account over the weekend that suggested a Muslim man would propose to a Muslim woman with a piece of dynamite instead of a ring.

Mr. Bradley posted a meme that featured a woman in a niqab (a veil showing only the eyes) looking tearful with an adjacent photo illustration of a small bomb resting in a box that would typically hold an engagement ring. Underneath the emotional-looking woman is the line, "He went to Jihad's."

Accompanying the post, Mr. Bradley wrote, "Bruh ..." with several emojis laughing with tears.

Progress Michigan circulated the post and called for the Michigan Republican Party to fire Mr. Bradley, saying the post was an outrageous attack on Muslims.

Mr. Bradley posted the meme Sunday evening, but by Monday afternoon, it was gone.
"Wayne made an insensitive joke and we asked him to take it down," said Michigan Republican Party spokesperson Sarah Anderson. "He is still an MRP employee. This is much ado about nothing."

Campaign Notes

SICK TIME BALLOT PROPOSAL ENDORSEMENT: The group seeking a ballot proposal requiring employers to offer paid sick time to their employees picked up the support Tuesday of the Michigan Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.
"I think, for some of us, it's pretty clear that earned paid sick days make sense from public health and social justice perspectives. But what we don't always recognize are the tremendous mental health implications. If someone is experiencing a mental health crisis, it is imperative they have the ability to address the issue without the added stress of not being able to afford to take that time off. This added stress only exacerbates the underlying issues and leads to a less healthy person, physically and mentally," said Maxine Thome, executive director of the National Association of Social Workers of Michigan.

WATER CLEANUP GRANTS: The Department of Environmental Quality announced Tuesday it had $25,000 available for the Volunteer River, Stream, and Creek Cleanup Program.
The program, funded through sale of water quality specialty license plates, provides grants to local governments for the cleanup efforts. The applicant has to provide at least a 25 percent match.
Grant applications are posted on the DEQ website and are due January 25.
MINOR TOBACCO SALES: The state has complied with federal limits on tobacco sales to minors for the past 15 years, the Department of Health and Human Services announced Tuesday.
A survey of retailers showed 15.5 percent of them sold tobacco products to minors during the past year, a 2.5 percent decrease from 2014 and within the 20 percent limit for the state to qualify for federal substance abuse program funds.
DHHS Director Nick Lyon said the target over the next two years is to bring that number below the 10.6 percent recorded for 2012.
TRANSPORTATION PLAN: The Department of Transportation announced Tuesday that it planned to adopt its latest long-range plan on July 23. The plan had been scheduled to be completed in May, but recent state and federal changes now have to be incorporated.
The comment period on the plan is now slated to begin May 10.

> Ok, here's the plan we must follow. Every purchase we make on behalf of DTMB or any other agency must be approved by Chris Christensen (our SEOC rep.) in advance. Chris will ensure that we don't create a situation where multiple departments pull the trigger on the same expenditure. I have communicated this plan to Shawn Sible (MSP) and Nancy Duncan (SBO).

> Brom, Phil, Natalie—My understanding is there is a PO for $4.3 million for water filters and cartridges pending funding approval. Nancy indicated DTMB has agreed to pay for this per David; however, she has a slight preference that DHHS pay for it to keep DTMB from being another line item on the supplemental. Phil, are you the right person to take the lead to identify the funding source so that the PO can be released?
